CLUBS

NINE AND FIVE CLUB
When the president checked over the by-laws of the club, it was observed that this is the year to re-visit the case, the club met with Mrs. Bertha Wilcox on Quarry St. recently.

When the members entered Mrs. Wilcox's beautiful and spacious home, the long table with fall motifs caught one's eye and was quickly told-by the chatter, and gleam in each member's eyes, that this was the initial meeting for this year.

The president opened the meeting by welcoming them back to the club and also hoping each of them had a lovely summer.

After the regular business session, each member presented Helen Mitchell with birthday gifts. Many of the members received beautiful gifts from their new secret pals.

Mrs. Wilcox served a delicious buffet dinner.

Members present were Mesdames Ruth Betha, Geneva P. Brown, Cornelia Cobb, Lovie Ellis, Alma F. Harris, Alma Harrison, Emma Jones, Mary Marable, Helen Mitchell, Sara Sharper, Anne Webb, Bessie Wesley and Bertha Wilcox. The members played Po-keno for recreation. Mrs. Sara Sharper was awarded the high score prize and Mrs. Emma Jones, for low score.

GABBING About Town

BY MRS. A. H. THORPE

"A thought in Prayer"
"Our Father," we mortals pray,
Who or our souls a Son was given,
Teach us thy path from day to day.
That leads to Thee, Who are in heav'n.
Strengthen all our weaknesses,
With out thine aid we cannot live." — Amen.
