

THE CRIME BEAT

BY CHARLES R. JONES

BREAKS OUT WINDOW PANES
Charles G. Irving, 32, told Officer D. Brinson at 6:06 p. m. Wednesday, that Mrs. Rosa Boddie, 56, broke some window panes in his shop, Irving-Swain Press, Inc., 303 S. East Street, with her hands and fists.

Mr. Irving signed a warrant against the woman, charging damage to property and she was placed in Wake County Jail.

THREATENS 'EVERYBODY IN THE HOUSE'
Miss Helen Grey Dew, 29, of 823 Jenkins Street, was reportedly disorderly when Officers Bobby E. Coats and E. Clayborne arrived at this address at 8:29 p. m. Wednesday.

Her mother, Mrs. Lily Dew, stated the daughter had threatened all occupants in the house. The cops arrested Miss Dew for disorderly conduct at the scene, but she refused to go with them. The young woman had to be restrained before she could be taken to the station.

However, upon arrival at police headquarters, she struck Officer Coats in his mouth with an ash tray. She also scratched him on his right arm, neck and lips. She was then charged with assault on an officer and resisting arrest.

Miss Linda Wilson, 16, signed an additional warrant against Miss Dew, charging assault and battery; and Miss Patricia Wilson also charged her with assault with a deadly weapon-scissors. The defendant was jailed under $500 bond on all charges.

BRAZEN HOOD TRIES FORCEIBLE ENTRY
Mrs. Mary Potts, of 822 Manley Street, reported to Officer D. C. Williams at 11:02 p. m. Wednesday, that an unidentified Negro man tore the screen from the window of her bedroom and started inside.

When she realized he was coming in, she began to push him back out.

The complainant was unable to give a description of the would-be night raider.

ESTRANGED HUSBY BEATS UP MATE
Mrs. Roberta Jeffries, 23, of 1818 Nassau Street, informed Officers T. T. Street, Jr., and Joseph Winters at 3:18 a. m. Friday, her husband, Marvin Jeffries, 25, of 650 Buck Jones Road, came to her home while he was drinking and "beat me with his hands and fists." She suffered bruises near her right eye.

KITCHEN HELPER USES IRON PIPE
Officers Ralph Johnson and J. E. Pierce were called to the kitchen of Rex Hospital at 7:07 p. m. Thursday, after a call was placed regarding an assault with a deadly weapon.

The two cops arrested Macon Poole, 46, of 205 Waldrop Street at the corner of St. Mary's and Hillsboro Streets.

Poole then told the officers that he hit Mack M. Davis, 18, of Route 1, Zebulon, in the face with an iron pipe in the kitchen at Rex because Davis had called him a s. e. b.

Poole was then hauled off to Wake County Jail where he was booked for assault with a deadly weapon.

Davis was taken to Wake Memorial Hospital for the night where he was treated for a cut left eye.

LARCENY COMPLAINTANT ARRESTED
William Brown, 37, of 219 E. Hargett Street, reported to two cops at 12:08 a. m. Friday, that "two unknown colored men jumped me and took my billfold," at 704 S. McDowell Street, as he was walking toward City Cab stand.

A woman at the cab stand stated she saw the two men, one very tall, the other short. One, she said, wore a checkered sport coat.

Mr. Brown was later booked for public drunkenness.

STEALS WOMAN'S MONTHLY CHECK
and mouth wounds. The iron pipe was confiscated as evidence by the officers.

Mrs. Thanie Green, 60, of 1961 Walnut Street, reported at 5:30 p. m. Thursday, that someone stole a $20 check from her pocketbook, hanging in a closet on either Monday or Tuesday of last week.

The complainant said her son, stationed in Germany, sends her a check for the above amount each month. She was unable to remember the name of the bank it was drawn on.

MAN ROBBED WHILE SLEEPING
Willie Lee Shaw, of 906 Oakwood Avenue, stated at 10:02 p. m. Thursday, he came home "about drunk and went to bed. When I woke up, somebody had stolen my wallet from the pants I was wearing."

Later, Shaw discovered seven shirts missing from his foot locker which was unlocked and his shoes were stolen from under the bed.

Mr. Shaw stated he thinks it was about dark when he laid on the bed, and about 8:30 when he awoke. The remainder of Shaw's clothes were scattered over the floor. The wallet contained $32, he said.

BREAKS MEDIC'S WINDOW
Dr. William F. Clark, 60, who maintains a residence and offices at 314 E. Cabarrus Street, informed Officer Joseph Winters at 11:07 p. m. Friday, that Joe Peebles, 30, of 2502 Klifford Street, came to his office for treatment, but found the office filled with other patients.

Peebles, the medic stated, fell into the glass front door (waiting room), breaking out the glass and left the scene. He later returned to Dr. Clark's office with $25 in cash to pay for the damage to the door.

Officer Winters did not arrest the man and noted on his offense report, "This was done unintentionally."

WOMAN ADMITS THROWING MUSTARD OIL
Miss Roberta Watkins, 39, of 525 1-2 E. Davis Street, informed a cop at 1:47 p. m. Saturday, that she was at 415 Patterson Alley when someone threw mustard oil in her face. Harold Williams, 22, of 534 E. Davie Street said the same oil was thrown in his face and on his head. Bobby Mitchell, 30, also of 534 E. Davie Street, made the same claim.

Mrs. Annie Pearl Williams, of 439 Patterson Alley, came to police headquarters later and stated her brother, Bobby Williams and sister, Mrs. Ira Christine Staten, of 415 Patterson Alley, were fighting. "I thought Bobby was hurting my sister and I asked him to stop. When he didn't, I threw the mustard oil and hit the three persons."

Mrs. Williams was arrested for assault with a deadly weapon. All of the injured were treated for burns on the face and head.

AXE, SHOTGUN USED IN ATTACKS
Officers B. B. Callahan and R. E. Lee talked to Robert Randolph, 41, of 111 N. Fisher Street at 9:11 a. m. Saturday and were told that Randolph shot Jesse Alphonso Banks, 40, of 128 N. Fisher Street, with a shotgun after the latter came after him with an axe.

Randolph declared that Banks came to his home and "started kidding me about a disease I once had." He added, "I got tired of it and asked him to leave, but he told me he wasn't going and he then picked up an axe in the backyard and came toward me."

He said, "Now shoot me," stated Randolph, "and I did," he stated when Banks kept advancing on him with the weapon.

Banks stated they were playing at the time and he didn't know of any reason why Randolph would shoot him. The latter was drinking, but not drunk, the officers' report stated.

Randolph was jailed for assault with a deadly weapon. Banks was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital for a shotgun wound in his chest and damage to his right eye.

WOMEN FIGHT, BOTH JAILED
Miss Lillie Mae Brown, 35, of 617 S. Blount Street, told Officer John Baker, Sr., at 2:15 p. m. Saturday, Miss Jenny Mae Bell struck her. However, Miss Bell made the same accusation against her accuser. Both agreed on one thing—they were engaged in a fight.

Miss Brown signed a warrant, charging assault and battery against Miss Bell, who retaliated by signing a warrant charging the same offense.

Officials stated both had been drinking and both were arrested on the spot as there were no injuries.

OLD MAN ATTACKED FROM BEHIND
Willie Cromartie, 78, of 219 S. Bloodworth Street, told Officer O. C. Frost at 3:46 p. m. Friday, he was sitting in Moore's Square, 200 block of E. Martin Street, when an unidentified man approached him from the rear and struck him on the head.

Mr. Cromartie stated the assailant appeared to be about 32 years old and was brown in complexion. This was all he could remember about the attacker. However, he stated he could definitely identify this subject if he ever saw him again. No reason for the attack could be given by the elderly man.

CROOK TAKES SOME, LEAVES SOME
Miss Louise Brooks, 24, of 526 Moses Lane, reported to Officer James E. (Bobby) Days at 6:26 p. m. Saturday, that Jake Smith, address unknown, was in her home Saturday afternoon. She added, "When he arrived, I had $17 in my pocketbook and I left the room for a while."

Miss Brooks stated that when she returned to the room, Smith asked her for money and she refused him. "There was no one in the house and when Jake left, I found $15 of my money missing also," stated the complainant. Two dollars were left in the purse. Miss Brooks said she believes Jake Smith lives "somewhere on Cabarrus Street."

SLAPS WOMAN TWICE IN FACE
Miss Roberta Sanders, of 530 E. Cabarrus Street, reported to Officer B. C. Nipper at 9:26 p. m. Friday, that Luther Johnson, of 28 S. Swain Street, came to her home to get her young daughter and while there he slapped her twice in the face.

Miss Sanders, who came to headquarters and signed a warrant,

Raleigh Native Returns To Alma Mater As Instructor

Norman C. Camp, III, 26, a native of Raleigh and a Shaw University graduate, returns to his alma mater in September, as a chemistry instructor.

Camp, who received the B. S. degree at Shaw in 1956, was the recipient of a grant from the National Science Foundation to study chemistry for a year at Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona, where he was awarded the Master of Natural Science degree in chemistry in 1958.

From 1956 through 1961, Mr. Camp taught science and chemistry at Douglas High School Leesburg, Va.

From 1962-1963, he was a science teacher at Winston-Salem's Paley Junior High School; and taught science at East Winston Junior High, Winston-Salem, from 1963-1964. At the latter school, he was chairman of the science department.

A member of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Mr. Camp is married to the former Miss Betty Jean Stancil of Pinehurst, who is now teaching special education at the 14th Street School, in Winston. They are the parents of a four-year-old son, Norman, IV. Mrs. Camp is also a Shaw graduate.

Camp, affectionately called "Mike" by his relatives and friends, will graduate with the Master of Science degree in Organic Chemistry from North Carolina College, Durham, in May of 1965.

He is the son of Mrs. Lillian Brooks, 214 Camden Street, this city.

Local AKA Chapter Attends Pa. Confab

The Forty-first annual Banquet of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority was held August 9-14 at the Sheraton Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa.

Sorors S. V. Perry, Merle Batey, Hattie Edmondson, Alberta Hunt, Marguerite Adams, Thelma Watkins, and Loydine Perry (Alpha Chapter) were among the 200 delegates and visitors gathered in Philadelphia.

Here under the leadership of Mrs. Julie B. Funnell, Supreme Basilius from Baton Rouge, Louisiana, the women evaluated their past achievement in all study and action areas of their national program.

Inspired by the theme "Advancement Through Knowledge and Action," the delegates listened to internationally famous speakers and conferred with guests of unusual experience in an effort to understand more clearly the various types of new services to be rendered in their communities, and how to function most effectively in the interest of the disadvantaged.

Special attention was given to specific ways women's organizations can utilize their abilities, talents, and other resources to help bring about immediate implementation of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. For some time, an important phase of the Sorority's National Program has been to acquaint the Negro with his heritage, thereby instilling in him a greater desire to make contributions that bring him into the main arteries of American life.

Outstanding speakers on different phases of the theme included the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; Whitney M. Young, Jr., executive director of the National Urban League; Dr. Alvin Ender, professor of educational psychology, the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor; and Dr. Zelma Watson George, a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha, actress, musicologist, singer, world lecturer, and United States Delegate to the XV Assembly of the United Nations.

Oscar Brown, actor and musical star from Chicago, and Cecelia Drewry Hodges, actress and one-woman-show artist, entertained the delegation two successive evenings during the week-long convention.

Special music for the sessions was planned by the National Music Committee of the Sorority. An appropriate round of social functions was given the members and their escorts. Tours for all activities for husbands, tots, and teens were provided.
