Atlanta's Lester Maddox

Defies Court Again

Cafeteria Owner To Court Fri.

ATLANTA, Ga.—A 100,000-sq-ft restaurant, Lester Maddox, a die-hard segregationist at this metropolitan Georgia city, has been ordered into federal court in a contempt proceeding after he had opened a new cafeteria and refused service to Negroes Monday of this week.

U. S. District Judge Frank A. Hoopes issued an order requiring Maddox to appear at a hearing Friday, October 2, to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court. Maddox, who has vowed many times, "We're never going to integrate," said after Monday's court order, "They ought to know by now."

The motion for the new order was brought by the original Negro complainant, who sued him in the first test of his Pickrick Restaurant in July. Maddox closed down this facility rather than serve Negroes and last week opened up his cafeteria thinking he could avoid prosecution by proclaiming, "The Lester Maddox Cafeteria does not accept integrationists as customers—neither red, yellow, black or white. We do not discriminate because of race, color, or creed, but be-

9 Other Females Ravished

NEW YORK (UPI)—An illiterate, 17-year-old Negro youth, described by his mother as "sick and oversexed," last week confessed the murder of two women and the raping of 10 others ranging in ages from 5 to 62.

He confessed the shocking story of crimes after he was arrested. One of his intended victims spotted him on the street, followed him to his home and then called detectives.

She is Mrs. Constance Thompson, 52, whom the youth tried to rob in an elevator but who escaped when the building superintendent chased him away. The youth, who is unable to read and write and says he doesn't know why he committed the crimes, is Anthony Spencer, a former porter and handyman.

He confessed and is accused of the murder of Miss Charlotte Lipsik, a school teacher, on May 29, and Mrs. Mary Payne, an 83-year-old woman, on Labor Day.

During his confession, Spencer also told that his rape victims included a five-year-old girl. "I don't know why I do it," Spencer said. "I get headaches, pass out and I hear funny noises."

His mother, Mrs. Beulah Spencer said, "I believe the boy is sick. He is oversexed. When he was 13 years old I

Ultimatum Issued By Dr. Sharp

CHAPEL HILL—An end to the segregation of Negro students in dormitory room assignments was ordered by the University of North Carolina here Thursday.

C. O. Carter, dean of Student Affairs, said new instructions were sent to the university housing office on the authority of Dr. Paul F. Sharp, newly-appointed chancellor.

The instructions said: "The University will hereafter assign students to their rooms without regard to race or color. The University will continue to attempt to assign students with congenial roommates."

This new policy superseded a rule of the "chancellor's cabinet," an informal group of administrators and faculty leaders that served as an advisory body to then-Chancellor William B. Aycock.

The old rule stipulated that Negro and white students be assigned to separate rooms, except in cases where the students requested mixed assignments and received parental approval. It went into effect at the beginning of the summer.

The rule came to light Wednesday night of last week when a Negro student complained to student government.

Ligon's Parade May Be Best Ever Held Here

Homecoming will be observed at the John W. Ligon Junior-Senior High School here Friday, October 2, as the Little Blues play host to New Bern's J. T. Barber High School.

The parade, which annually precedes the game, will begin at 7 p. m., moving up Fayetteville Street from the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium to Blount Street, down to S. Hargett, turn right on Blount, proceed to E. Lenoir Street, turn left and on to Chapel Park.

This parade promises to be the best one ever staged by the local high school as more emphasis will be placed on quality, rather than quantity.

Special decorated floats, sponsored by the four upper classes, will vie for top honors. Other floats will depict scenes of school mathematics, Library Club, and many other organizations of the 1964-member school.

Many other bands have been invited to participate in the affair and have indicated they will take part.

A colorful half-time ceremony, highlighted by the coronation of "Miss Ligon High," Miss Elizabeth Hicks, a sophomore, will climax the night.

MAN TRIES TO KILL HIS WIFE

Mrs. Julia Michens, 46, of 528 Cannon Street, reported to police officers at 5:25 p.m. Sunday, she went to turn on the television set and her husband, Duke Michens, walked up behind her.

Mrs. Michens said she asked him what he wanted and then tapped him with an elastic belt. Michens, apparently infuriated by this act or something else, went into a rage and cut his wife on the upper stomach, lower right arm and left hand with a pocket knife.

According to the police officers, who arrested him, Michens had been drinking heavily. Mrs. Michens was rushed to Wake Memorial Hospital, while her spouse was carried to Wake County Jail and charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill.

DOOR LOCKED, BUT ROBBER ENTERS

Mrs. Ella Mae McComb, 34, of 726 Quarry Street, Apartment 2, reported to Officer J. A. Perry, at 2:08 a.m. Sunday, that around 1:08 a.m. she awoke to find a man standing in her room. She couldn't see his face as his back was turned, she said, and as she made him aware of her being wide awake, the man calmly walked out of the room.

Mrs. McComb stated she was positive it was a man called "Bo-Bo". She could find nothing missing from the house, and wondered how he gained entry. He did the cop. The door was locked and there was no sign of forcible entry.

Threatens To Bomb Home Of Jim Brown After Muslims OK

CLEVELAND (UPI)—The producer of the Mike Douglas television show last week reported receiving a threat from a woman caller to bomb the home of Cleveland Browns' football star Jim Brown if he repeated views, stated early over a network program, expressing sympathy for the "Black Muslims" organization.

The Cleveland Browns office also reported receiving phone calls threatening Brown. Brown had said in a Look Magazine article and again on the NBC "Today" TV show, that he sympathized with the views of the Muslims for greater freedom for Negroes. However, he called the Muslims plan for a separate state for Negroes "unrealistic."

The threat did not deter Brown, who went on the show and reiterated his views about the Muslims. After the bomb threat was reported, police threw an around-the-clock guard around the home of Brown. Brown, the Browns star fullback, is the National Football League's champion ground gainer. He is also perhaps the highest paid player in pro football, with a salary last season of over $60,000.

Growing Negro Vote Power To Aid LBJ

A Negro vote which is almost double what it was four years ago in the South, gives President Lyndon B. Johnson a strong hand in most of the South, according to figures released last weekend.

Both Negro and white voters have been registering heavily in eleven southern states, and most noticeably during the past two years. There are now more than 2 million Negro voters registered to the 11 million white voters. This is a total of about 13 million voters, eleven states from Texas to Virginia.

With the exception of Alabama and Mississippi, the vote of the Negro might strongly influence election results in the South. The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, stated few, if any, Negroes will vote the Republican ticket in 1964. Simple arithmetic shows that if the Negro vote, now comprising about 13 percent of the electorate, goes solidly Democratic as expected, President Johnson will need to pull only 40 to 45 percent of the white vote to carry such states as North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

Strategy used by the Republican Party aimed at carrying the South's 23 percent of the electoral votes and the modest victory against the Democrats. Thus, the Negro vote looms as a very definite obstacle to this attempt.

Negro leaders in Georgia estimate the Negro vote in the state from 250,000 to 275,000, or 16 to 18 percent—the highest of any southern state. This is also a huge jump over the estimated 9 percent of 1960 when the Democrats carried Georgia by a conclusive margin.
