APEX—Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, at First Baptist, the senior choir was in charge of the devotion, under the direction of Mrs. W. N. Beasley. Mrs. E. H. Williams is pianist. The pastor, the Rev. W. T. Bigelow, delivered to us a most interesting message. His text was taken from the 2nd chapter of Philippians, 5th verse. Subject: "The struggle for the mind."

(6 by 9 plea out to go)

The Youth Fellowship Hour, at First Baptist was very interesting. A religious film strip was shown entitled, "The Living Word in Japan." It was very colorful and informative, to see the methods they use to get the Bible published. It verified the fact, that the Bible is the greatest selling book of all others sold in the world.

Want you youth from all the surrounding churches to join us. It is non-denominational, so come out for an hour of fellowship.

The Rev. W. T. Bigelow, pastor of the First Baptist Church will celebrate his 7th anniversary, Sunday, May 17. There will be two sessions, afternoon 2:30, and 7:30 at night. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Pauline Bullock. Best man was Eddie's brother, Richard Howard.

Attendants of the bride were Miss Queen Hunter and Mrs. Edna H. Crutchfield, cousins of the bride. It was a simple, but beautiful ceremony. The Rev. W. T. Bigelow performed the ceremony. Miss Floyd Cotten played the "Wedding March." Mr. William Goldston was chief usher, and Mr. Arthur Howard, brother of the groom, was an usher.

MRS. COLVIN Subject: "The struggle for the mind."
