B. N. Cheeks Founder Of White Rival To NAACP Ousted For Having Tan Attorney Defend Him

SPECIAL TO THE CAROLINIAN
On Saturday, October 12, the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Cheek of Warrenton, North Carolina was the happy scene of the celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary when their ten children visited them at their home.

From the Norfolk-Fortmouth area: Gordon, from Newport News; Nathaniel, Norfolk; Isabel Nicholson, Portsmouth. The following children came from the Philadelphia area: Mary C. DeBernard, Byrd N., and Betty C. Lee. From the Baltimore-Washington area: Everett, and Cleon, from Baltimore, and Annie Ephraim, from Washington.

A son, Captain Julian E. Cheek, flew from his tour of duty in the European Command, Augsburg, Germany, and landed at the Raleigh-Durham Airport, and arrived at the parents' home in time for the gala event.

Among the many guests were Mrs. Elizabeth, Lee of Springfield, Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Cheek are living at home at what is known as the Old Jones Spring Plantation, where they reared their ten children. Mr. Cheek is a deacon at the Hecks Grove Baptist Church and teaches the adult Sunday School class. Mrs. Cheek is a leader in the Missionary Circle at the same church, a member of the Mother's COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The National Association for the Advancement of White People found a good excuse here last week for getting rid of its founder-president, who has been maintaining a running feud with the members for the past several weeks.

The excuse the organization used to drum William F. Miller out of office was Miller's hiring of a Negro attorney to represent him in a court case against one of the NAAWP officials. What clinched his ouster, according to the organization, was the gall which Miller had in "adding insult to injury, when he told the press he felt he was very fortunate to get so talented a lawyer." They attorney in question was not identified.

Miller and the NAAWP have had differences of opinion for some time. He founded the organization in 1963, and last month had appealed to the Hamilton county prosecutor to help him dissolve the organization. The county prosecutor refused because of lack of jurisdiction. The ouster is the second which has been visited upon Miller. Earlier, he had been suspended by trustees of the group, after he had already suspended them.

The latest action of the NAAWP is regarded by Miller as "illegal."

"The jobs open to me are gradually being eliminated."

NEGRO PRESS INTERNATIONAL

The Warren Commission that investigated the assassination of the beloved John Kennedy concluded that Lee Oswald did kill the President. The whole country had seen Jack Ruby kill Oswald.

Both killings, the Commission reported, were committed as individual acts, with no conspiracy involved.

One aspect of the assassination of President Kennedy will perhaps remain forever unknown. What was Oswald's motive for killing one of the most beloved and popular Presidents this country has ever had?

Oswald carried his motivation to his grave with him. It would seem that Ruby, in killing Oswald, also destroyed any possibility of ever knowing what motivated Oswald to commit his foul act.

The Warren Commission performed a thorough and monumental task.

Another dastardly crime is reported under investigation in Mississippi who killed Michael Schwerner, James Chaney and Andrew Goodman?

By being as thorough as the Warren Commission was in its investigation, and by uncovering to justice the murderers in Mississippi would be rendering a distinct service to their state, to the United States and to society.

But perhaps this is expecting too much to happen in such a backward of racism as Mississippi.

Soviet Prime Minister Nikita Khrushchev, who once looked westwards and threatened to bury the United States, is now finding that he has no monopoly on grave digging.

Since it has been reported that Red China has developed a nuclear weapon, Khrushchev must now be glancing worriedly over his shoulders eastwards at Communist China getting ready to do some heavy spade work.

The uppermost question which must be disturbing both the Kremlin and Peking is, "Who is going to bury whom?" Is Red Russia going to bury Red China or is Red China going to bury Red Russia?

The Federal Bureau of Investigation's report to President Lyndon Johnson on the senseless and purposeless street riots in some northern cities during the past summer contained a double condemnation.

It condemned the young rowdies who went to rampages of vandalism and looting. As an inescapable corollary, it also condemned the parents of the street hooligans.

The parents of the young toughs must bear much of the guilt. It is obvious that the parents had not been teaching their young brood civilized conduct and respect for law and order and for other people's property.

Some of the disorders were all the more senseless and unpardonable that they occurred in instances of other persons who where themselves committing illegal acts.

Some of the rioting continued for three nights in a row, with many of the same young rowdies undoubtedly participating. Why didn't the parents know where their youngsters were and what they were doing for three consecutive nights of rioting?

It would appear obvious that the morality of some parents is in a state of moral deterioration.
