

Vocational Guidance Committee, AKA Debutantes Plan Program

The local A.K.A. Debs held their monthly meeting at the home of the chairman, Mrs. S. V. Perry, recently.

The president, Miss Natalie Wilson, opened the meeting with appropriate meditation, followed by a song by Miss Edith Freeman and the entire group.

The Debs offered many suggestions to the secretary, Miss Frances Williams, for consideration of program activities, namely: (1) Job Opportunity Clinic, (2) "Know More About College Requirements," (3) Know the places of Cultural Interest in Raleigh, (4) Acquaintance with Voter Registration Procedures, (5) Sharing of their time for service to the hospitals, Mentally Retarded School and Home for the Aged.

Misses Faye Eaton, Barbara Williams, Natalie Wilson, Sandra Sanders, and June Powell, all of A.K.A. Debs, who solicited contributions for the Clinic of Dimes from the local churches, were given small tokens of appreciation. (Other teenagers at Ligon also participated in the program.)

Committee members present were: Miss Thelma Watkins, Mesdames Phyllis Mann, Hattie Edmondson, Gladys Turner, Muriel Allison, and Fannie Latham. Basileus Martie Batey was introduced to the girls, who expressed having spent a pleasant social hour and enjoying a delightful repast.

Debs present were: Misses Sarah Morgan, Janet Young, June Powell, Janet Powell, Louise Hunter, Barbara Scott, Theresa Phillips, Diann Davis, Joyce Glenn, Rogerline Robinson, Carolyn Jones, Margie Jones, Bettie Bugg, Barbara Williams, Yutha Harrison, Deloris Young, Frances Williams, Doris Morgan, Faye

Eaton, Edith Freeman, Natalie Wilson, Wilma Shaw, Sandra Sanders, Denyce Stokes, Claudette Levister, and Betty Roberts.

25th Mid-Year Agency Conference Is Planned

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Seventy leading Negro life insurance sales executive will attend the 25th Annual Mid-Year Agency Officers Conference of the National Insurance Association at Stouffer's Inn in Louisville, March 18-20.

The three-day meeting will concentrate on problems of recruiting and training life insurance salesmen, and supervising field operations in the $2 billion Negro-owned segment of the industry.

Dr. S. Rains Wallace, professor of business education at the University of Virginia and vice president of the Life Insurance Agency Management Association, will be the main lecturer in two sessions scheduled for Thursday, March 19, ac-ording to E. E. Fort, agency director of Mammoth Life Insurance Company, Louisville. He is program chairman.

William A. Clement, CLU, president of the NIA, will address a luncheon Thursday.

Willie Galimore, star half-back of the Chicago Bears football team and representative in the off-season for S and H Green Stamps, will present a football film and short talk on Thursday.

Percy W. Prothrow, vice-president, agency section of NIA, will preside at the sessions.

NIA, now in its 44th year, represents 48 Negro-owned life insurance companies that comprise the strongest financial institutions among that group.

The Smoothest, Creamiest Fudge in the World

When favorite folks arrive at your door for a visit, you, the perfect hostess, can be ready with a plate of smooth, creamy fudge as your special greeting. Thanks to the better blending qualities of Carnation Evaporated Milk it's possible to make delicious fudge with just five minutes cooking... a trick designed to save precious time! And, thanks to Carnation you're assured perfect texture each time the candy is prepared, without the chores of soft ball tests or candy thermometer readings.

Your friends will be pleased and you'll be pleased, too, to see how easy fine hospitality can be. Store several batches, reserving enough for family snacks.

CHOCOLATE PECAN FUDGE LOG

(Makes about 2 pounds)

- 1/2 cup (small can) undiluted Carnation Evaporated Milk
- 1/2 cup (1/2 8-ounce package) semi-sweet chocolate pieces
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/2 cup raisins
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup chopped pecans
- 1/2 cup (about 16 medium sized marshmallows)

Combine evaporated milk, sugar, butter and salt in saucepan over medium heat. Bring to a boil, and cook 5 minutes, stirring constantly. (Start timing when mixture starts to "bubble" around edges of pan). Remove from heat. Stir in marshmallows, chocolate, vanilla and raisins. Stir vigorously for 1 minute or until marshmallows are completely melted and blended. Spread chopped nuts on heavy waxed paper. Pour fudge mixture over nuts. As fudge cools, form into roll. Cut in 1/2 inch slices.

2 Raleigh Men Named By Engineers

Two Raleigh men have been elected to top offices in the North Carolina Society of Engineers.

A. J. Woody, assistant district manager for Carolina Power & Light Company, was elected president of the state-wide organization, and Leroy M. Keever, electrical engineer for the N. C. Utilities Commission, was re-elected secretary at the 46th annual meeting in Durham.

Woody moves up to the presidency after having served as director and vice-president. He succeeds R. W. Neilson of Winston-Salem.

Keever has been active in the Society since 1937 and has served as secretary-treasurer since 1946. Both men are members of the Raleigh Engineers Club.

Other officers selected to serve with them are L. C. Cheek, Jr., of Charlotte and R. F. Coleman, Jr., of Wilmington, vice-president.

The Society has more than 1,300 members throughout the state.

Beauticians Convene Here April 26-29

The North Carolina Beauticians and Cosmetologists Association will hold their annual convention April 26-29 in Raleigh.

This meeting will mark the 25th anniversary of the association. The beauticians will celebrate their silver anniversary with the theme, "To Serve the Present Age."

Mrs. Vivian Massey of Winston-Salem is state president of the Association, and Mrs. T. J. Merritt of 723 S. East Street, Raleigh, is convention chairman.

The Beautician Association was founded in Raleigh. This year's meeting will be held in the spacious Raleigh Memorial Auditorium. More than 500 beauticians are expected to attend.

Highlights of the convention will be a public meeting with a nationally-known speaker, a silver anniversary banquet in honor of the founders, the usual schedule of business and a large exhibition area for professional improvement.
