

Sonny Liston Claims He "Hasn't Got A Quarter"

Goes Into Mountains To Begin Training For Bout

DENVER, Colo.—(ANP)—Denver's heavyweight champion Sonny Liston told the Denver Broncos' Quarterback Club here that he was going into the Colorado Mountains last week to begin training for another fight, possibly with Champion Cassius Clay, because he needs money.

"I got to fight again," Liston said in his first public appearance since he lost his title to the talkative Clay on Feb. 25. "I haven't got nothing, not a quarter. The government has it all and I don't understand it. They're holding it for taxes, but I don't see how they can take a man's whole pay for taxes."

He was referring to his purse from the Clay fight.

At the same time, Sonny took a verbal poke at his adviser, Jack Nilon, who told a Senate investigating committee that Liston was unable to comprehend financial matters, and also refused to take his advice.

"He's only a hot dog salesman. He didn't know anything about fighting then; and he don't know nothing now," said Liston.

78-22; THE 3 FLIPS AND A TER BROWN, Beatrice Burnett, and James Dyer, second place; and THE STINGERS, Thomas Pinson, William Payton, Irving McCollum, and Imogene Ford, third place.

Members of the first-place team also received chevrons from ABC and WIBC.

The following men received individual trophies: William Payton, for high average of 161; Charles Dyer, second high average of 159; and Joseph Parker, third high average of 157; Irving McCollum for the high game—240; and William Payton for the high game set—573.

Women receiving individual trophies included Misses Hazel Plummer for high average of 151; Aletha Rease for second high average of 136; and Clara Allen for third high average of 131; Plummer for high game of 202; and Allen for high game set.

Keplers receiving perfect attendance trophies—those who bowled all 75 games—were David Buie, Grace A. Cooke, Irving McCollum, Hazel Plummer, and William Payton.

Trophies Are Awarded By Bowling League

DURHAM — The highlight of the College Bowling League for the 1963-64 season was the awarding of trophies, certificates and achievement awards at the league's closing social May 2.

The league, consisting of 32 faculty and staff members from North Carolina College, played 75 games during the winter season at Durham's College Plaza Lanes.

Members of the three top teams received individual trophies, as follows: THE HORNETS, David Buie, Stewart Fulbright, Hazel Plummer, and LeRoy Walker, who ended up in first place with a record of FLOP, Norman Johnson, Wal-

Gregory Fined

ST. LOUIS—(ANP)—Bob Gibson, the St. Louis Cardinals strong righthander, was fined $50 after engaging in a bean ball duel with two Pittsburgh Pirates hurlers in a game won by the Cards, 9-2.

As Gibson and Dennis Bennett engaged in the brush-back duel, Gibson drew a warning and the automatic $50 fine in the third inning for throwing two straight pitches too close to Bennett.

Meanwhile Bennett was relieved by Jack Baldschun, who continued the duel. When he hit Gibson with a pitch in the last half of the fourth inning, Bob

SHAW BEARS WIN CIAA BASEBALL CROWN

Friday, May 8, was a glorious day on the Raleigh campus of Shaw University. The Bears ended their National baseball road trip victorious with 3 wins and the C. I. A. A. baseball championship crown. The Bears left Raleigh Monday afternoon. They stopped at Princess Ann, Maryland to take on the Maryland State Hawks on Tuesday. Maryland who has always given the Bears trouble could not cope with the hot batting of the Raleigh Nine.

Murry Maye, who has been in a slump most of the current season, unloaded with a grand slam home run that won the game for Shaw. This was one down and two to go. Tom Bennett, a local boy from Raleigh started, but needed help in the late sixth inning. Nathan Walton came on with the score tied to put the icing on the cake. Final score 11-10. Wednesday the Bears traveled to Washington, D. C. to play the Howard University Bisons.

Murry Maye's bases-loaded single in the seventh provided Shaw's Alvin West with the margin he needed Wednesday in a 3-1 victory over Howard University.

West allowed three hits in hurling the Bears to their 13th win in 14 games.

Thursday at Dover Delaware, the Bears faced the Hornets of Delaware State. State which had an identical record as Shaw was to conquer its second straight conference title. Bernie Wilder, one of Shaw's ace pitchers was paced with fine support from the whole team—trounced the Hornets 9-7. Wilder was pressured in the seventh inning when Delaware State got the eye on his pitching. He was relieved by Tom Bennett and later Walton relieved Bennett.

Cosch "Jim" Lytle is very pleased with the team's effort in securing the C. I. A. A. title.

CIAA Tennis Tournament Begins At Hampton Thurs.

HAMPTON, Va. — The Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association annual Tennis Tournament is scheduled for Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va., May 14-16.

According to host chairman, Dr. H. N. "Buck" Neilson, this year's tournament is expected to be the largest ever. Thirteen colleges are fielding teams in the league this year. This represents the largest since post-war years.

North Carolina College's Eagles are the defending champions.

Joseph Williams, North Carolina College junior, is the singles champion. Williams is the fourth ranked player in the American Tennis Association and in three years of collegiate play, he has never tasted defeat.

Hampton Institute is in the driver's seat in the Visitation championships and they are expected to battle the Eagles for the team title.

Each college will be allowed to enter six single players. These players will be seeded on the basis of their current CIAA record. This being the case, Williams will draw the top seed in the singles, while Doug Smith, Hampton Institute; Henry Bowers, Johnson C. Smith University, and John Duncan, Livingstone College, will follow in that order.

One-half of the Doubles champions will return from NCC. Last year Williams teamed with Eli Singleton to win the honors. Williams will probably play with Alfred Poe or George Logan.

Hampton's Smith and John Lewis rank as the favorites for the doubles championship.

Drawings for the 1964 Tennis Tournament will be held Wednesday, May 13 by the league's Tennis Committee.

Eddie Perkins 'Fighter Of Mo.'

NEW YORK—(ANP)—Chicago's Eddie Perkins successful defense of his junior world welterweight title recently, has won him Ring Magazine's selection as the "Fighter of the Month" for April.

Perkins easily defeated Bunny Grant of Kingston, Jamaica, at Kingston, in defense of his crown.

Says Fighter Bob Foster Kayoed Clay

CHICAGO (ANP)—Lippy Cassius (Muhammad Ali) Clay, the world heavyweight champion, is unbeaten in his professional career, but to Chicago last week came a fighter who reportedly flattened Cassius when they were both amateurs.

The fighter is Bob Foster, a light-heavyweight, who was matched with Chicago's Allen Thomas in a 10-rounder at the Coliseum here, Friday, May 8.

One of Foster's fans reported this incident, which was confirmed by Bob's manager, Billy Edwards.

"Clay was taunting Foster, so they decided to have a sparring session and Bob knocked him cold with a left hook in the first round."

The incident was supposed to have taken place while Cassius and Foster were training for the Pan-Am Games here several years ago. Edwards said the story is true, but added that Foster "would rather not talk about it because he and Cassius are friends now."

Street Fight Spells "Curtains" For Ex-Pug; "Chilled" For Keeps By 1 Blow

PHILADELPHIA—(ANP)—An ex-pug fighter who had long ago hung up the mitts, had another fight here last week and it proved to be his last.

Burdis Limar, according to police, was the aggressor during the incident, but wound up taking the count — for keeps.

The man who laid him out permanently was Curtis McNair, 37. Although he had no ring record, he flattened Limar with a single punch.

The two men reportedly had been feuding off and on for two years.

Sgt. James Lee of the Homicide squad gave this account of the brawl which ended in the tragedy.

McNair went into the Palm Bar for a "short beer." While he was there, Limar, 43, came up to him and said: "Look, we're either going to be friends or I am going to kick you where it hurts." Limar then told the bartender to give McNair a drink. When McNair refused it, Limar put his hands on his shoulder and told him, "I'm gonna whip you."

They started fighting, but the bartender told them they couldn't fight in the tavern.

So McNair left, with Limar running after him. Three times McNair eluded Limar, but Burdis caught with him again. McNair then connected with a punch which knocked Limar down, his head striking a door sill of a nearby building. It was not immediately known, but Limar had had it. He was dead.

His 24-year-old French-born wife, Edity, wouldn't give up though. She cradled her husband's head in her arms and kept crying, "Burdis, Burdis, speak to me." There was no reply.

Limar's survivors include a daughter, Linda, two; five sisters, two brothers and a cousin.

Rites for him were held at Garret Funeral Home.
