

FREEDOM FIGHTERS IN FIST FIGHT

NAACP, RCA Presidents Assert Selves At Meet

BY CHARLES R. JONES Many of Raleigh's Negro leaders had "ringside seats" as a fist fight broke out between a minister-civic leader and the president of the local NAACP branch last Wednesday night at the Bloodworth Street Y-MCA.

"I Was Not Invited" To Commencement:

Elder Spurned By Massie

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 22, NO. 31 RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1964 PRICE 15c

Negro Minister To State Legislature

N. C.'S FIRST SINCE RECONSTRUCTION DAYS—The Rev. William R. Crawford, is shown receiving the friendship, congratulatory handclasp from his wife upon hearing at his headquarters in Winston-Salem last Saturday night that he had become the first Negro since Reconstruction days to be nominated on the Democratic Forsythe County ticket to be a member of the State House of Representatives. (UPI PHOTO).

Rev. Crawford Places 3rd In Forsyth Race

WINSTON-SALEM — The Rev. William R. Crawford was selected to the State House of Representatives from Forsyth County last Saturday and became the first of his race to serve in the N. C. Legislature since Reconstruction.

HELD FOR MURDER — Alfonso Cook was arraigned May 27, on first degree murder charges in the shooting death of a white bartender that almost led to a small riot, May 26 in New York. Police said about 200 angry white persons gathered in the Harlem Tavern shortly after the shooting occurred and threatened to "lynch" Cook while he was being identified by a witness. (UPI PHOTO).

Grads Seek Ouster Of New Prexy

BY ALEXANDER BARNES DURHAM — Ammunition is believed to have been furnished in the face of Dr. Samuel P. Massie, president, North Carolina College, when he failed to invite president emeritus Alphonso Elder to the Commencement exercises and an extended session of the Alumni Association on Saturday, in the heat of war that is going on to oust the college head.

Preyer Wins In Primary; Lake Holds Runoff Key

Although Democratic gubernatorial candidate L. Richardson Preyer, former federal judge from Greensboro, won the Democratic nomination for governor of North Carolina last Saturday, Dan K. Moore, his closest runner-up, signed a statement asking for a runoff on Saturday, June 27.

N. C.'S FIRST SINCE RECONSTRUCTION DAYS—The Rev. William R. Crawford, is shown receiving the friendship, congratulatory handclasp from his wife upon hearing at his headquarters in Winston-Salem last Saturday night that he had become the first Negro since Reconstruction days to be nominated on the Democratic Forsythe County ticket to be a member of the State House of Representatives. (UPI PHOTO).

S. Turner Eulogized In Oberlin

Funeral services for Seaton Gaines Turner, Sr., 78-year-old native of Raleigh—Oberlin section, were conducted Monday at the Wilson Temple Methodist Church, with the Rev. Oscar W. Burwick, pastor, officiating. Burial took place in Carolina Biblical Gardens.

Man Takes Own Life; Leaves Note

The death of Robert Thomas Cooke of 1018 Nassau Street, was ruled as suicide here Saturday by Dr. William Hedrick, medical examiner of Wake County.

Finds Fetus Of Baby In Branch Here

The fourth baby in recent years was discovered last Wednesday afternoon in a branch behind Capital Grocery Store, 500 E. Cabarrus Street.

Two Say Same Man Shot Them

Raleigh Police Officers O. C. Pratt and G. B. White reported at 9:20 p.m. Wednesday, that Alonso A. McIver, 21, of 216 Lee Street, told them Charles (Checkerboard) Howard, 21, shot him in the chest and left arm.

Arrests Mounting As Cops Nab Liquor Law Violators

By late Tuesday night, more than eighth-five persons had been arrested during the second night's roundup of accused bootleggers.

cover agents, termed the raid "one of the most successful and well-organized ever conducted."

Wheeler Again In Spotlight

John Harvey Wheeler, 56-year-old president of the Mechanics and Farmers Bank, Durham, was appointed as an at-large delegate to the Democratic National Convention in August recently.

From Raleigh's Police Files: THE CRIME BEAT

Editors Note: Each incident described below was obtained from the records and files of the Raleigh Police Department through a day-to-day check and each case is authentic. No personal opinions are ever expressed in this column.

BABY FOUND IN BRANCH — Shown above is the branch where an undeveloped fetus was found last Wednesday afternoon. This was the fourth human life discovered in this branch in seven years. (See story).

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

- Colonial Stores
E. E. Quinn Furniture Co.
Carl Lichtman
Stevens Gulf Service
PAGE 9
A. and P.
Estate Builders Co.
PAGE 10
Pepsi Cola Bottling Co. of Raleigh, Inc.
Carolina Builders, Inc.
Ridgeway's Opticians, Inc.
PAGE 11
Carolina Power & Light Co.
Community Florist
Linstead's Grocery & Transfer Co.
Southern Furniture Co., Inc.
Taylor Shoes Service
Raleigh Seafood Market
Security Meat Market
Ambassador Theatre
PAGE 14
Lincoln Theatre
PAGE 15
Wheeler & Watson & Lanier
PAGE 16
Mechanics & Farmers Bank
Hunt General Tire Co.
Dr. A. C. DeBerry
Taylor Radio & Electrical Co.
King Cole Hotel
Terrace Insurance & Realty Co.
Dunn's Home Service

CAUGHT WITH "THE STUFF" BUT FIGHTS
At 10:45 p.m. Saturday, Officers G. E. Cox and C. W. Jones observed Joseph C. Allen, 58, at the corner of Battle and Grape Streets and he had a jar of white whiskey under his shirt.
HIT ON THE HEAD WITH WOODEN CRUTCH
Miss Annie Jean Porter, 20, of 505 W. South Street, stated at 10:20 p.m. Saturday, her "friend" Robert Jones, 25, same address, sent her to the store to buy something and she was gone too long to suit him.
Miss Porter declared when she returned to the house, Jones struck her "over top of my head" with a wooden crutch.

WEATHER

Temperatures will continue five degrees or more below normal during the period Thursday through Monday. The normal high and low for Raleigh and Durham is: high, 84 and low, 62. Rainfall will average from one-half to one inch and will occur mainly in the form of showers or cloudy showers on Saturday through Monday.