

Harlem Club

ATLANTIC CITY-In his tenth straight year as the musical headliner in the lounge of the famed Club Harlem here, bandleader Wills Jackson is in as much demand as the sun, sand and the waters for which this world-wide resort is bandstand around mid-night until he heads for home with the rising sun, thousands are entertained nitely by, his big, booming tenor saxaphone. Rat-ed by his associates as one of the Giants of the Big Horn. Jackson has come a long way since he first blew a note as a teenager in Miami, Florida.

First winning attention when he was a member of Cootie Williams ork, "Gator", as he's known to his close friends, is now in his 15th year as a bandleader. Whether it's jazz, blues or a pop tune like the current hit, "People", he can play fast, furious and lowdown. And he's always at his best when the lounge is packed with nitelifters, whom he rates his most critical audiences. Then the booming sound of his tenor horn fills the minutes later the applaus fills the room is deafening.

Marvin Gaye Near Tears At Party

Recording Artist, Marvin Gaye, was so moved by the reception that he received in his father's hometown of Lexington, Ky., that he was unable to speak.

Overwrought and on the verge of tears, Gaye could only shake his head and embrace his paternal grandmother when she, along with other members

Willis Jackson Imitators Don't In 10th Yr. At Bother Drifters

Imitators and followers never bother the Drifters quartet. For the past ll years they've led the nation as the top rhythm and blues quartet and during that time have seen more than 50 challenging outfits fall by the wayside. The creation of well-known theatrical manager George Treadwell in 1953 who installed Clyde McPhatter as the lead singer, they tasted success on their first record for the At-lantic label, "Money Honey." Two years later when the handArmy then recruited someone else to take his place and like Ol Man River kept rolling along in popularity.

Several months ago when R Lewis died, many predicted that they would never find a replace-ment to fill his vocal shoes. But, instead of going on a talent hunt they decided to not hire anyone new, and just reassign many of Lewis' chores with the group to other members.

Musicians To Convene For 41st Annual Meet

BROOKLYN, N. Y. (NPI)-The campus of Long Island university will be the scene of the six-day 4ls annual convention of the National Association of Negro Musicians Inc., here beginning Aug. 16. One of the largest delegations in the history of the music group is expected to convene under the gavel of President Kenneth Brown Bill-

Simultaneously, two major units room and takes off into orbit. When feeding the parent body - the the tune is finally finished ten Juniors, directed by Miss Josephine C. Inniss, Chicago: and the Youth division, headed by Miss Heloise Rolark, with Mrs. Saidie Hardiman. Indianapolis, as director - will be holding their separate sessions and presenting their yearly programs.

of his family, greeted him at Lexington's Blue Grass Airport.

His August appearance in Lexington culminated a two-day Marvin Gaye Day celebration.

Qlueried about his reaction by newsmen, Gaye could only shake his head and say, "I've never seen anything like this before in my

The spening event of the 1964 confab will be held in Philhar-monic Hall, Sunday evening, August 16. Chairman of this event is Wilson W. Woodbeck. New York, NANM public relations director. Hest to the three groups is the MU-TEOR branch, guided by noted concert artist Fred Thomas.

Conferences, workshops, elinics and buzz sessions will claim the daily attention of the delegations of teachers, choral directors, organists, singers, instrumentalists and musicians who are interested in administration, as well as composers and concert managers. Each evening will feature a major con-cert with NANM members a variety of musical demonstrations.

Seemed Like She Weighed Twice As Much

CHARLOTTE (NPI) — A "not guilty" verdict was handed down in City Recorder's court here last week on an assault charge filed by one weman against another.

The plaintiff, weighing in at 150 pounds, had accused her 97-pound neighbor of throwing her down neighbor of throwing her down beating and kicking her.

According to the plaintiff, the five-year-old sens of both wessen were playing together, when a fight broke out. The 97-pounder, rushing out to see what was the trouble, vaulted a four-foot fence between the two houses, and challenged her 156-pound "rival" to a quoi in the atreet. 150-pound "rival" to a the street.

When the 180-pounder refuthe neighbor set upon her.

California Notebook

BY BILL ROBERTSON

If you want your child to make good grades in school, provide him with a good home.

That's the advice of Dr. Gunnar Wahlquist, a leading West Coast educational psychologist.

"A good home does not necessarily mean a well to do home," he said. "It even can be a divided home or a home in which the mother is employed.

"But it must be a home where there is lots of gunstine arm hugging type of affection. It must be a home where there are good books and magazines and where there is no carping criticism of our public institutions, where the child can find we always love him, but not always the things he does.

a refuge, understanding that "Parents who push their children out of some sense of their own pride are not performing any service to the child." according to the psychologist.

"On the contrary." he said, "the child affection, a sense of security and refuge in the home, an example in love of good reading and other good character traits. "But don't push. Suppose your child does finish school at 15. What can he do then? He can't get a full time job, because he is insurable. He has no social contacts because of the age gap.

DASHING ALONG

GENE RAMOS . . . the enter-prising young man who is a top-flight interior decorator recently opened a new firm on W. Vernon named the G & G Transfer Compa-

LESLIE UGGAMS . . . LESUIE UGGAMS . . . the number one female vocalist on TV (the Mitch Miller Show) is currently the headliner at the fabulous Coconut Grove. She is simply captivating the celebrity filled audience at the Grove nightly.

first born, Rashima.

JOAN CRAWFORD . . . the famous screen star is reported stricken with leukemia. She is hospitalized at Cedars of Lebanon hospital. This writer reported in this column several weeks ago when she first (press agent) gave out that it was only a minor check-up, that she was very, very sick. Remember you read this here also; Ed Sulliaccording to my girl friday in more danger health wise than has been reported.
SIDNEY SKOLOSKY . . . you

producer is truly a movieland trouphealth, fellow.

ERNEST GIPSON . . . the handsome Angel City photographer has been added to the Hollywood News Syndicate staff, according to V. P. James E. Rogers of the world-wide news firm.

TEMPUS FUGIT . . . If you remember when "Hucklebuck" was a top tune, you're 15 years older. It clicked big in 1959.
TEENAGE PAGEANT . . . The annual Miss Photogenic Teenager

Pageant was acclaimed a most Pageant was acclaimed a most successful affair on Sunday at the Elks Auditorium. The event was sponsored by the Sub-Debs, a group of levely teenagers. Officers of the group includes, Jackie Parker, president; Patricia Johnson, vice-president; Carol Washington, business manager; Jennifler Harden, treasurer; Audit Parker, Set-At-Arms Elaine Crayon, Sgt-At-Arms ful playboy Angel pitcher, who

(Former Raleighite)

vice to the child," according to the psychologist.

"On the contrary," he said, "the child who is pushed shead by parental pride often turns up in high school as a failure or a low grade student. Your pride may have destroyed the thing you wanted—a child in your image who stands ahead of all other children."

Commenting on the importance of the home as a basic factor in education, Dr. Wahlquist said: "The parent determine the level of aspiration in the child. Give the

GLORIA SMYTHE . . . the former chic jazz singer (she's a native of New Jersey and prepped at Paimer Memorial Institute in Se-dalla, N. C. as a high school coed) has been a member of the Muslim sect for several years. Gloria, who is also now a successful wigmaker. recently became a mother (a baby girl) and is happy as can be since heavy weight champion Muhammed Ali (nee Cassius Clay) named her will get a kick out of the interview of him in the current Photoplay Magazine issue. Sid, a veteran Hollywood columnist and former er. Wishing you continued good amounced his plans to quit baseball one day and was suppended indefiniely the very next day by Manager Fred Hanoy for clobbering sportswriter Braven Dyer in a Washington hotel, is reported set to embark on a movie career in the very near future. He has the female appeal and the flery temperament to make him a benefite aitraction. Curry on Do, the girls want you beak in filmland.

Our congrats to the wonderful girls and their parents.

BO BELINSKY . . . the color-

ACCRA... A 65-year-old farmer tried to commit sucide. When questioned about the cause of his troubles, Opanin Twumasi told the court, he wanted to do away with himself because he had seven wives and 30 children. "I was so confused, I wanted to die," he de-

ANDY ALLEN ..., the personable manager at the popular California Club is most talked about for the terrific shows he brings weekly to the night spa. A nicer guy is hard

WOULD LIKE TO SEE DIANE WATSON . . . the social

INCOLN

STARTS SUN., AUG. 28RD "LADY IN/A CAGE"

OLIVIA DEHAVILLAND "VOODOO WOMAN" Starring LANCE FULLER

STARTS THURS., AUG. 27TH "ST. LOUIS BLUES"

NAT "KING" COLE "SHE WORE A YELLOW RIBBON" ite-schooltescher married to a dynamic young minister, WILDRED KING . . . and his "RINGSMEN" come up with a num-ber one hit. They have everything but the right exposure.

JONI WEBSTER . . . the beaute-ous screen starlet land a meaty role in a good lick. ROY RICHARDS . . . the hand-some young singer from Fort Worth, Texas, became a headliner. He is simply great.

BILL GREENE . . . the former

Kansas City civic-leader become a member of the Los Angeles City Council. He is presently adminis-trative assistant to Assemblyman Mervyn Dymally. brilliant attractive attorney Angel City receive a judgeship.

THE CAROLINIAN RALEIGE, N. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 22, 1954

Here Are Triple Threat Musician By Box-Office, Attendance

following observations regarding Negroes. He said, "I can't see why the Negro must feel that he is so special. Every race has been en-slaved at some time or other. If the Negro would practice pride, respect for one another much of their social problems would be-come non-existence, especially in crime and juvenile delinquency.

Angel City receive a judgeship.

LOUIE COLE . . . the veteran politician tabled "Mr. Republican" become a full-fledged Democrat.

DIC YOUNG . . . the famed editor of the new California Eagle teach journalism at a local college.

JUNE TALBOT . . . the transplanted Philadelphia model open her own modeling agencies. She is midd one of the best on the West Coast.

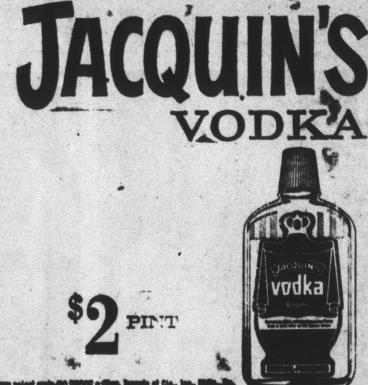

FINAL REEL

A JAPANESE VIEWPOINT: In conversation with a young Japanese student the other day he made the

The Temptations, five handsome Be in Trouble" and "The Girl's lads, whose double chartmakers, I'll Airight with Me" gave D the most thrilling nigh show at the Twenty Grand wood Lounge niffcent Supremer, three tiful and islanted young whose smash receding."

Did Our Love Ge" is the ber one record in the in

Willie Tyler, one of the most fantastic ventriloquists is acclaimed all over the nati

1 20 多数的现象 ACCOUNT.

MONEY DONORS—Jackson Mississippi: Academy-Award-winning actor Sidney Poitier (left) and singer Harry Bellonts talk to reporters here August 11th after-presenting a $70,000 check to civil rights leaders to carry on their work in Mississippi. They are sictured at the airport, enroute to New York. (UPI PHOTO).

