FIRST GRADERS PRESENT ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

On April 29, 1964, the first graders in Mrs. Mary G. Pulley's room presented themselves to the audience in a "Review" as a culminating activity of their choral speaking class.

The pupils who participated individually were Stephanie Becot, announcer; Rogerlene Bullock, moderator; Harvey Wall gave the introduction; and Gwendolyn Williams said the prayer.

Soloists for the chorus were Sharon Rogers, Golden Keys and Patricia Hinton, April Fool.

The other boys and girls were members of the chorus, namely: Allen Alston, Martin Brodie, Alec Craven, Rodney Cummings, Jerry Dunn, James Gillespie, Anthony Harris, Craig Holden, James Morgan, Mack Nichols, Otho Rowland, Harvey Wall, Rubin Price, Lattie Dunn, Deborah Allen, Cynthia Bridges, Johnny Goggins, Betty Person, Phyllis Price, Linda Ruffin, Glennie Ruffin, Rosalyn Sanford, Sandra Stanell, Barbara Turner, Cynthia Wright and Vickie Giles.

Beautiful gestures were rendered by Alec Craven and Jerry Dunn as the chorus recited "The Clowns". Also, Anthony Harris, Rubin Price, Rodney Cummings, Mack Nichols and Harvey Wall enhanced their audience as they portrayed "The Five Little Squirrels". The numbers rendered were Hickory, Dickory, Dock, Skipping is Fun, The Clowns, The Five Little Squirrels, Golden Keys, Kindness Garden and April Fool.

To add variety to the program the group sang the following songs: My Grandfather's Clock, Skip to My Lou and Bushy Tail.

A creative dance by Barbara Turner, Stephanie Becot and Rogerlene Bullock concluded the program.

The following parents were present: Mrs. Lela Becot, Miss Patricia Guess, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fletcher, Miss Bula Mae Stancil, Mrs. Rosa Mae Wright, Mrs. Gussie Person, Mrs. Otho Rowland, Mrs. Floessie Grant, Theresa Rogers, Lina Rogers, Mrs. Minnie T. MISS BRENDA WINSTON

A Thompson School fifth grade student, Brenda Winston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Genadius Winston, who reside at 315 South Swain St., was given an award by the Snelling and Snelling Company for sending in the best jingle of the week.

Brenda's jingle was an outgrowth of poetry writing in Miss M. E. Williamson's language class at Thompson School.

Brenda's jingle was: "A SCHOL PROBLEM" "One thing about school, is its rules: Not to act like little wild mules; So stay in school, And please don't sit on a dumb stool".
