MOTIONS CHART

club that recently elected me president, and I am to take office within a month. Is there some kind of chart designed to give the president the needed information at a glance, so that she will not make mistakes?—Mrs. F. L.

ANSWER: Most of the books on parliamentary law contains a chart of motions.

Usually the chart contains the motions arranged by classes and 13 of the motions are numbered to gives answers to:

1. Can motion interrupt speaker?

2. Does it require a second?

3. What vote is required to pass

4. Is it debetable?

5. Can it be made a second time

f lost?

6. What can be done with it?

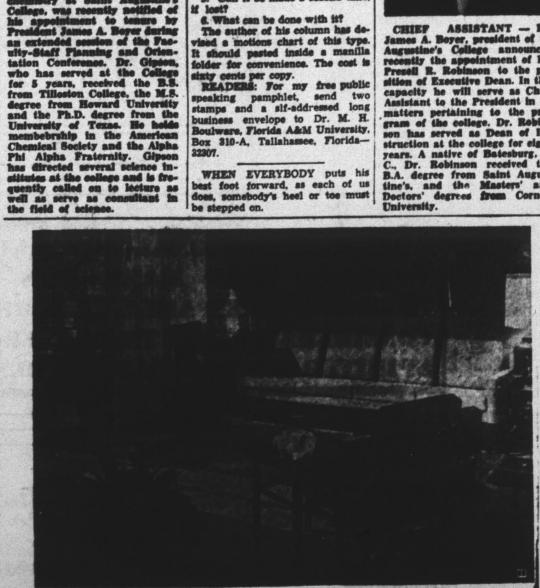

The author of his column has devised a motions chart of this type.
