CLUBS

THE VICTORIAN CLUB MEETING

The Victorians met on a recent Saturday date. And, for once, Mrs. Mary Carter was not late. How could she be when she was hostess for the night. And she is quite a hostess—she is dynamite.

The president, Mrs. Dorothy Housen, was in the chair. The hostess thought that Mrs. Blanche Rivers should have been there.

How could you blame her when she is late for meetings? And didn't know that she had issued the president greetings?

Our meetings are short and soon are broke. But the fun started when the hostess forgot the coke. She didn't forget the trimmings of the meat. In fact, the meal was quite complete.

You got a souvenir fan along with your tally. That started some talking before the rally. Then it was time for the game to start. The hostess looked on—she had played her part.

A five hundred bonus was given for having been on time. Mrs. Blanche Rivers was the one who couldn't use it to climb. But Phyllis Haywood got a necklace and a thrill. When the high score, including bonus, she did fulfill.

An umbrella covered a basket of gifts alone. So a number made the difference, but not the score. The prizes did not stop at two but eight. And every member had a gift to celebrate.

Mesdames Bertha Pulley, Sarah Thompson and Lillie Hodge enjoyed the fun. And they enjoyed it from the starting gun. But so did Mesdames Ludelle Delany and Bessie Blue. And the others previously mentioned too.

Then the gifts for the hostess did appear.

And it was finally her chance to cheer.

For she got colors of just about every hue. That included beige, pink, blue, yellow—to name a few.

For hostess and members it was a great night. Everything turned out just absolutely right.

It'll soon be time for summer—vacations and members go away.

But before then there'll be one more meeting in the month of May.

IDLE-A-WHILE CLUB
The Idle-A-While Club held its regular meeting last week with Mrs. Esther Haywood. After the business session was over, members were served a delicious repast by the hostess. All ladies enjoyed playing pinocle. Mrs. Elizabeth Prigden won high prize and Mrs. Choise Chupp, low prize.

THE MINISTERS' WIVES
The Ministers' Wives held their regular meeting, April 27th, at 7 p. m., at the YWCA, on Davie Street. The group was favored with a short program given by Mesdames D. N. Howard, A. B. Johnson and M. B. Sapp.

THE NINE AND FIVE CLUB
The Nine and Five Club held its last meeting recently at the home of the president with each member acting as hostesses. The reason for this was the Dutch party which this we have at the end of the year or their last meeting. Each member was given a Dutch hat to wear which he wore the entire evening. There was plenty of food, and each member enjoyed herself.

After the business session, the members honored Mrs. Lovie Ellis with birthday gifts and expressed how glad they were to have her back with the club. They next paid tribute to Mrs. Addie Harris, a retired teacher, with a plaque with her name engraved on it and the name of the club.

The club next drew names for their Secret Pals when club meetings begin again next Fall. The members next played Pokera. Mrs. Addie Harris was awarded a prize for high score, and Mrs. Ann Webb for low score. The president next thanked the members for their fine cooperation
