

THE CRIME BEAT

BY CHARLES R. JONES

SAYS SON'S BIKE STOLEN
Charles Lewyn Hadden, 18, N. Tarboro Road, reported at police headquarters at 4:01 p.m. Thursday, that someone stole his son's bicycle sometime Wednesday afternoon. The Western Flyer 26-inch model was red. The complainant told the officer on duty he has a suspect in the theft.

THINKS GIRL TOOK WALLET, MONEY
Miss Alice Lewis, of 9 S. Fisher Street, told Officer O. C. Pratt at 12:49 p.m. Friday, that Miss Ella Mae Watson, 17, of 102 S. Fisher Street, came to her home to use the telephone and she (Miss Lewis) left the room in order to give her privacy.

Later in the morning, she reported, she was in the room beside the phone, and discovered a ladies' black wallet, containing one dollar bill, a quarter, a dime and a five-cent stamp missing. The wallet also contained some valuable papers, the complainant stated, and belonged to Miss Rita Austin of 9 S. Fisher St. Miss Lewis added, "I am sure the missing items were in the room before Ella Watson came." She declared no one else had been in the house before or after she found the property stolen. No other action was listed on the report.

NAB TWO WOMEN FOR SHOPLIFTING
E. C. Stanton, who works at Colonial Stores, 401 South, told two cops Friday, he saw Miss Bernice Bledsoe, 27, of 202 Selwyn Alley, and Miss Dorothy White, 34, of 211 S. Swain Street, shoplifting at the store.

He stated Miss Bledsoe stole one package of luncheon meat, valued at 29 cents and a package of wieners, costing 33 cents.

Miss White is accused of "making off" with two pairs of women's hose, 99 cents each and some chicken, valued at 95 cents.

Warrants were signed and Officers E. D. Whitley and G. W. Williams placed both women in Wake County Jail on shoplifting raps.

SEES BOYS "SWIPE" SHOES
Mrs. E. L. Tilton, white, owner of Tilton's Shoe Shop, 403 E. Davie Street, informed Officers W. A. Lamm and R. E. Keeter at 1:55 p.m. Friday, she saw two Negro youths come into the shop and steal a pair of brown, low quarter shoes, valued at $5.50.

The only description the woman could give was that both appeared to be about 18 years old and wore small-brimmed hats.

HUBBY ASSAULTS MATE
Mrs. Martha Taylor, of 285 Fugh Street, reported to Officers C. R. Aycock and Bobby B. Coats at 1:10 a.m. Saturday, her husband, Marvin Taylor, beat her up with his hands and fists.

Mrs. Taylor signed a warrant and her spouse was jailed under a $100 bond for assault and battery.

MAN CUT DURING "FUSS"
Willie McClain, 23, of 1330 Holman Street, told Officers D. Brinson and J. A. Perry at 1:17 a.m. Saturday at Wake Memorial Hospital, that Jimmy Pallor, 22, "who lives somewhere on Hargett St.," cut him during an argument at the intersection of E. Davie and S. Bloodworth Streets.

McClain, who rode a taxicab to the hospital, was treated for a laceration on his chin.

WOMAN, BOY FIGHT, ARRESTED
Mrs. Louise Byrd Blue 23, of 1409 New Bern Avenue, and Johnnie Byrd, 17, of the same address were arrested in the 400 block of S. Bloodworth Street at 10: p. m., Saturday and charged with engaging in an affray.

"BIG WILLIE" BEATS MAN UP
James Williams, of 1324 Holman Street, told an officer at 6:46 p. m. Saturday, he was in Edna's All-Night Cafe, 213 W. South Street, when a man called "Willie," who is heavy-set and "lives somewhere on Cannon Avenue," picked him up from the floor, and threw him down against the cement floor again, causing a laceration of the scalp. He was taken to Wake Memorial Hospital by an ambulance, where he was treated for his wound.

CLAIMS EX-BOYFRIEND ATTACKED HER
Miss Ann Davis, of 529 Cannon Avenue, who works at a barbershop, located at 315 W. South St., reported to a cop at 7:57 p. m. Saturday that her ex-boyfriend, Arthur McNeil, came into the shop and asked her to come outside.

When she refused, the complainant stated, "He knocked me down and kicked me." She signed a warrant and McNeil was placed in Wake County Jail, charged with assault and battery.

HUSBAND FACES WIFE-BEATING CHARGE
Mrs. Dorothy Isaacs, 2 Dare Terrace, came to the police station at 11:45 p. m. Saturday and signed a warrant against her husband, Robert Isaacs, same address, claiming he assaulted her with his hands and fists in the 400 block of S. Bloodworth Street.

OUTWITS WOULD-BE ROBBERS
Charles Clyde Moses, 64, of 144 McMackin Street told Officers Norman Artis and James E. (Bobby) Daye at 8:19 a. m. Sunday, that while he was walking through Chavis Park, two men drove up in a car and asked for his money.

However Mr. Moses reached into his pocket and produced a knife instead. He declared the men followed him to the intersection of Patterson Lane and E. Lenoir St., then left. No money was taken by the mystery duo.

WIFE-BEATER GOES TO JAIL
Mrs. Delores Jean Jeffries, of 532 E. Edenton Street, informed two cops at 4:09 p. m. Sunday, that her husband, Lonnie Jeffries, beat her with his hands and fists at their home.

She signed an assault and battery warrant and Mr. Jeffries was last known to be languishing in the Wake County Jail.

FRIENDS, BILLFOLD LEAVE TOGETHER
Miss Edith Rand, 21, of 631 W. Cannon Street, reported at 1:53 a. m. Monday, she had some

FIRST BAPTIST HONORS MRS. DUNN — Mrs. Eugenia H. Dunn, above, of 320 E. Davie Street, who has served as Supt. of the Home Department of First Baptist Church's Sunday School for many years, was honored on a recent Sunday at the 11:00 a.m. service. She was awarded a plaque by the pastor, the Rev. Charles W. Ward, as Sunday School Supt., Mr. W. H. Taylor, Sr. looked on. The entire church congregation heard Mrs. Dunn praised in glowing terms. A native of Raleigh, Mrs. Dunn is a deaconess and is the widow of the late Mr. P. H. Dunn. She joined First Baptist Church in 1904.

friends over for the evening Sunday night, and after they departed, she discovered her billfold was missing from her purse.

She stated the brown leather wallet contained $3 in cash and several valuable papers. The entire loss was estimated at $5.

WOMAN CAUGHT IN THE ACT
Wallace Cozart, white manager of Ben Franklin Stores, 2000 New Bern Avenue, stated to Officer R. F. Perry at 6:13 p.m. Friday, Miss Roxie Boyd, 23, of 321 Fisher St., came into the store and stole four pairs of ladies' nylon panties, valued at $3.99.

Cozart declared Miss Boyd quickly put the panties in her bag and started out of the door. He called her back and asked her to "empty the handbag."

He said the woman left the store then. He came to police headquarters and signed a warrant and Miss Boyd was taken to Wake County Jail and booked for larceny.

THREE BOYS BEAT MAN, WOMAN
Joseph Ray Alston, of 616 E. Davie Street, reported to Officers B. E. Lee and Jimmy Pierce at 12:18 a.m. Saturday, that Bobby Earl Bullard, Ivan Brooks and Willie Brooks, all of Route 4, Zebulon, attacked him with their hands and fists in the 600 block of E. Davie Street. He signed warrants against all three for assault and battery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Alston, also of 616 E. Davie Street, told the cops Ivan Brooks beat her in the face with his hands and fists. She signed a separate warrant against Ivan.

YOUNG BOYS FACE MANY RAPS
A 12-year-old boy who lives at 712 Fayetteville Street, and a 10-year-old child, of 112 Bledsoe Ave., were charged Friday with stealing the following items from the Pep Boys' Store, Fayetteville Street: one mirror and one light for a bicycle, valued at $3, and an electric horn for a bike, costing $2.

To add insult to injury, they went out to State College on Hillsboro Street and stole a bicycle to place these items on. The bike was valued at $50.

Police officers were unable to find the bicycle's owner, but did charge the boys with larceny as petitions were drawn against them.

MAN GIVEN FRAUD CHECK
Abe Scott, of 816 E. Davie St., who operates Scott's Grill, 702 E. Martin Street, reported at 11:35 p. m. Friday, that David Gillespie gave him a check for $54.63, signed by James T. Bell and returned marked, "Unable to locate."

Mr. Scott said he had a telephone number where he could contact Gillespie about the fraud check.

ROBBER TWICE IN SAME PLACE
Nathaniel Lawson of Knightdale, informed Officers E. L. Barham and M. L. Stephenson at 2:01 a. m. Saturday, that on Friday night he was on Fayetteville Crossing when two youths, about 18 years of age, carried him into the rear of the Price Is Right Grocery, where they relieved him of $17 in currency.

Lawson also stated these same boys had robbed him of $92 two weeks ago in the same location, but he did not report it until Saturday. The Friday robbery took place about 8:30 p. m.

THIEF ENTERS BUSINESS HERE
The Rev. Raymond Pritchard, of 925 S. Blount Street, informed Officer C. D. Gilbert at 12:58 p.m. Monday, when Wilbur Lee Ruth, who opened his place of business, went there around 10:30 a.m., he discovered that a drink machine had been forced open. The box was damaged, and about $7 was stolen.

Entry is believed to have been gained through a sliding door on the west side of the building.

ROCK-THROWER DOES EXPENSIVE DAMAGE
Felix Louis Watson, of 1200-A S. East Street, told Officers S. W. Adcock and C. B. Aycock at 11:45 p.m. Monday, he
