ATA Juniors Wins Five Championships; Davis Upset

Durham's Bonnie Logan Whips New England Queen

BY DICK HOBSON

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Lenward Simpson, Bonnie Logan, Luis Glass, and Robert Binns, Jr. made an unprecedented sweep of the New England Championship last week.

LENWARD SIMPSON, THE "GIANT KILLER"

Playing in Mens Singles, Simpson defeated Aboo Simpson of New Haven, Conn. by default; Rev. Eugene Houston, New York, N. Y., -36; 6-2; Allen Pratt, Bridgeport, Conn., 6-0; 6-3; and Wilbert Davis, New York City seeded No. 1, 6-3; 5-7; 10-8. Davis is the 1963 National ATA Champion. Davis, known as "Billy," has for a long time dominated ATA Mens Singles. He has been a finalist no less than seven times.

He was the National Champion in 1957, 1958, and 1959. Billy put up a game battle for his prestige and his disdain for this precocious youth who dared to play in mens singles, but he was out manuvered, and out volleyed to lose the first set 6-3. The second set Billy put up his greastest demonstration of know-how to win the first 5 games, then attempted to run Lenward ragged with drop shots and lobs.

Simpson leveled the count 5 all only to drop the set 5-7 under Billy's relentless pressure. In third set it was game for game until the 7th game (the most important game in a set) when Lenward thoroughly indoctrinated to it value by playing his most brilliant tennis and stayed on top of Billy by winning his service although he served 13 double faults. Billy fought of 9 match points before dropping the 18th game and match.

The semi-finals Simpson outclassed John Mudd, Elizabeth, New Jersey 4-6; 6-1; 6-2. Simpson kept so much pressure on Mudd repeatedly by his net rushing that Mudd repeatedly kept hitting wild and out. Mudd was needed No. 3 and has a National ranking of 8.

The finals was an anti-climax. Simpson cut down Vernon Morgan second seeded player in straight sets of 6-4; 6-3. Morgan has a National ranking of 4. Morgan beat Luis Glass 8-6; 6-3 in the semi's.

Luis Glass of Jackson Heights, New York defeated Simpson in the semi-finals 6-2; 6-3 in the juniors, and defeated Norman Nazer of New Have, Conn., in the finals 5-7; 6-1; 6-3. Maze is New England's Junior Champion.

Robert Binns, Jr. won the under-15 crown downing Donald Ring-gold of Philadelphia, Penn. 6-2; 6-1. Binns defeated three opponents without losing a game until he reached the finals.

Miss Bonnie Logan won her third straight women's ATA singles crown in 1964 without losing a set. She defeated Jessie Harvey, New Haven, Conn. 6-1; 6-1; Mary Radcliffe, Elizabeth, N. J., 6-4; 6-0; Rubyy O. Pennington, Baltimore, Md., 6-3; 6-2; Elaine Bush, Philadelphia, Penn., 10-8; 75; and Dorothy Kornegay, Phildelphia, Penn., 6-4; 6-1. Miss Logan comes from Durham, North Carolina.

In tthe Girls' Events, Miss Logan defeated Kareen Jaffee, New Haven, Conn., 6-0; 6-0. Miss Jaffee is New Englapd's girl champion and is undefeated in the New England states.

A&T Aggie Gridders To Open Against Ft. Eustis

GREENSBORO — The time for the opening football tilt between the A & T College Aggies and the Fort Eustis (Va.) Wheels, scheduled for Saturday, September 19, at the Greensboro Memorial Stadium, has been shifted from night to day.

The clash has now been set for the same date and same site, but at 1:30 P. M.

Dr. William M. Bell, A&T athletic director, told reporters last week that the time change was approved at the request of Fort Eustis officials, because of prior military commitments.

The appearance of the Wheels in Greensboro will mark the first time that a fully integrated team has met the Aggies on the home soil. The Aggies have played against mixed teams for several years, chiefly military outfits, but almost always on military posts. The one exception was the Aggies' engagement against the New London Submarine Base at the New York Polo Grounds in 1946.

The remaining home schedule includes: Tennessee State University, September 26, 8:00 P. M, and the rest, all day games set for 1:30 P. M. — Norfolk State College, October 10; Morgan State College (Homecoming), October 31, and Virginia State College, November 14.

The away games call for: Johnson C. Smith University, October 3; Maryland State College, October 17; Winston-Salem State College, October 24; Florida A&M University, November 7, and North Carolina College, November 26.

Mum On Forced Jim Crow:

Lippy Cassius Clay Says He's Against Forced Integration

NEW YORK (ANP) — Apearing in a televison interview over station WOR-TV last week, lippy Cassius (Muhammad Ali) Clay last week projected himself as somewhat of a race adviser, by declaring that he was against "forced integration." He didn't say whether he was against forced segregation.

Commenting on integration, Clay, the heavyweight champion of the world, whose real field is the rough and tumble sport of boxing, said:

". . . . When it brings about the death of people, especially my people, and people being beat with clubs and pushed and ducked in water at beaches, and people come up disappearing and blowed (sic) up in churches, then I don't like that."

AN INDOMITABLE WILL

gard for the sports in which he participated as well as his fellowmen, whether they were his teammates or his opponents.

In the area of racial pride he exhibited a pronounced desire to keep his identity and to also contribute toward racial progress. He often related how he might have been able to achieve greatness in one of the Big Ten schools, having been offered scholarships by some of them. However he selected Morgan College of the CIAA. This speaks for itself. Few athle of "Pat" White's caliber would have turned their backs on the potential fame and fortune that attend sports in the Big Ten group. There is also the glamor, the contact and the popularity that comes to a successful athlete for performance in that bracket.

His family can be consoled in knowing that their son and brother smiled at life and death alike. They can know that their loss has been a gain for this community in so many ways. The family certainly is more aware of his closeness with the Creator than we could ever know. They have solace in knowing that his life belonged to all of us and that he gave it willingly and unflinchingly for his school and community. They can know that they made it posible, through God Almighty, "Pat" White . . . The Wonderful!

We salute his memory, knowing that this is indeed a feeble tribute to a most worthy son of Raleigh.

"Be Boon" For Sport, Jack Says

NEW YORK (ANP) — Former heavyweight boxing champion Jack Dempsey last week suggested that Cassius (Muhammad Ali) Clay fight ex-champ Floyd Patterson, and not Sonny Liston in his first title defense.

Dempsey said that not only is Floyd the hottest heavyweight challenger, because of his recent win over Eddie Machen, but the Clay-Patterson fight would be a boon for boxing, which currently needs a lift.

Clay surprised the boxing world by lifting Sonny's title on a seventh-round technical knockout last Feb. 25, when Liston failed to answer the bell because of a "tear" in the biceps tendon of his left shoulder.

Since then Cassius has not made up his mind about who he'd give the first shot at his title.

TO AN ATHLETE

That someday all of us, too
Will have to leave this land.

Although we may not leave in glory
As you did by God's own will
If we live as God commended
We'll make it to Heaven still.

So long Dear Friend, Happy Exodus,
We will see you by and by
Some day in that far off Land,
In God's kingdom on High.
