Mrs. Koontz Of Salisbury Only Candidate:

WOMAN TO HEAD U. S. TEACHERS

825,000 Tutors May Elect Her

SEATTLE, Washington — Mrs. Elizabeth D. Koontz of Salisbury, N. C., is a candidate for president-elect of the Department of Classroom Teachers of the National Education Association.

A Negro, she is the first member of her race to be nominated for this high and distinctive office. The Department of Classroom Teachers represents 825,000 teachers from all over the country and includes a majority of the members in the NEA, the world's largest professional organization.

Mrs. Koontz is now vice-president of the DCT and served as secretary of the national organization for two terms in 1961-62 and 1962-63. Elections will be held Monday, June 29, at the annual NEA convention in Seattle, Washington. She is the only candidate for the national office.

Leaders Ask For Adults In NC Town

ELM CITY—Nine teen-aged high school students from a northern city left town hurriedly Thursday along with their two adult leaders, after being ordered out of this Eastern North Carolina community by the Grand Dragon of the State's Ku Klux Klan, according to the Rev. James H. Costen, a Negro minister of Rocky Mount.

The Presbyterian minister said the group fled the State in the early morning hours after a large group of white persons gathered in front of the four Negro homes where the students and leaders were staying.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Friday climaxed weeks of bitter debate by passing the strongest civil rights bill in United States history as a "monument" to the late President John F. Kennedy, and increased hopes that the predicted "Long Hot Summer" of racial strife might be averted.

Significantly, the bill was to be signed by President Lyndon B. Johnson, who, as a senator, had masterminded the last

NAACP Memorial Will Honor Evers Sunday

The Raleigh Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will honor the memory of the national organization's late Mississippi field secretary, Medgar W. Evers with a Memorial Service at the regular monthly meeting, Sunday, June 28th, at the Fayetteville Street Baptist Church, 3:30 p.m. The memorial address will be delivered by the Rev. Edgar P. Quarterman of Savannah, Georgia.

Mr. Evers was shot in the back in front of his home in Jackson, Miss., June 12, 1963, as he was returning from an NAACP rally. Byron De La Beckwith, his accused slayer, is now free on bond after having two murder trials end in hung juries.

In addition to the memorial observance for Mr. Evers, the Raleigh Branch will also sponsor special membership and freedom fund solicitations during the week, said Ralph Campbell, the group's local president. The branch hopes to obtain 500 special memberships.

"It is only right and just," said Mrs. Harvaleigh White, program chairman, that we should pause in reverent tribute to Medgar Evers, whose life was taken as he struggled for hu-

LET'S TRY SMILING!

(An Editorial)

For many of us during these trying times of changing order it is harder to smile than to frown. We are recommending smiles instead of frowns to every segment of our population. The Civil Rights Front, where the action is torrid and determined in some quarters, between the races, poses many problems, but we would like to point out that there are not enough smiles inside the ranks of each race.

There are those in the white race who have different views on the lot of the Negro and how their positions will be affected by the new Civil Rights Law. We think this group should try smiling and dig a little deeper to make the law work.

There are other whites who take the position that states' rights will be invaded and in time most of the framework of government will be central. We feel that a smile from this segment would go a long way toward making America a better place in which to live.

On the other hand there are those whites who favor and foster an equal position for Negroes, according to their God-given talents, in all facets of American life, without bias or prejudice, because of race. They exhibit a smile of justice that creates an image that we are our brother's brother.

According to the trend of human nature, Negroes, likewise, have their varying attitudes and opinions

Civil Rights Bill Passage Is Monument To JFK

(An Editorial)

There have been many monuments proposed for the late president John F. Kennedy. There have been many other acts of acknowledgement of the fine contribution made by him in his short tenure. We think the passage of the Civil Rights Legislation was the greatest contribution that the United States Congress could and will make to the lamented man.

Senator McGovern, in addressing the Senate, in behalf of the measure paid a fitting tribute to his efforts and we take this opportunity to quote it from the Congressional Record.

"Mr. President, by an unusual coincidence, it was just exactly 1 year ago today, on June 19, 1963, that the late President Kennedy sent his message to Congress calling for the passage of a comprehensive civil rights law. One year later that law, which will stand along with the test as the greatest achievement of our late President, is about to become the law of the land."

President Kennedy told Congress a year ago why this law is necessary. He said then:

"Justice requires us to insure the blessings of liberty for all Americans and their posterity—not merely for reasons of economic efficiency, world diplomacy and domestic tranquility—but, above all, because it is right."

First Baptist Will Fete Pastor At Special Services

Some 1150 members of Raleigh's First Baptist Church will honor the pastor who has served them for the past five years as the Rev. Charles W. Ward observes his fifth anniversary as minister of Raleigh's largest Negro church on Sunday, June 28, throughout the day.

Every organization in the church will pay tribute to the militant pastor-state civil rights leader. These include all auxiliaries, the deacon board, the choir, Sunday School, Baptist Training Union, trustees and ushers.

Also slated to be present are representatives of the Raleigh Citizens Association, the NAACP, of which the Rev. Ward is State voter-registration chairman, several of Raleigh's ministers and other persons. Mrs. Mildred Laws Chavis is chairman of the special program planned for the pastor, with Deacon William H. Taylor, Sr., serving as co-chairman.

The speaker for the 11 a.m. services will be the Rev. Edgar P. Quarterman, a noted orator and pastor of the historic Second Baptist Church in Savannah, Ga. He completed his undergraduate work at Savannah State College and received his Bachelor of Divinity degree at Howard University, Washington, D. C.

BOYFRIEND STARTS 'FUSS', BEATS WOMAN

Miss Hattie Walters, 36, of 110 Seawall Avenue, told Officers P. A. Dean and R. F. Perry at 12:11 a.m. Tuesday, her boyfriend, Samuel Holder, 35, of the same address, started an argument with her in the 200 block of N. Haywood Street.

As the 'fuss' progressed, Miss Walters stated, Holder assaulted her by hitting her an uppercut on the chin with his hands and fists. She signed a warrant for assault and battery against her boyfriend and he was arrested.

FLOORED, ROBBED BY 55-YEAR OLD MAN

W. L. Hamilton, husky white owner of Hamilton's Grocery and Market, 722 E. Davis Street (in The Bottom), informed police officers at 4:18 p.m. Monday, that an 55-year-old Negro man, June Oakley, came into his store and asked for a pack of cigarettes. After he received the smokes, Hamilton declared, Oakley started walking out without paying for them.

When he called after Oakley and asked him to pay for the cigarettes, the complaint declared, Oakley stated he was not going to pay, then he turned around and struck Hamilton with his fist on the left side of the face, knocking the store owner to the floor, then Oakley left the store with the 25 cent pack of cigarettes.

Hamilton signed a warrant and his assailant was placed in Wake County Jail, charged with larceny and assault and battery. Oakley listed his address as 507 Montague Lane.
