BY LILIAN SAUER

The eighth grade of Jeffrey's School organized on the first day of school with the following officers: president, Delores Waller; vice-president, Lillie Bailey; secretary, Alice Carrington; assistant secretary, Wanda J. Hunter; and treasurer, Doris Nicholas.

All plans were made for the year in order to help carry out our project, we are selling The CAROLINIAN.

Realizing the hard work we have before us, we started this year right by beginning to study hard. Our motto is "It is better to keep up than to catch up."

Our appearance on J. D. Lewis' TV program Saturday, September 19th was enjoyed by all.

Jeffrey's School PTA met Monday night, September 21, 1964 with Mrs. Leona Harris, president, presiding. Our principal, Mr. M. G. Bates gave some highlights of our aims this year.

CHURCHES

St. James AME

METHOD — A very powerful message was brought by Rev. J. N. Shames to his audience Sunday morning. His text was taken from Revelations and Philippians. "I was in the spirit on the Lord's day" from the Book of Revelations, and from Philippians, "For me to live is Christ and to die is gain." It was a beautiful sermon and the presence of God was felt throughout the building.

Many visitors were present at the service. The senior choir sang beautifully, accompanied by Mrs. W. R. Gaynor at the organ and piano. The official board and regular church conference was held Monday night.

Oak City Baptist

Sunday, September 27th, Rev. Leola Debanan will hold his service at Oak City Baptist Church. All who are not on duty in their own churches should hear this worthy servant of God speak. He is a grand minister and a fine orator.

Prayer Service

On Monday and Wednesday nights prayer service is held in the homes and at Oak City Baptist Church. All are urged to attend these meetings.

For The Mission Circle

On Friday and Saturday of this week, The Missionary Circle of St. James AME Church will serve cake at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Smith on John Place. Put in your orders early for Mrs. Smith's delicious pineapple cake. Mrs. Mary Frazier is president of the circle.

4-H Club News

The Weeks Street 4-H Club held its meeting for the month of September at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin King, with the president presiding. The meeting was called to order and opened by the singing of the 4-H Club Hymn, followed by the pledges to the American and 4-H flags. The business session of the club consisted of project reports and the planning of a trip to the USS North Carolina for club members.

The educational program was given by Mrs. Register of the Police Department. She talked on Bicycle Safety, and pointed out the following safety rules:

1. That bike riders should observe all traffic regulations.
2. Should not ride in the highway, but on the side-facing traffic.
3. Always use proper hand signals.
4. Don't weave in and out of traffic.
5. Never carry another person on bike.

She also pointed out many other safety rules for bike riders. The club members and leaders enjoyed this talk by Mrs. Register and it was found that many of the club members who ride bikes were not obeying most of the rules pointed out.

The following members were present at the meeting: Wanda Fay, Shirley, Willie Ray and Thomas Moore. Jarvis and Joseph Hall, Calvin and Barbara King, Delois Bryant and Evelyn Moore. Leaders present were Mrs. King, Mrs. E. H. Moore and Mrs. A. J. Hall.

World Fellowship Body Meets With J. A. Boyers

The World Fellowship Group of the Sojourner Truth Branch of the Y. W. C. A. met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. James A. Boyer on St. Augustine's College Campus, Monday night, September 21, at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Boyer welcomed the members and guests to his home. The chairman, Mrs. Mary Sapp, then took charge. The meeting was opened by singing the theme song, "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee," led by Miss Marjorie Williams. The 23rd Psalm was repeated in unison followed by the Lord's Prayer and "In Christ There is No East or West." Mrs. Gay gave welcome remarks. Miss Marjorie Williams sang a solo, "In The Garden."

Mrs. Boyer gave a summary of all of the "Y" activities and related some of the interesting features of the convention which she recently attended.

Before the group was served, the hostess, Mrs. Boyer, passed out numbers to the members and guests. Gifts were given to the persons who held number 7 and 13, and to the first person who arrived and the last person who arrived.

Members who received gifts were: Mrs. Kittle Cumbo, Mrs. Flossie Grant, Mrs. Lovie Ellis, Mrs. Mary G. Carter and Miss T. Lorraine Cumbo. Mrs. Mary Carter received a beautiful silver cake server. Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Cumbo received lovely rain scarfs. Mrs. Ellis received a beautiful purse and Miss Cumbo received a jar of Grandma molasses. After the presentation of gifts, the group was served delicious apple pie and ice cream, coffee, tea and sanka.

The group had a very enjoyable time. Members present: Mrs. J. A. Boyer, Mrs. Mary Sapp, Mrs. Lovie Ellis, Mrs. Alyce C. Jones, Mrs. W. D. Gay, Mrs. Flossie Grant, Mrs. Ellis Williams, Mrs. Kittle Cumbo, Mrs. Genobia Dunston, Mrs. Mary G. Carter, Miss Marjorie Williams, Miss T. Lorraine Cumbo, and Mrs. Lucille Griswold Paige.

'Moms' Mabley Coming To Auditorium October 3; Fetes Top Performers

Jackie (Moms) Mabley has got to be the last of the something's, but just what is difficult to pin down. She is a comedienne, an evangelist, a diplomat, a philosopher, a social worker and press agent for brotherhood. She has performed more times at the famed Apollo Theatre in Harlem than any other entertainer during a 40-year period, she has been virtually unknown to White America for 35 of these years, and she is of the unshakable con-

Lance, The Impressions, of "I'm So Proud" and "You Must Believe Me" fame; The Inimitable Louis Jordan; Gladys Knight, and The plus, girl and boys singing group of "Lovers Always Forgive," Gene Burks, singer with "I Can't Stand Your Foolin' Around"; Jordan and his great entertaining orchestra; Johnny "Guitar" Taylor; The Upsetters and their great orchestra; and Carl Fisher will serve as M. C.

There will be a spotlight special act featuring Moms Mabley and Louis Jordan on stage together. This you should not miss.

CONVENTION

"Now listen, darlin'," she said the other day, "I been watchin' that convention at Atlantic City and — you know I got a new record? Called "Moms the Word"—those boys wouldn't be fightin'—if they only heard it . . . that's all it'd take, honey."

Moms' philosophy is simple — love and understanding. Or maybe understanding and love, it doesn't matter.

"Darlin'," she rasped, "my motto is this: There's two words in the dictionary will change the world if they're crased—black and white. Change 'em to sister and brother, you'll see. I don't see no colors, they's all my children."

Moms has never been formally active in religion ("You don't have to turn your collar around to speak the truth") but no preacher could be more fervent.

"God gave Moms her humor, honey," she says in her deep Southern accent, "and it's all from the heart. Other comedians steal material and most of 'em steal from Moms, but darlin', it didn't cost Moms nothing—they can steal all they want."

Due to the limited number of seats at the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium, Moms will give two shows on Saturday night, October 3rd, one at 8 p. m. and the other at 10:15 (main floor downstairs) will be reserved seats with all other sections at general admission.
