

Over 100 Stitches Used To Close Knife Wounds

Woman Pastor Makes Purchase:

Bishop Pope Buys Big Church Here

Two Women Fight; One Hospitalized

Officials at Wake Memorial Hospital informed a representative of The CAROLINIAN Monday that Mrs. Theima Cotton, 36, whose address was listed as either 224 S. Swain St. or 604 1-2 Powell Alley, was treated there Saturday afternoon for multiple lacerations of the

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

MRS. THELMA COTTON ... suffers face, arm wounds

MISS MARY BRIDGES ... charged with assault

Out On Bond

MONROE—Clarence Seniors, a Cleveland, Ohio attorney, posted a $10,000 cash bond Saturday and Mrs. Willie Mae Malley, 35-year-old celebrated kidnap defendant here, was released from the Union County Jail.

However, Mrs. Malley must appear at a term of Superior Court, beginning February 17, to answer charges of kidnaping a white child in the wake of a 1961 race riot.

The mother of two children, who was visiting this town from Brooklyn, N. Y., at the time of her arrest, was returned to Monroe on January 11. Her plans for the weeks preceding the trial are unknown.

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 22, NO. 12

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, JANUARY 25, 1964

PRICE 15c

ACME IS ROBBED

President Names Negro As Director Of USIA

Rowan Is Murrow's Successor

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Carl T. Rowan, 36-year-old Ambassador to Finland, Tuesday became the highest-ranked Negro ever to serve in United States government, as Edward R. Murrow stepped down as director of the United States Information Agency.

A former newspaperman and author of four books, Rowan will receive $21,000 per year in the new post. He will also become the first Negro ever to sit in on meetings of the National Security Council.

Although he is not a member of the Council, the USIA director always attends all of its meetings. Murrow, a native of Greensboro, N. C., faces a long convalescence after recently undergoing surgery for lung cancer. He is perhaps best known for his "Person-to-Person" television program when he would visit the homes of famous national and international celebrities across the country.

Rowan was praised by President Lyndon B. Johnson, who appointed him, as "eminently qualified to supervise this vital program of telling America's story abroad."

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CARL T. ROWAN EDWARD R. MURROW

Shaw U. Freshman Killed By Drunk Driver In City

Thomas Odell Wilder, 19, of 1111 Mark Street, was given final rites at 4 p. m. Wednesday afternoon at the Manly Street Christian Church with the Rev. T. C. Hamans, pastor, officiating. Burial followed in Hillcrest Cemetery.

Young Wilder, a freshman at Shaw University here, was struck by a car, driven by Jason Levern Bridges, whose home is in New Jersey. The accident took place last Saturday night while Wilder was attempting to cross U. S. Highway 401 South, near the Wilmington Street bridge.

THOMAS ODELL WILDER ... was Shaw freshman

The youth was on his way back home after visiting in nearby Walnut Terrace.

A reliable source informed a CAROLINIAN newsmen Tuesday that Bridges, who was charged with manslaughter and drunken driving by city police, stopped his vehicle immediately and called both the police and an ambulance.

The 20-year-old soldier, stationed at Fort Bragg, is still being held in Wake County Jail, according to

WEATHER

The five day weather forecast for the Raleigh area beginning Thursday, January 23, and continuing through Monday, January 27, is as follows: temperatures will average 3 to 5 degrees above normal, warm first of period and colder over the weekend. Precipitation totaling one quarter to one half inch, with mostly light showers Thursday and Friday. Moderate precipitation about Saturday.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| PAGE 2Borton's Cash Store  | PAGE 9R. E. Quinn Furniture Co.   |
| PAGE 3Gem Watch ShopEmma Jane Dress ShopCorrell Coal Co.Raleigh Business CollegeGuaranty Mortgage Co.  | PAGE 10A&P StoresEstimote Building Co., Inc.Nationwide Mortgage & Investment CompanySmith Coal & Oil Co.Firestone StoresKing Cole Motel |
| PAGE 4Bishop-Balk-Elliott'sMechanics & Farmers BankJ. W. Winters & Co.Taylor Radio & Electrical Co.  | PAGE 11Carolina Builders, Inc.Warner MemorialsDillon Motor FinanceRidgeway's Opticians, Inc.  |
| PAGE 5The Brit CompanyAcme Realty Co.James Sanders Tire Co.McLaurin Parking CompanyMedlin-DavisThe Brit CompanyAmburn Furniture, Inc.Straw's Banking & Trust Co. | PAGE 12London Oil Co.Nelson's WaysideBen Franklin StoreAcceptance Mortgage Co., I.  |
| PAGE 6Al Santa Buick Co.Ravie Motor Co.Raleigh Seafood Co.Triangle Aluminum Products, Inc.Central Drug Store   | PAGE 13Appliance CenterDunn's Easo ServiceBunt General Tire Co.Carolina Power & Light Co.   |
| PAGE 7Colonial StoreCapital Fuel Oil, Ice & Coal Co.   | PAGE 14Lincoln Theatre  |
|  | PAGE 15B-Hale Battery ShopMcLeod, Watson & Lanier   |
|  | PAGE 16Sanders Motor Co.  |

Mother's March Now Underway

The Mother's March of Dimes for Polio has already taken hold in many Raleigh neighborhoods. Working against time and weather uncertainties, a group of community volunteers began last weekend, knocking on doors and ringing doorbells for monetary contributions which will be used to help in the fight against that crippling disease, polio, birth defects and arthritis.

The following captains may be working in your neighborhood:

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

2 Men Bound Over In ABC Store Break-In

Two of three Raleigh men caught in Apex at midnight last Thursday by a police officer, making a routine check, were bound over Friday to Wake Superior Court for trial in connection with a break-in at an ABC store in Wendell, across the county from the spot in which they were nabbed.

ANDY (GUMP) MCCLAIN ... alleged "brains" of crime

CEDRIC BOST ... has long record

BISHOP PURCHASES LARGE CHURCH — Shown above is the church which Bishop Maude M. Pope and her congregation will occupy beginning March 1. Bishop Pope is shown in inset.

Structure To Be National Quarters Of Holy Church Founded By Bishop

BY CHARLES E. JONES

Bishop Maude M. Pope of 400 Bragg Street has accomplished more during the past four weeks than many persons could during a normal lifetime. She has bought an air-conditioned church, costing $65,000.

On Thursday, December 19, she paid a deposit to officials of the Salvation Army, under the direction of Major Olvy Sheppard.

Last week she signed the final papers to take over the church at the corner of E. Martin and S. Swain Streets, thus enabling Raleigh's Negro population to worship in the 35-year-old structure for the first time in history.

Church at the corner of E. Martin and S. Swain Streets, thus enabling Raleigh's Negro population to worship in the 35-year-old structure for the first time in history.

Founder of the Mount Sinai Saints of God Holy Church of America, Inc., the bishop plans to use the church as a national headquarters for her flock, who are located in other North Carolina cities, New Jersey and Massachusetts.

She founded the church in 1946. It is currently located at 1719 Pender Street.

Bishop Pope and her followers will move into the conveniently-located church in East Raleigh on Sunday, March 1st. Open House will be held for the general public on Sunday, March 8th, at which time dinner will be served.

WILL ACCOMMODATE 800

The main sanctuary of the "new" church will accommodate 450 worshippers including use of the balcony.

A complete basement, with approximately 15 classrooms is included; office space for the bishop and her associates; a nursery; patio that will serve 100 persons; modern kitchen; and activity halls on each of the three floors of the annex, built recently.

In addition, there are 7 classrooms; and activity halls on each of the three floors of the annex, built recently.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

D. Nichols To Trial In Embezzlement Of 2000's

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The trial of suspended AME Bishop D. Ward Nichols, postponed from December, will get underway here Jan. 27. The noted churchman is charged with the embezzlement and appropriation of more than $200,000.

The alleged embezzlement from the church's first Episcopal (district) took place during the mid-1950's when Nichols was a member of the Board of Bishops.

The district includes eastern Pennsylvania, Delaware, New York and the New England States.

He is named in 42 indictments and was unsuccessful in having them dismissed before both the Pennsylvania Superior and Supreme Courts.

Two suits—one civil asking for an accounting of the allegedly missing funds, and one criminal brought by the Church are pending.

The money estimates range from $150,000 to in excess of $200,000, according to the church and the district attorney's office.

The church contends Bishop Nichols, son of a South Carolina, presiding elder of the church and now a resident of New York, allegedly

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Local 'YM' Joins Nat'l Wk. Here

The Bloodworth Street Young Men's Christian Association will observe National YMCA Week Jan. 26-31 with a series of special events, it was announced Tuesday by E. L. Raiford, executive secretary of the local branch.

"YMCA Sunday" will be observed in churches throughout

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Daylight Hold-Up Nets $58

A brazen young robber entered the office of the Acme Realty Company late Tuesday afternoon and told the manager, Samuel T. Gibson, Sr., "This is a hold-up."

"I thought he was joking," at first, said Mr. Gibson. But his thoughts apparently changed when he saw the stub-nosed pistol the man held in his hand.

A tall, dark young man, wearing an orange colored sweater-shirt that partially covered his face, escaped from the office at 129 E. Hargett Street with approximately $58, after grabbing two empty bank deposit books, thinking they also held money.

When Gibson heard the gun click, he instinctively dropped to the floor.

At this time the bandit is said to have dashed around the counter, opened a cash drawer, took out currency and the two empty bags and left. During the altercation, a falling desk drawer is said to have hit Mr. Gibson near the eye. He was not hurt badly, however.

As the unknown robber fled, Mr. Gibson shouted for help. A barber in the Jones Barber Shop, next door, saw the man dash into the

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Sanford Accused Of 'Hypocrisy'

CHAPEL HILL — John Dunn, chairman of the Freedom Committee here, which is coordinating anti-segregation activities in this area, criticized Governor Terry Sanford Sunday during an anti-segregation rally.

Dunn said the governor as shown "hypocrisy" in dealing with North Carolina's racial problems.

He further insisted that Sanford was wrong in indicating the Congress of Racial Equality and other integration groups were trying to "coerce public officials with ultimatums or threats."

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Friends Of Shaw Meet

A group of Friends of Shaw University met last Wednesday, January 15, at 3 p. m. at the Bloodworth Street YMCA in an attempt to organize a local effort in behalf of the university's financial needs.

Several projects were proposed. However, as no permanent organization was perfected, no plans were formed to launch a local Friends of Shaw Fund-Raising Campaign at this meeting.

Present were Mesdames Myrtle Crockett, Virginia K. Newell, Harveigh R. White, Thelma M. Keck, the Rev. J. Oscar McCloud, Dr. Charles A. Lyons, Jr., J. I. Stredwick, Ross Fowler, P. R.

PROTESTS IN ATLANTA — The image in Atlanta, Ga., as a racially progressive city was marred last Saturday as the young Negroes above picketed a segregated lunch counter. City leaders point to years of racial harmony, including peaceful desegregation of public schools. A Negro leader said the "harmony image is merely a Chamber of Commerce snow job." (UPI PHOTO).