

Holden Is Reinstated By Post Office Dept.

Now Works In Md. As Mail Carrier

EDWARD B. HOLDEN

In a surprise move last week, Edward B. Holden, of 616 Hadley Road, was reinstated to his position as letter carrier in the Post Office Department.

Raleigh Postmaster D. Staton Inscos advised Holden that the Board of Appeals and Review had sustained his appeal concerning his resignation from his

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Thompson's Principal Mother's Day Orator

MRS. MINETTA G. EATON
Mother's Day orator

Mrs. Minetta G. Eaton, principal of the Thompson School, will give the Mother's Day address at the St. Matthew AME Church, 804 East Davie Street, Sunday, May 10, at the 11 a.m. service.

Mrs. Eaton is an honor graduate of Morgan State College, Baltimore, Md., where she earned the Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Studies and received the Master of Arts degree from New York University. She has done further study at Chicago and New York Universities in supervision and administration.

She has had much experience working with women and is affiliated with several national organizations. Among these are: National Council of Negro Women, Jack and Jill of America, and the Association of University Women.

Mrs. Eaton is the wife of J. W. Eaton, principal of Washington Jr.

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

14 Ligon High Students "Take Over" City Hall

Seize Two In 'Reefer' Crackdown

Two Raleigh men were arrested here last weekend by city, State and Federal officers and charged with producing and selling marijuana, better known as "reefers".

A Shaw University student, Willie Walker, was charged last week with similar charges. However, he has been released on bond and is now allegedly still on the campus of the Baptist institution. He is a native New Yorker and was being supplied by his uncle, a 19-year-old youth, who lives with Walker's youth, who lives with Walker's

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

WEATHER

Temperatures next five days, Thursday through Monday will average a few degrees above normal in the Western sections of the Carolinas and near the coast. Towards the end of the week, weather will be warm through Friday. Turning a little cooler over the weekend. Showers likely about Friday and Saturday. Will be light and scattered generally below one tenth of an inch.

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

|         |                                 |
|---------|---------------------------------|
| PAGE 2  | Huron's Cash Store              |
|         | Ike Murnick's Promotions        |
|         | Lincoln Theatre                 |
|         | Ambassador Theatre              |
| PAGE 3  | Levens                          |
|         | Pine State Creamery             |
| PAGE 3  | Hudson-Bell-Eiford's of Raleigh |
|         | John W. Winters & Co.           |
|         | D. M. Esso Service              |
|         | Arne Realty Co.                 |
|         | James Smith, Jr., Co.           |
|         | Carter Coca-Cola Bottling Co.   |
|         | Surity Meat Market              |
| PAGE 6  | J. D. Mills                     |
|         | Concord Stores                  |
|         | E. Quinn Furniture Co.          |
|         | Karl Litchman                   |
| PAGE 7  | L. K. Lamm Shop                 |
|         | Am. Laundry & Cleaners Inc.     |
|         | London Oil Co.                  |
|         | State Builders Co.              |
| PAGE 8  | McWayne-Cay                     |
|         | Consolidated Credit Corp.       |
|         | Thimble's Record Shop           |
|         | Woolworth's Inc. Stores         |
|         | Baptist Drug Co.                |
|         | Capital Bargain Store           |
|         | Raleigh Loan Co.                |
|         | G. S. Contractors & Cleaners    |
|         | Per-We's Florist                |
|         | Community Drug                  |
|         | Daniel's                        |
|         | J. L. Pease's                   |
|         | Heller's Levine                 |
|         | Tan's Studio                    |
|         | Shoe Mart                       |
|         | Mother's Daughter               |
|         | Raleigh Construction House      |
|         | Joy American G-ill              |
|         | Green Cleaners                  |
|         | Buffalo Co. & Builders          |
| PAGE 16 | Carolina Power & Light Co.      |
|         | Mechanics & Farmers Bank        |
|         | Hunt General Tire Co.           |
|         | Correll Coal Co.                |
|         | Taylor Radio & Electrical Co.   |

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

JAMES E. COFIELD, JR.

historic university at 1 p.m., was attended by the Cofield twins parents.

Following is the contents of the citation to James Cofield, Jr.:

"Reserve Officers Association of the United States, Dept. of North Carolina, Honor Unit Award. Cadet A-2C James E. Cofield, University of North Carolina, is awarded this Certificate of Achievement, as a member of the ROTC Honor Unit of this school, for the qualities of Neatness, Precision, Courtesy, Scholarship and Fun-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

N. C. Field Organizer Declares

'HALIFAX OFFICIALS LIKE MISSISSIPPI'S'

KILLER GETS SHORT TERM HERE

Registrars, Cops Blamed For Delays

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 22, NO. 27

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, MAY 9, 1964

PRICE 15c

'Don't Stop Fight,' Mrs. Evers Urges

Freedom Rally Is Success

BY J. B. HARREN

Some two thousand NAACP workers and friends, coming from as far west as Asheville and from the east to Pantego and Wilmington area, braved threatening weather to travel the 250 miles each way to see and hear Mrs. Myrlie Evers, the courageous widow of Medgar Evers, Mississippi NAACP leader who was ruthlessly slain last year because of his dynamic civil rights leadership ability.

Tarheelia was not disappointed for Mrs. Evers made glad the hearts of the 48 'Mothers' (special guests of the Fight for Freedom program) who had raised several thousands of dollars for the NAACP in their home communities.

The next highlight of the program presided over by N. C. NAACP proxy, Kelly M. Alexander, was the presentation by the combined Prince Hall Masonic Lodges of Tarheelia-more than a hundred of whom came to the platform-of a donation of three thousand ($30,000) dollars. This marked the second year Prince Hall has given $3,000.

Alexander recognized the Eastern Star, and announced that their contribution would come in later.

The 'Mother of the Year' from the larger cities or branches was Mrs. Roberta Judge of Greensboro who reported $771. For the second time in three years, Tarboro, under the leadership of school-teacher Mrs. Beatrice G. Burnett, won the honor for small towns with Mrs. Lillian Ricks turning in $565.

In her quiet and emotional message to the audience Mrs. Evers, a charming and graceful lady, full of dignity, ability and

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

MRS. MYRLIE EVERS is shown addressing a Freedom Day rally, held last Sunday at the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium. (See story.)

Discuss Victim's Record

Accepting a lesser plea of manslaughter in the February 18 pistol death of a Holly Springs woman, Judge Hal Hamner Walker sentenced James Jeffrey Davis, of Wake Forest, Route 2 to a period of not less than one nor more than five years in prison.

Davis pleaded guilty to manslaughter last week in the death of Mrs. Alma Marie Upchurch Snelling.

He had originally been charged with murder, but the court accepted the lesser charge.

Defense Attorney George Anderson even asked Judge Walk-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Negro Church Group Votes For 'Mixing'

GREENSBORO—United Church of Christ delegates voted unanimously here last week to merge with two white conferences of that church to form a single administrative organization.

Discussing the merger were delegates to the two white conferences who were in session here. The three groups met together for a joint

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Mrs. Daisy Bates Here; Feted By Voter's Body

The Raleigh Women Voter's Council sponsored a dinner meeting, Tuesday May 5th, at the Cellar on East Hargett Street. The purpose of the meeting was to present the World Renown Civil Liberties Fighter, Mrs. Daisy Bates, of Little Rock, Arkansas, to the women of Raleigh.

Mrs. Bates came to Raleigh under the auspices of the Raleigh Citizens Association, to climax the intensive voter registration drive conducted here for the past five months. James A. Shepard serves as coordinator for this project. Mrs. Bates stressed the need for more

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

From Raleigh's Police Files:

THE CRIME BEAT

BY CHARLES R. JONES

EDITOR'S NOTE Each incident described below was obtained from the records and files of the Raleigh Police Department through a day-to-day check and each case is authentic. No personal opinions are ever expressed in this column. Because of the vast number of names obtained each week, it is impossible to interview every person mentioned.

CROOK STEALS FIFTY CENTS

Miss Mary Ferrell, 1612 Poole Road, told the cops at 9:20 pm Sunday, she had been visiting a friend a short distance from her home and when she returned, she discovered someone had entered the house by a rear window in her room. Nothing was found missing, except fifty cents, taken from a wallet in her dresser draw.

Exit was made through a side door. A neighbor stated she saw two men come to the front door of the Ferrell home, but couldn't describe them.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

SAMPSON BATTLE BEATS WOMAN WITH PAN

Officers C. B. White and W. A. Thomas received a call to go to 126 Quarry Street at 10 pm Monday.

Upon arrival, they talked to Mrs. Louella Dunn, 50, who told them Sampson Battle, 46, hit her on the head with a heavy frying pan. There was blood on her clothes and a cut on the back of her head.

The report continued. "We asked Sampson Battle if he hit her and he admitted it. "He was then arrested, charged with assault with a deadly weapon and jailed under $150 bond.

Mrs. Dunn refused to be treated for her head wound.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

VOTER'S COUNCIL HONORS MRS. BATES — The Raleigh Women's Voter's Council honored Mrs. Daisy Bates, noted integrationist of Little Rock, Arkansas here Tuesday afternoon at a dinner meeting, held at The Cellar. Shown here, left to right, are: Miss Maye E. Ligon, vice-chairman of the Council; Mrs. Virginia K. Newell, who introduced the speaker; Mrs. Bates, who addressed the Council; Mrs. Janet M. Marchena, chairman of the Council; and Mrs. Bertha M. Edwards, executive secretary. Not shown is Mrs. Harveleigh R. White, who was on the committee in charge of arrangements. (See story.)

Deadline For Registration Is May 8. Get Your Name On The Books Now!