

Dr. King Speaks At Festival In Germany Honoring JFK

ATLANTA, Ga. — Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, flew to West Berlin, Germany, on September 11 to deliver the principal address at the opening of the annual West Berlin Festival, which, this year, will be a memorial to the late President John F. Kennedy. Dr. King is attending the Festival at the personal invitation of Governor-Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin.

The theme of this year's Festival will center around the contribution of African people and those of African origin to the culture of the 20th Century.

While in Europe, Dr. King will visit several other cities and countries in response to a series of personal invitations and commitments. He will be accompanied on the entire trip by Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, treasurer of SCLC and his close friend of long standing. Rev. Abernathy will speak before the Baptist of West Germany while there at the First Baptist Church of West Berlin.

Following Dr. King's appearance at the West Berlin Festival at 11:00 a. m. on September 13, he will deliver an address that afternoon to Berlin Community of Christians at the huge Waldbühne Cathedral.

Later that same evening he will visit Communist-controlled East Berlin where he will deliver still a third address to Christians of East Germany at Marienkirche Church, the largest place of worship in East German.

With Faith... You Are Never Alone Attend Church Regularly

Everything IN ORDER

A good secretary keeps her filing all in place, and can immediately find any needed material. This requires working steadily and conscientiously. We need to be steady and apply ourselves in worshiping the Lord. "I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth."

There is a place for you in church. The doors are open and you are cordially invited.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

BY COLIN DOUGLAS

"Be strong and of good courage, be ye not afraid nor dismayed... with us is the Lord our God to help us"—Chron. 32:7-8.

Courage is something that every person should develop in order to meet the issues and circumstances of life, and especially is courage needed during times of change or upheaval.

We can find strength and courage in prayer, in the thought that God is always near at hand. He is holding our hand, and He will guide us safely and surely through every experience, even though the way seems difficult and uncertain. All that we need to do is to turn to Him in confidence and in faith.

No matter where we are, no matter what we do, God is with us. As we turn to Him and ask for His guidance, our emotions are stilled, the comfort of His presence fills us, and we are able to meet life's little problems with sureness and with efficiency. He directs us step by step into the way of our happiness. He upholds and strengthens us.

Even when we meet with experiences that are new or unusual to us, we can face up to them with a strong, steadfast heart, for God has given us the courage we need. By turning to Him in prayer, we avail ourselves of His strength and His power, and there is nothing that can daunt us or make us fearful. Remember, too, that experiences that call forth all our courage and faith inevitably develop our spiritual strength and insight, and we are happier and more self-reliant persons for having had those experiences. And remember that "to them that love God, all things work together for good."

"God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever."—Psalms 73:26.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STARR, PRES. BUREAU BIBLE SOCIETY, CHICAGO 24, ILLINOIS

CAMPAIGN EXCITEMENT

Well, the Republican and Democratic conventions are past and we're in the midst of the 1964 Presidential Campaign. It's bound to get more exciting all the time.

We hope our readers are interested in our government and in what policies it pursues, but there is something even more important than this—important to you and me personally.

God has put each man on the spot, as it were, by offering justification from sin and eternal life as a "free gift" through Christ, who died for our sins. Rom. 6:23 clearly states: "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Now the question is: Will you accept this gift, or will you reject it? You reply: "I won't do anything about it; I'll take my time and think it over." But you can't; you can't just do "nothing" about an offer of a free gift. If you do not accept it, you thereby reject it.

God purposely puts us on the spot in this matter, for the consequences are truly great. God's Word says, at John 3:35, 36:

"The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into His hand. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: but he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

God does not take it lightly when

On The Home Front

Items this week from Nash, Wake and Edgecombe Counties.

COMBATS CYCLE OF POVERTY

To help meet problems related to low income families in Nash County, the Home Demonstration Council members are working on several projects which they think will help combat the cycle of poverty.

Miss Margaret Wade, home economics agent, says the women want to work with other agencies in the county in reaching non-club families. They plan to work with recipients of the food stamp program in selecting food; assist families in budgeting their money; and help families realize the value of setting goals and reaching them.

HOME BEAUTIFICATION TOUR

Home beautification leaders of the Eagle Rock Home Demonstration Club in Wake County felt that a tour of homes would not only highlight their work in home beautification but would point out additional needs of the whole community.

The leaders planned visits to 18 homes. Mrs. Natalie Wimberly, home economics agent, says one particular improvement was noted in the yards. "Shrubbery and flowers are no longer planted everywhere but are planted as foundation plantings, as screens, or special beds," she added.

HOUSING IMPROVEMENTS

Improvements in housing is continuing to be one of the major projects in Edgecombe County, reports Mrs. Hazel Parker, home economics agent.

Mrs. Parker says she is continuing to supply the educational information on housing to families who are building or making improvements.

"The third housing demonstration for this year is well on the way," she adds. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Grant, Pinetops, Rt. 1, have secured house plan No. 75 and are ready to start on their new home.

He offers forgiveness and all the riches of His grace as a gift, and this gift is spurned. Unbelievers are not condemned only because they have spurned and rejected salvation through the Christ who died to save them. Thus it is written in John 3:18: "He that believeth on Him is not condemned, but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." Which will you do, accept or reject Christ, the Gift of God?

WHAT WIVES don't tell their husbands and what husbands don't tell their wives would not be printable.
