JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

HOLDS MEET
Mrs. Gladys Cassell of D-3 Washington Terrace was hostess for the social meeting of the Mary B. Talbert Junior Woman's Club recently. She served buffet style and the members enjoyed returning for seconds. Of everything!

Mr. Beatrice Hall, president, presided over the brief business session. During this session the members accepted a new member and gave a donation to the Heart Fund.

Members present were: Misses Ida E. Jones and Vivian Burt; Mesdames Christine Cooper, Telsa Perry, Grace Harris, Dorothy Felmsler, Beatrice Hall, Carolyn Johnson, Madeline Wright, Victoria Walters, Mary B. Graham, Mary A. Spencer and Phyllis Hayward.

Mrs. Victoria Walters made the presentation of gifts from the club to the past officers of the club. Those receiving gifts were Misses Ida E. Jones and Vivian Burt, and Mrs. Phyllis Hayward. Mesdames Inez Peebles and Irene Price were absent but gifts were available for them.

Mrs. Beatrice Hall then made presentations of personal gifts to Mrs. Christine Cooper for duties performed at the last club meeting and to Phyllis Hayward for holding the longest membership in the club.

Because most of the time was taken in eating (seconds included) and presentations, games were given anyway. Mrs. Beatrice Hall received a prize for being the first member to arrive; Mrs. Mary Graham for being the last member to arrive; and Mrs. Victoria Walters for "tussing" because she didn't get in on any of the other gifts. The meeting was a most enjoyable one. The regular business meeting will be held Tuesday March 10.

On February 26, Mrs. Fannie Pretty of 629 Coleman Street entertained members of the Community Sewing Club at her home. Mrs. Pretty and Mrs. Fannie Youngblood served as chairman of the program committee. The home was beautifully decorated and the service carried the theme of St. Patrick's Day. The table was beautifully decorated in colors of green and white and the guests were presented with gifts.

The guests were Mrs. K. N. Cumbo, Mrs. Thernotta Curtis and Miss T. Lorraine Cumbo. Members of the Community Sewing Club include: Mesdames Marie Chavio, Fannie Youngblood, Bettie Chidley, Julia Crutcher, Lula Chandler, Lydia Mitchell, Lillian Freeman, Casper Lilly, Martha Mitchell, Iola O'Neal, Odell Woods, Elmore Crump, Mary Graham, Eddie High, and Bunkie Whitley.

RALEIGH CHAPTER OF N. C. COLLEGE ALUMNI MEETS

YWCA Activities

The East Raleigh Branch of the YWCA is sponsoring a huge rummage sale at the YWCA on Saturday, March 7, from 9:00 A. M. to 1:00 P. M. Shop and save. The clothes are all clean and in good condition. Children's clothing, men's suits as well as a good quality of women's clothing is already on hand at the "Y". Come and select yours now. There is also a quantity of new things on hand. Stop by the YWCA at 310 E. Davis St. Mrs. B. M. Edwards and Mrs. Annie Miller will help you.

Hal making classes at the "Y" will begin Friday evening, March 6. Plan to come and make your new spring hat. Hats of straw, fabric, or flower petals will be made. Come and learn to make a hat.

Improve yourself in one of the classes at the YWCA. Prepare yourself to be a better fit in our society and get more out of life by learning to read, or improving your reading, writing or English. Learn to write a business letter properly, read with understanding at the "Y".

Maybe you need to "brush up" on your typing. All of these things are offered at the YWCA. Sew and save. Learn to lay patterns, cut and fit clothing. Have beautiful clothing in low cost by making them yourself. For further information regarding any YWCA classes or activity, call the "Y" at TE 3-3422.

Mrs. Ruth Davenport and Mrs. Velma Joyner served as hostesses at the February meeting of the Raleigh Chapter of the N. C. College Alumni Association. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ruth Davenport.

Among the many items of business discussed, the alumni made plans to sponsor a reception honoring their recently-elected President and Mrs. Mason. Plans also included the sponsoring of some type of program which might add to the cultural enrichment of the city. Mrs. Mable E. Wright, president of the organization, presided over the meeting.

IDLE-A-WHILE CLUB MEETS
The Idle-A-While Club held its regular meeting last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Powell. After the business session, we were served a delicious repast by our hostess. We socialized and played Pinochle, with Mrs. Phyllis Hayward winning high prize, and Mrs. Hazel Williams winning low prize. Everyone had an enjoyable evening.

All members wish to extend their deepest sympathy to our loyal and faithful member Mrs. Dorothy Jeffries whose mother died since this meeting.

CITIZENS ASSOCIATION TO MEET

Come to Church

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

"Our Father, we thank thee for the many good things Thou dost bestow upon us. Grant us hearts that rejoice in Thy salvation. Direct us by Thy spirit that we be not silent when we can be vocal about Thy love for us and about our love for Thee and Thy church. Dear God, if we have been sinner when we should have spoken, forgive us. We pledge anew our love, loyalty, and voice in favor of the best. Use us to lead others to accept Christ as their saviour and encourage them in the faith, we pray."

CRIME BEAT

The two officers found out Mrs. Snipes lived in Washington Terrace, but after checking at C-4 Washington Terrace, she could not be located. Mrs. Hughes said she left Mrs. Snipes alone in the room where the money was kept only once.

It is believed she will be charged with larceny of U. S. money when apprehended.

DAMAGE TO PROPERTY
James E. Sanders, 28, of 705 S. Blount Street, reported to Officers James E. (Bobby) Daye and Norman Artis at 6:23 p. m. Monday that sometime during the day someone damaged his 1935 Ford Chevrolet by knocking out the back windshield, door glass and vent glass. Sanders stated that his car was alright when he checked it Sunday. Damage was estimated to be $150.

TWO FACE SHOPLIFTING RAPS

Officers W. A. Lamm and T. B. Lewis were informed at 6:29 p. m. Monday by an official of Hudson-Bell Company, 319 Fayetteville Street, that he saw two girls taking and concealing unpaid-for merchandise at the store. He signed petitions against Erma Simul, 13, 1322 Holman Street, and Gloria Jeffries, 14, 1303 Walnut Street. They allegedly stole 3 ladies shirts and one pair of socks, total value of which was $6.77. Both girls were released in the custody of their parents.

Princeton News

BY MRS. GOLDIE HARDY
PRINCETON—Sunday was Pastoral Day at the Princeton Chapel Disciple Church. The senior choir of St. Steven Disciple Church made the music.

The Rev. James Raynor of Bun Level was the speaker. The scriptures were Luke 1:1-16 verses. The message was well-enjoyed by a present.

There were fifteen candidates for baptism Saturday evening from St. Stephen Disciple Church in Princeton. The pastor, the Rev. W. C. Simpson, of Lagrange was in charge.

The Princeton Graded School's PTA will meet on Wednesday March 11, in the school's auditorium, at 7:30 p. m. The speaker will be Dr. Donnie Jones of Princeton. We are urging all parents and friends to be present for this meeting.

PERSONAL
Mrs. Nancy Howell, Mrs. Goldie Hardy, and sons visited Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Grantham of Route 2, Princeton, on Sunday evening. Mr. Grantham is recuperating nicely from an operation.

A THOUGHT
"The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God. They are corrupt. They have done abominable works: There is none that doeth good."

Nims Beamon Pugh, formerly of Corapeake. He will be accompanied by the choir, ushers, congregations, and friends of the Norfolk church.

Holy Communion will be held during the evening services, which begins at 7:30 P. M. Providence Church is located on the corner of S. Bloodworth Street and Bledsoe Avenue.
