CLUBS

BEAUTICIANS' SOBORITY MEETS
The Delta Chi Eta Chapter of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority held its first meeting after the summer vacation at the home of Soror Lena Burt, 217 S. East Street recently.

Bealess Joella Perry presided over the meeting. Everyone enjoyed a most enjoyable summer. Members were very proud to have Soror Vivian Burt back after a brief illness, and to know that Soror Lee is well and out again. After a brief business session, a delicious repast was served by the hostess.

Members present were: Bealess Joella Perry, Sorors Vivian Burt, Lena Burt, Freddie Williams, Marthana Sanders, Christina Pitts, Dorothy Perry and Alzaria Roberts.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB MEET
After a two-month vacation the Junior Woman's Club resumed club meetings last Tuesday night at the Mary Talbot Home, 317 East Davis Street. Eleven members were present.

The president, Mrs. Beatrice Hall, presided over the meeting. She reported the happenings at "the home" during the summer. It was quite a lively discussion. It is a pleasure to have Mrs. Carrie Morgan as the new matron at "the home."

Members present at the meeting were: Misses Vivian Burt and Ida E. Jones; Mesdames Beatrice Hall, Teas Perry, Chrissy Butler, Mary Spencer, Christine Cooper, Grace Harris, Mary B. Graham, Ross Tucker and Phyllis Haywood.

The next regular meeting will be held at the Mary Talbot Home on Tuesday, October 13, at 8:00 p. m. All members are urged to be present.

THE BUSY BEE CLUB OF SMITH TEMPLE CHURCH
The Busy Bee Club met September 29 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Moore on Cumberland Street. After a short business session, the club celebrated the birthday of Mesdames Florine Smith, Margaret Minis, Lillian Curran, Cornelia Moore and Mr. George Campbell. They received many useful gifts.

The hostess served a delightful repast. Members present were: Mesdames Armella Osborne, Florine Smith, Mary L. Jackson, Hellen Allen, Carrie Johnson, Cornelia Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Young and Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell. Special guest, Mr. Elbert Sanders.

RALEIGH CHAPTER OF LINKS MEET
The Raleigh Chapter of Links, Inc. began the 1964-65 year with their meeting on Saturday, September 26, 1964 at the home of the president, Link Gertrude Harris, South East Street.

Reports were heard from the committee chairman, delegate and members who attended the National Assembly, held in Nassau.

A letter of welcome from Link Harris was given to each member, their plans were made for the year's work of the club, with full understanding of the National Program, being a two-pronged activity, centered around program of services to youth and the program of trends and services.

After the business session, a social hour of two changes of bridge was enjoyed with Link Julia Delany taking home first prize, Link Martha Wheeler, second, and Link Willie Kay, the booby. Other members present: Links Masde Bass, Thelma Clark, Marguerite Cook, Mayme Flagg, Ernestine Hamilton, Gita Harris, Nannie Inabert, Chloe Lewis, Nora Lockhart, Jimmie Middleton, Nora Oley, Mildred Taylor, and Catherine Winters.

ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM
The Parsonage Club of Manly Street United Church of Christ celebrated its third anniversary Sunday, Sept. 20.

The guest speaker was the Rev. B. Elton Cox, pastor of the Pilgrim's United Church of Christ, High Point. He preached a dynamic sermon, using as his subject, "Ambassadors to God." Everyone enjoyed the wonderful speaker.

A musical program was rendered at 7:00 p.m. The speaker was Mrs. W. D. Gay. She brought an enjoyable discourse.

Other participants were Messrs. James Burt, Wilton Smith, Misses Pamela Vines, Gloria Upperman. Refreshments were served in the annex.

Mrs. P. S. McDonald is president; and Mrs. Martha Hudson is secretary.

RALEIGH WOMAN'S CLUB NO. 2
The Raleigh Woman's Club No. 2 met in its regular meeting Tuesday night, Sept. 22, at the residence of Mrs. Beulah Hinton of 683 Campanella Lane.

Mrs. Mamie Holt, the president, presided. Three new members were welcomed to the club: Mrs. Viola Adderly and Mrs. Ester Mitchell and Mrs. Annie Haywood.

The meeting was well attended. Plans were laid for the annual tea.

The members enjoyed a wonderful menu of chicken salad, tomato cup on lettuce, cheese straws, pickles, ice cream, cake and lime ice.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Selina Elliott of 1117 South State St.

EMERGENCY CLUB OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH
The Emergency Club met in the first meeting of the fall season at the home of Mrs. Mabel Matthews, 122 W. South St., last Wednesday.

The meeting was opened in the usual way with Mrs. Edmondson presiding. A large number of members were present as everyone enjoyed Mrs. Matthews hospitality in her home.

There wasn't much business on hand, only enjoying the first get-together after the summer vacation.

One project discussed of the importance was to help a very deserving young man of our church who is entering Kittrell College after a very sumptuous repast was served by the hostess. Mrs. Haywood thanked her for the lovely time we had.

Rev. L. S. Penn reminded members to attend the revival, which started Sunday and continues through Thursday at St. Paul.

Golden Knights Coming To The 1964 State Fair
"All eyes up," bears a sharp command over the mile, situated in front of the grandstand at North Carolina State Fair.

As spectators obey, at an altitude of 13,500 feet, well over 2 1/2 miles, they see what seems to be tiny specks floating around in the sky. Soon, colorful trails of smoke can be spotted making an intricate pattern in the brilliant blue.

"They're out," comes the murmur from the crowd, and as they
