WM. GRIMES NYC MUSIC GUEST

ROCKY MOUNT — This city's versatile musician, choir director and salesman of church and school music supplies, William Thomas Grimes, Sr., was presented in an address and song in New York City September 27.

The occasion was the 4th anniversary program honoring Mrs. Luzetta Grimes Briley, a mezzo soprano and gospel leader of the New Rochelle, N. Y., community for many years. Grimes is a brother of the honoree, both of whom are natives of the Oak City community of Martin County, N. C.

Billed as a "music festival", the event also featured Harrison Cattenhead, a NYC radio-TV personality; The Charalita Singers of Long Island; Progressive Singers and The Radio Choir of Gospel Tabernacle, also of the metropolitan area. The setting was at the Bethesda Baptist Church in New Rochelle.

Speaking on "Music" and its place in the church and the home, Grimes said: "Sacred music is the precious and divine gift of God" placed in the hearts of all who will truly strive to follow His teachings.

Grimes continued, "God is the Creator of all things. All things were made by Him; and without Him not anything made that was made. (John 1-3). God gave us music for a Divine purpose, and ordained that it should have a great place in His worship service. Then, let us accept music as a gift of God. Let us study it with reverence; practice it with humility and diligence, so that we may drink in the spirit of love which it breathes, which is of God and which leads to God."

Grimes, a barber by profession, has served as music teacher and choir director for the St. James Baptist Church, Rocky Mount, and several other churches and civic and fraternal groups.

For several years he has served as titular head of the music department of the Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World (IBPOEW) on the national level; and has participated in the famed Hampton Institute annual summer sessions of Church Music and Choir Masters Guild for 15 years, having been president for one term.

Having more than an average ability in music, Grimes is appreciated in all areas of music and plays several instruments. He is available for engagements on request. Several of his proteges, as well as protegee, have gone on to become excellent performers in church music even in their high school days. Others have gone on to college and have become teachers of music and orchestra leaders of note.

APEX

BY MRS. LOUISE COLVIN

APEX—The Gospel Chorus of First Baptist was on duty for the 11:00 worship service with Rev. W. M. Phillips conducting the devotion.

The pastor, Rev. W. T. Bigelow, brought to us a powerful sermon. His text was taken from the book of St. John, 13:34-35 verses, subject, "The acid test of Christianity." Visitors worshipping with us were Mrs. Margaret Davis and Miss Cathy Taylor.

On Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. Rev. Bigelow was the guest speaker at the Oak Grove Baptist Church. The male and gospel choruses of First Baptist went to Oak Grove with the pastor and rendered a portion of the music. The occasion was their homecoming service.

Then the chorus had to leave to appear on the Relative Gospel Singers' 15th Anniversary program at the Liberty Chapel Church in Monroeville. Many more singers appeared on the program. The offering amounted to $260.63.

On Sunday night at 7:30, Mrs. Charlotte Toomer sponsored a program at First Baptist. Appearing on the program were the Harmonizing Six, and the Silver Trumpets, both of Morrisville; our Male and Gospel Choruses and the Young Adult and Junior Choir combined, all of First Baptist. All seemed to have enjoyed the program immensely.

On Saturday night, Oct. 17, at 7:30, the McGuire Specials, the Six Gospel Stars of New York, the Soul Guilders of Durham and others will appear in concert at the First Baptist Church, sponsored by the Rev. Bigelow. Proceeds will go toward the building fund for our Homecoming Day service. The public is invited to attend.

On Sunday night at 7:30, Mrs. Theodora Bullock will sponsor a program. The Rev. Seldon of Liberty Chapel, the Relative Gospel Singers, and others will render the service. You are invited to attend.

LIBRARY NEWS
On October 15th, Friday night, the Apex Public Library will observe its 7th anniversary, at the St. Mary's A.M.E. Church, up the street from the Library. Dr. W. E. Washington School News

The Washington School PTA held its second meeting of the school year Monday night, October 13, at 8:00 p.m. in the school auditorium. Rev. Charles Green, chaplain, conducted the inspirational period.

After a brief business session, J. W. Eaton, principal, introduced Lonnie J. Lockamy, elementary supervisor, State Department of Public Instruction, who addressed the assembly. Speaking from the topic "The Need for School Attendance."

Mr. Lockamy cited the following facts that poor school attendance effected:

Drastic retrogression in school work; non-promotion; potential dropouts; non-employment, and overcrowded classroom situations reducing the efficiency of instruction.

He challenged the PTA body to teach the child to love the school and the teacher, to eliminate negative attitudes towards the school, to be more concerned about providing necessary food and clothing for children, and to show other educational conferences an added interest in PTA and which ultimately benefit the child.

In his final statement he classified the parents into two categories—"the lifters" and "the leavers." "Those parents who are lifting their children's level of training and helping them to fit into this fast-moving, ever-changing world." The "learning parent" is leaning on his child, keeping him down. He closed by asking "What kind of parent are you?"

The parents visited the home-rooms of their children to meet the teachers and to become acquainted with the children's daily schedule.

BY MISS MAE N. HOPSON

BURLINGTON — On October 7, an assembly program was held in the school auditorium with the principal, A. B. Williams, in charge.

After a short devotional period conducted by Miss C. S. Wade, music teacher, the principal spoke to the pupils concerning the following topics: 1. School Attendance; 2. Conduct at School, and on Buses; 3. School Progress Academically; 4. Urged students to encourage their parents to join our PTA; 5. Students here must be able to measure up with other students nationally; and 6. You must have a goal and strive to achieve that goal. He urged pupils to take heed to his message and try to improve in all areas of school life.

The following pupils—Willie Tra Burton, Jerome Burton, Elvis Burton, Genevieve Tapp, Timmie Covington, Brenda Bryant and Norma Gray Jones, braved the chill of an autumn morning and were present among a crowd of hundreds to see Mrs. Claudia (Ladybird) Johnson when she appeared in Burlington on October 7, at 7:45 a.m. Seeing and hearing the President's wife was a thrill to the pupils.

Clara Ward's Dad, Uncle Given Rites

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — It was a sad homecoming for famous gospel singer Clara Ward last week when she returned home for the first vacation she has had in two years.

What would otherwise have been a joyous occasion was marred by the death of her father and uncle five days apart. Her father, George Ward, 67, died suddenly in his home September 28; and her uncle, the Rev. David Murphy died October 2. Ward had a history of heart trouble, and the Rev. Murphy had been ill for some five years.

Ward, who retired last year, had been a foreman at the Link Belt plant, where he had worked.

A double funeral was held in Faith Tabernacle, where Ward had been a faithful member, and sang in the men's chorus and the senior choir. Ward was interred at Rolling Green Memorial hospital and Rev. Murphy's remains were shipped to Anderson, S. C.

Ward is also survived by another daughter, Mrs. Wills Moultrie, and a brother, Floyd Burton, Anderson, South Carolina.

Rev. Murphy is survived by two sisters, Mesdames Clara Knight and Ward.
