the situation and to be ready to make recommendations at a meeting scheduled for July 1.

A member of the committee told the CAROLINIAN that it was his honest belief that the committee would not only ask for his resignation but would demand it.

Many of the students are concerned to the extent that some are miserable. One parent is known to have said that his daughter "came home crying and was all torn up" over the fact that Massie has shown such a defiant attitude toward the students and the faculty.

The trustee board is scheduled to meet at 10:00 A. M. Thursday to comply with the order of Judge Raymond Mallard, in hearing the appeal of Floyd Michael Pierson, suspended junior, and to discuss the details which led to the demotion of Deans George Kyle and William Brown.

The two ex-deans are said to have been disturbed over the altered statement that they had not cooperated with the president's program and that was the basis for his demoting them. They have asked to be heard by the trustee board and that Massie authenticate his alleged statement. To buttress their case, it is rumored that Dr. Elder will have a statement on their ability, their devotion to their work and the loyalty that they demonstrated while serving with him.

The trustees are expected to make a statement as to their findings as soon as the meeting is over. It is common knowledge that the desire of the president to demote the two men did not meet the approval of the entire board.

There were some who felt that the president's decision to remove the two men was made too hastily and without consultation with the men and other interested persons. It is rumored that the board might receive a request that Massie be fired at this meeting.

Meanwhile, the Rev. Fleming was being restrained by Wiley J. Latham, while others held Mr. Campbell.

Shortly before the fight started, Attorney Henry M. Sink, campaign manager for Raleigh Attorney R. Mayne Albright, had left the meeting, after speaking on behalf of the unsuccessful candidate for U. S. Congress.

The Rev. Fleming was finally led out of the meeting, reportedly to "cool off."

After a short while, the meeting was again called to order and was still in progress when our session closed next door.

Between 25 and 35 persons attended the meeting. Those seen by this newsman were: J. J. Sansom, Jr., City Councilman John W. Winters, J. E. Coffey, Val Hamlin, Mrs. Ruth H. Morgan, Wendell, Mrs. Bertha M. Edwards, Mrs. Janet M. Matthews, Mrs. Harveigh White, C. A. (Doll) Haywood, David Lorenzo Haywood, James A. Shepard, A. E. Brown, Wiley Latham, the Rev. Fleming and Campbell.

E. L. Balford, executive secretary of the YMCA, informed a CAROLINIAN representative Tuesday that he knew nothing about a fight having occurred at the "Y" on Wednesday.

C. A. Haywood, YMCA board of management chairman, told the same representative he "left hurriedly" before the fight actually started.

WAGNER SERVED SUMMONS BY CORE OFFICIAL — New York City Mayor Robert Wagner (right) is served a summons—

as he leaves U. S. Mayor's Conference luncheon last week—by Herbert Callender (left), director of the Bronx chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). The summons, one was also issued against New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, charged the Mayor and the Governor with violating a portion of the state labor law which prohibits public expenditures on projects where racial discrimination is practiced. Callender's charges obviously refer to the Terminal Market project, under construction in the Bronx, where work was stopped for 17 days earlier this month in a dispute involving four non-white, non-union plumbers. BUNN NEWS

BY HENRY M. SATTERWHITE
BUNN — The Bunn Chapel Sunday School began at 10:00 a. m. with Mr. Phillip Dunston, in charge. Title of the lesson was, "This is my Country." It was enjoyed by all present.

PERSONALS
The sixteenth birthday of Jessie Ann Crudup was celebrated Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Josephine Crudup. There were 55 guests present. They had a wonderful time.

Some of those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Floyd of Norfolk, Va. He is the brother of Mrs. Josephine Crudup; Mrs. Etta Sanders of Durham, who is a sister of Mrs. J. Crudup and her two daughters; Mrs. Eula Crudup and daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daye both of Durham.

Mrs. Lizzie Chambee of Bunn visited her sister, Mrs. Norman Allen of Raleigh and Mr. John Robert last weekend.

Mr. Nevada Chambee has returned home from the Army.

Mr. Robert R. Harfield of Durham has returned home.

Erector Sets: From Toy To Career

If ever a young man was destined for an engineering career, it's probably the one above, pictured using his Erector set to add a motorized mechanical man to his collection of working models made with the ever-popular career building construction kits.

Men and boys alike have been inspired by Erector, ever since its introduction in 1913. But today's sets, like today's boys, are space minded, and special new versions are available for creating such space-age projects as a planetary probe (to explore the moon surface), a moon bulldozer (we have to live after we get there), or a rocket service entry (that's the big equipment that puts the rocket in place).

Sure, Sonny will have to push Dad over to build with his own set! And Dad will find that although the principle of his son's set is the same as when he was a boy, the new sets have tapered riders, shaped pieces and plates in color, and Power-Matic motors. But both ages will find fun and satisfaction in this educational product by the A. C. Gilbert Co.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE, OUCH.

MIAMI (ANP)—Either James Lee Davis Jr., 26, has a secret yen to be a football star or he might be a frustrated cowboy. Davis was walking near the Florida East Coast railway tracks here last week when a Volkswagen came by. Immediately Davis made a run for the car and then dived at it, landing across the hood and cracking the windshield. It probably wouldn't have been so bad had the driver not been an off-duty deputy sheriff. The latter stopped the car and called police, who took Davis to the Jackson Memorial hospital for treatment of his bruises. Then Davis was booked at city jail on a drunk charge.

Lunch To Brighten Rainy Day

Split a piece of golden corn bread made with corn muffin mix into three layers. Then put thin ham slices between layers and top the triple-decker treat with peppy whipped mustard sauce. Serve with spring's fresh asparagus.

HAM TRIPLE-DECKERS
Makes 8 servings

Corn Bread:
One 12-oz. pkg. (2 cups) 2 tablespoons butter
One 12-oz. pkg. Mix 1/2 teaspoon onion salt
1 egg 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
2/3 cup milk 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Mustard Sauce:
3 egg yolks 1 cup whipping cream, whipped
2 tablespoons water 16 very thin cooked ham slices
3 tablespoons white vinegar Melted butter or margarine

Heat oven to hot (400° F.). Prepare mix according to package directions using egg and milk. Bake as corn bread in 8-inch square pan.

While corn bread is baking, prepare sauce. For sauce, beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored. Add sugar, water, vinegar, mustard, onion salt and garlic salt. Cook in top of double boiler over hot water until thick. Remove from heat; stir in butter. When mixture cools, fold in whipped cream.

To assemble sandwiches, cut corn bread into 8 pieces. Split each piece horizontally to make 3 layers; place ham slices between layers. Fasten each sandwich together with a toothpick. Brush tops with melted butter. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in preheated oven (400° F.) about 5 minutes. Top with mustard sauce.

Untapped Riches

Man's conquests and his unfinished work in Africa are spelled out for the first time in a newly published United Nations inventory of the Dark Continent.

Fourteen international authorities compiled the scientific catalogue of Africa's geology, climates, topography, flora, fauna and manpower. The experts concluded that the world's second largest continent is probably first in untapped natural resources.

The 440-page volume, titled "A Review of the Natural Resources of the African Continent," was published by the U.N. Educational, Scientific

Coffee Makes The Party

For your next buffet let something "different" in coffee be the conversation piece! Try decaffeinated coffee (many of your guests will appreciate your thoughtfulness) as it is served in the Near East. It's fabulous!

For the rest of the meal serve your favorite creamed fish or chicken on rice. Add cooked peas and bits of pimiento to the rice for color. For salad, serve frozen artichokes which have been cooked; then chilled with garlic dressing. Sounds simple, and it is, but sparked with a delicious and unusual coffee, it's a great meal!

BIRTHDAY CAKE: Lemon, Leafy, Lovely!

Birthday cakes are always pretty special and here's a lovely one, charmingly decorated with "leaves" instead of candles! To make the leaves, tint 1 cup of the 7 minute frosting a delicate green. With the rest of the frosting, fill the layers and frost top and sides of cake. Then, with green frosting, swirl ovals around top and sides, using about a tablespoon for each. Pull the point of knife dipped in green food coloring thru each leaf to give graceful design.

Lemon Leaf Cake

2-1/2 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour
1-1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
1-2/3 cups granulated sugar
3/4 cup vegetable shortening (at room temperature)

2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
1 cup buttermilk
teaspoon vanilla
eggs, unbeaten
Seven Minute Frosting (using 3 egg whites)

Sift flour, baking powder, soda, salt, and sugar. Stir shortening just to soften; blend in lemon rind. Add flour mixture, buttermilk, and vanilla and mix until all flour is dampened. Then beat 2 minutes at a medium speed of electric mixer, or 300 vigorous strokes by hand. Add eggs and beat 1 minute longer in mixer, or 150 strokes by hand. Pour batter into two round 9-inch layer pans, which have been lined on bottoms with paper. Bake at 350° for 30 to 35 minutes, or until cake tester inserted into center comes out clean. Cool, frost, and decorate.
