Hopping About TARHEELIA

By Jay Bee Aytch

MINISTERS PLEDGE NAACP

BOCKY MOUNT — Despite the sending out of about two thousand letters to as many certified ministers over Tarheelia, the most Charles A. McLean, NAACP field secretary for Tarheelia, could get

This group, in their special con-ference, pledged themselves to bring into the NAACP coffers at least five thousand dollars before the 1965 convention convenes in Winston-Salem next October.

The Rev. A. G. Dunston of Louis-burg started on his pledge by rais-burg started on his pledge by raising six dollars Sunday at his Union Hill Baptist pastorate and turning same over to the nearby Nashville N. C. NAACP chapter, whose vice-president is Percy Gorham.

McLean said that only 500 ministers replied to his letters sent to the 2,000 asking for active support from their pulpits and finance from the church congregations.

Capus Waynick

Capus Waynick Gov. Terry Sanford's racial trouble-shooter—retired General Capus Waynick—told the NAACP convention that the immortal Gov. Chas. tice (citizenship) to the Negroes . . . we will all fail."

Waynick noted that the 1942 "Negro Manifesto" of the south-wide conference foretold what was in stand for the State and Nation if the majority race group continued to ignore their desires and (then) requests for freedom of opportuni-

Waynick said: "I want my people to know that one-fourth of the Old North State's population is Ne-gro", and then asked the audience at the ministers banquet in the O'-Henry Hotel (a first for Negroes); "How can we expect to teach your children respect for law and order whether we felled to demonstrate it to you ourselves?" He added, "Can we afford to nurture hatred for our ryman at so great a gost" as dens our Nation with. He contin-How can we expect to build a great economic society when one-fourth of our people (colored) earn only fourth-tenth of what their brothers earn?" Waynick concluded: "There remains the great job of helping the Negro masses break the bonds of pover-

Mrs. Wanda Setzer (white) of Hudson, N. C. (near Morganton) is a former model who has traveled extensively and now resides in her naitve hill country where she helps in the civil rights program around Morganton and Lenoir; and was a

IMPORTED RARE SCOTCH NVER HOUSE IMPORTED. REEN PLAID RARE SCOTCH WHISKY

$425 45 QT

MREND of separate by

FORD SALES and SERVICE ALLAN MIMS.

Telephone 2-2191 225 TARBORO ST.

ROCKY MOUNT, N C.

AME Zion Church pastored by the Rev. F. D. Battle of Leni The Rocky Mount area lodge of the Grand United Order of Tents, J. R. Kiddings and Jollifee Union

Coleman and Park Avenues, Sunday, October 25 with the Rev. W.
H. Somerville as guest speaker. The Emanuel Free Will Baptist choir will accompany their minister, the Rev. Somerville.

Rev. Somerville.

Mrs. Lucy Bulluck is Right Worthy Grand National Superintendent of the Order of Tents. Mrs. Lendora Yancey Brown is Right Worthy Grand Queen of the Rocky Mount

History of the Tents dates back to pre-emancipation years when the organization was formed with the cooperation of two friendly n in Virginia whose name were J. R. Giddings and a Mr. Jolli-tee whose first name was lost by their colored recipients, their beni-ficence, according to Mrs. Brown. Henry W. Brown, 642 Raleigh Rd.,

was entertained at a birthday din-ner recently by his wife, Mrs. Len-dora Brown, with a few members Brantley Aycock sixty years ago told Tarheelia that "... until and unless the white people of our Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alston, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Bostic, Charles and Mrs. O. M. Bostic, Charles Mrs. Co. M. Bostic, Charles Mrs. C Mrs. Arcenia Hines.

at a special Democratic ten-dollarper-plate political rally in Greens-boro last week which was addressed by Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, former governor Efner C. Hunter, is resting at his ome, 817 West End Street, following a period of hospitalization as the result of falling off a roof on his job several days ago.

Mrs. Rachel Batttle of Center St. ecompanied J. B. Harren to Raleigh last week where the visited with her niece, Mrs. Elsie Mitchell, 820 S. Bloodwarth Street, while Harren tramped about the N. C. State Fair where he saw one pig which weighed in for the blue ribbon at nine hundred pounds after winning prizes in Tarheelia, Virginia and Maryland!

Mrs. Beatrice G. Burnett, Tar with Mrs. Mary McPhail in Wilson while returning from the NAACP convention in Greensboro.

J. B. Harren was glad to meet with W. H. Headen, 1415 Gorrell St., Greensboro, while at the N. C. NAACP confab. It turned out that Headen is a cousin of the late Prof. T. C. Headen of Lincoln and Catawba counties, a popular school teacher and musician of the early 1900s up to World War One, who was also step-father of Harren, having been married to the late Mrs. Mary Jane ((Jennie) Burton Headthe Tuckers Grove community of Lincoln County.

B. J. Battle, 1010 Bellevue Street, of the Gate City's two and three-quarter millions. Henry D. Merriott, Rt. 1, Clayton, was caretaker for the forty 4-H cows and feeder calfs exhibited at the N. C. Fair by colored exhibitors. Merriot was commended by the efficials for the excellent sanitation he maintained in his department. His daughter, Maxine, and son, Dallas, were both prize

Benson-Four Oaks

BY MRS. FLORENCE J. WYNN

Homecoming Services BENSON—Morning worship was called to order by the choir at the St. James Disciple Church, with the paster, Rev. Robert Williams, delivering a soul-stirring sermon, taken from 1st Kings. The spirit dwelled within the church. Dinner was served before the afternoor service began.

The Rev. Patterson delivered the nessage. It was very inspiring and indeed uplifting. His subjejct was, "Drifting away!" His choir rendered the music. Everyone was filled both spiritually and physically. Pulpit guests were, Rev. C. B. Pea-cock and Rev. Stewart, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Rev. Shaw, and Rev. Patter-on, of Lillington. ilton. He is principal of Hillside Elementary School, and faculty. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Langston, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Langston, Mrs. Maggie Hodge, and daughter, Miss Marie Hodge, all are of Raleigh. The total offering was $139.61. PTA Meeting

PTA meeting was held Monday night at the Hillside Elementary School with a good attendance. After the devotion, Miss Mildred Monk conducted a costume relay Monk conducted a costume relay by the 8th grade. The winning side was given a trick or treat bag containing candles which they distributed to the parents. Joyce Nicholson, Percival Barfield, and William Williams, told the story of Halloween. Everyone enjoyed it.

The business session was presented with Mrs. Natline Jackson presiding. Old and new business was attended to Nov. 14 was set at the date for the sale of fried and barbecued chicken plates. Everyone is asked to buy and sell as many tickets as possible. Mrs. Williams' class won the plant for having the most parents present. Refreshments were served by Mrs. K.

L. Hamilton. The meeting was estiourned by Mr. Sherrill Barfield.

PASTOR'S ANNIVERSARP
The pastor's Anniversary was observed at St. James Disciple Church

Things You Should Know

Atty. Edwin J. Mann Marie V. COV

... OF COLUMBUS, OHIO; WHO

BECAME CHIEF COUNSEL OF COLUMBUS

LAW DEP'T. ON JULY 29,1953 / FIRST NEGRO

EVER TO HOLD THIS POST, HE HAD EARLIER SUCCESS DE-

FENDING THE CITY IN A FEDERAL GOVERNMENT SUIT

CONTINENTAL PERTURES - TO

APEX CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL

APEX-The Crown and Scepter Club of Apex Consolidated High School gave its first Chapel program recently. At that time, Dr. N. M. McMillan, principal, delivered a dynamic and challenging address. The members of the student body seemed greatly inspired with new determination and greater inspira-

He said, in part, "It was never intended that men should be mere neutral factors in this world. Your parents never dreamed of your being a molly-coddle or a nit wit or a donothing. You were born to do something with your lives, to make the most of your opprtunities.

But, you may say, why tell u such things? Haven't we been making the most of our opportunities? We have achieved something worth while, we belong to the Crown and Scepter, the only honor society of Apex alimsolidated High School.

True anough—but do you recall the Biblical story of the men with the one, two and five talents? Do you remember what happened to the servant who received the one talent? He "went and dissed in the earth hid his lord's money," and to his lord, "I was afraid and went and hid the talent in the earth: lo there thou hast that is thine." Then talent taken from the servant and given to the one who had been given five talents and increased them by five other talents. The unle servant was cast out while the profitable servant was

American Federal Savings and Loan Association now total some lent along certain lines, possibly tent along certain lines, possibly tees were appointed to they graduate from high school at the year as following: ten, twelve or thirteen and enter some university, when they should be entering high school. After college we hear nothing more about them. Have they lost their talent? talents under self-conceit and self-

> You remember what happened in the race between the rabbit and the tortoise. The hare was the colorful fellow, sure of himself, cocky, and boastful. Surely he belonged to the "honor society" of his school, he was a great fellow. He was so certain of winning over old slowpoke turtle that he lay down to have a nap. When he woke up the tortoise was just near the winningpost and there was nothing the hare could do about it. Assop knew human nature when he wrote that little tale. He knew that most peo-ple do not make the most of their pportunities.

ome bits of advice. Some things that have come to me out of the wisdom of others.

In the first place I should like for you to do a bit of self-analysis. Whatsoever we might be, we should recognize ourselves for what we are. Self-analysis is the first prerequisite for making the most of life. We can never go very far if we are not willing to see ourselves as we really are. Then we can organize our efforts and utilize our abilities to worthy achievements. Other guests attending the serv-ices were, Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Ham-as others see us" as it is taking of Public Instruction). His subject stock of ourselves, taking inventory that will enable us to plan and work toward a definite end. In the second place, make the most of your talents. Really put others. Be true to your own self. Longfellw was a great admirer of ton instead of writing after his own style and manner? In your self-an alysis determine what you are and then be true to yourselves. To recognize self and to be true to self is to lay a good foundation for worthwhile service. To this end you were given abilities and capabilities and determination not just to become members of the Crown and Scepter honor society.

We believe that the Crown and Scepter Club is an organization that helps to develop not only the mentality of our students, but it also strengthens their moral char-

The members of this club are: Misses Yvonne Page, Diane Walden, Linda Yates, Mae Christer ers, Paulette Bland, Lilly Lyons, Brenda Woodard, Alva Wooten and Jacqueline Jones. We are making plans for many educational programs during this school year.

RAMBLING IN CHATHAM

GOLDSTON-The Goldston PTA J. S. Waters High School with the president, Mrs. A. M. Hart, presiding. A large crowd attended the meeting and took active parts in the program. J. F. McIntyre was made ruler over many things.
You have heard of exceptional and came forward, read the mintees were appointed to serve for

Chairman of the budget committee and finance is M. B. Ray, teacher of the school; social committee chairman is Mrs. M. F. Lamb (a teacher). Miss Annie J. Thompson Most people of this type bury their is the membership committee chairman; Miss L. D. Marsh is the program committee chairman; Mrs. M. G Williams is the chairman of publicity committee. Mrs. T. G. Turner is the chairman of the legislative committee; Mr. E. T. Hanner is the chairman of the juvenile committees: and Mrs. Inez T. Wicker is chairman of the national PTA

The president urged all members and patrons to get a PTA membership card which is being issued to members at each meeting. The meeting is held each Tuesday after the second Sunday in every month. The very interesting highlight of the evening was a report given by the president on the planning session for local campaign-$100 Million School Bond Election as presented, and urged by Senator Dave

Clark, chairman. North Carolina Governor Terry Sanford, who came forward with an appealing adress, was introduced to the audience of 2,000 or more North Carolinians, by Representative Allen Barbee of Nash County. Other speakers on this issue and for the urgent need of more school buildings were: Dr. Charles Carroll, introduced by David N. Hi, Senator L. J. Gurganus of Martin County explained the 1963 School Construction Bill. Mrs. Felix Baker, president N. C. Congress of PTA talked on "How was "Urgency and Needs of Public the PTA can help fill needs of the Milton, so we are told, but what would have happened if Longfel-low had attempted to imitate Milindividual school child." Mr. John Entwistle, vice-president N. C. School Boards Association, spoke on "School Boards in Action." James R. Braswell, Wingate, president, N. C. Association of County Commissioners, spoke on 'Impact on Your County."

"URGENT! A Cooperative Effort was discussed by T. Roy Phillip, Carthage, chairman of the United Forces for Education.

Mrs. Hart, president of the Goldston PTA, urges every member to go to the polls and vote for this School Bond Issue on Nov. 3.

Princeton News

BY MRS. GOLDIE LEE HARDY PRINCETON-Sunday was Pastoral Day at Mt. Zion Holiness Church of God. The senior choir name, I will do it.

was in charge of the devotion. The pastor is Rev. C. W. Winston of mandments." St. John 16:15.

APEX

APEX-The Young Adult and

Junior choirs of the First Baptist Church were in charge of the de-votion at the 11 o'clock worship

Directors are Mrs. W. T. Bigelow and Mrs. J. F. Hunter, planist, Stephen Bigelow. The pastor, Rev. W. T. Bigelow, delivered a most interesting sermon, good food for thought. His text was taken from 1st John, 5:4, theme, "The Victorious Life."

Sunday afternoon, the Rev. W. M. Phillips sponsored a program featuring the male chorus, the Royalites of Durham, and Mrs. E. H. Williams and Stephen Bigelow as the accompanists at the piano

Sunday night at 7:30, Mrs. Bul- MRS. COLVIN lock was sponsor of a program at the First Baptist Church. Rev. C. W. Samuel, pastor of the Liberty Chapel Christian Church of Moncure and his choir, the Relative Gospel Singers rendered the service. His text was taken from Romans, subject, "Let nothing sep-arate you from the love of God." held a very successful meeting on arate you from the love of God."
Tuesday night at 8:00 o'clock at the It was a very interesting message. The Male and Gospel choruses of the First Baptist Church also appeared on the program. Funeral services for Mr. Clifto Marrow: Rev. W. F. Bigelow gave elected secretary of the PTA in the the eulogy. Survivors are his parfirst meeting of the school session, ents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Marrow, of Apex, his wife, Mrs. Mattie Leonard, one daughter, Brenda Faye, all of the home; six brothers, Richard, Jr., James, Sterling, Frank, Lawrence, and John, all of Apex, four sisters, Mrs. Janie Byrd of Raleigh, Mrs. Francis Grimsy. Edna and Lois, all of Apex.

HOMECOMING OBSERVANCE The First Baptist Church of Apex will observe its 10th annual Homecoming Sunday, October 25, at 2 p.m. Dr. Paul Johnson, paster of the Martin Street Baptist Church, Raleigh, will be the speaker. Other outstanding choirs have been in-vited to join us in our celebration Three prizes are available. The person turning in the highest amount of money above $150 will receive a 1957 automobile. It's very clean and will be on display Sat-urday and of course Sunday in front of the church. Second prize to the one turning in the highest amount above $100, will be a roun trip for 5 days, at the Fiesta Motel n Jacksonville, Florida. The husband or wife will go free. Third prize to the one bringing in the highest amount above $50 will be a round-trip bus ticket to New York City. The public is invited to attend and participate. We are looking forward to seeing you and our many friends whether you join in the challenge or not. Worship with us, won't you? PERSONALS

Mr. Willie Horton, a former resident of this city, who now lives in Philadelphia, is visiting his chilsuperintendent of Granville Public dren here, Mrs. Christabelle Blount, Swann and Mr. Calvin Hester, co-Schools; (Dr. Carroll is State Supt. and Mrs. Ernestine Jones and fam-

We were happy to see Miss Caro-

Red Springs. The scripture was read by Bishop Clinton Hodges of Selma. It was taken from the book Selma. It was taken from the book of St. John, 14 chapter, 1-6 verses. Elder Winston's subject was, "Remember". The message was well enjoyed by the congregation.

VISITORS

Miss Hadie Rogers, Mrs. Mary McRae of St. James AME Zion Church of Red Springs, Sisters Virginia Laens, Bessie Howard, Martha White, Brothers James Lucas, Russell White, of St. Jude Holiness Church of Wilson and Brother Bullock of Red Springs.

PERSONALS

The senior choir of St. Steven lock of Red Springs.

The senior choir of St. Steven Disciple Church and the Male Chorus of Princeton, participated on the musical program sponsored by the Johnston County Travels, Sunday evening at the St. Peters Disciple Church in Smithfield. The paster is Rev. Boykin of Wilson.
Mrs. Nancy Howell, Mrs. Goldie
Lee Hardy and son, Alvin, visited Mrs. Polly Williams and daughter, of Smithfield, Sunday evening.

A THOUGHT

on, in charge. Title of the leaves "Church Helpers." It was son was "Church Helpers." It was enjoyed by all present.

The Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Union of Frank-lin County was held October 16, 17 at the Gethsemane Baptist Church, Reverend J. H. Watsen, pastor. The theme for the two-day session was "Faith and responsibilities: the root and fruit of Christian living," Hebrew, 11:1 and Matthew, 7:20.

The theme was discussed by Mrs.

The theme was discussed by Mrs.
Marina Strickland, Miss Mary Lassiter and Miss Barbara Ann McKnight. The speaker Sunday was Dr. Amos Causey, of Wake Forest, paster of First Baptist Church, Franklinton

Pranklinton.

The tenth anniversary of the Rev. Henry Beamon, pastor of the Zion Springs Church of Bunn, was celebrated Sunday. The speaker was the Rev. Euselt and he had friends with im from LaGrange and Bailey. He is pastor of Saint James and St. Mary Bailey. Choirs present were St. Paul male chorus and St. Paul junior chorus, of Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hartsfield of

Mr. and Mrs. Al Goodwin of Durham were home over the week-end, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Buddle

Mr. Robert Hartsfield of Dur-ham was home over the week-end visiting his family. Mrs. Katherine Crudup of Bunn had company from Henderson and Virginia recently.

Mrs. Jean Cooley of Gethsemane
Hospital is sick and in the hospital.

Mrs. Eurle Lee Crudup is sick and shut-in.

Mrs. Queen Crudup of Bunn is sick and shut-in.

Cary-Asbury News

CARY - With the subject: Is Christ the way in my life." and taken from the book of John, 14th chapter, was the message given Sunday a.m. by the minister of United Bethel Church, Rev. J. H. Garrett. The Senior Choir was in charge of music. Mr. Robert Hooker was at the piano. Sunday afternoon the youth of the church sponsored a program. A nice sum was acknowledged. These young folks gave a fine program. Sunday evening at 7:30 the United Choir appeared on program at Lincolnsville AME Church, Asbury.

Cary Church of Christ The 99th Conference of the Church was held in Pleasant Grove Christian Church October 12-16 near Morrisville, N. C. The delegate reports a great session. Mr. L. G.

Grissom, delegate.
Sick and Shut-Ins
Mr. Charlie Bessley is doing nicely we are happy to report.

Sunday evening Group No. 2 of the Lincolnsville AME Church held a program. The guest speaker was Rev. J. L. McCullers of Raleigh.

On October 15, the eighth grade Music was by the United Choir of Cary. Many visitors were present A nice sum was acknowledged. This was sponsored by Mrs. Annie Hooker.

Do all the good you can. In all the ways you can, To all the souls you can, With all the zeal you can. In every place you can. As long as ever you can. -JOHN WESLEY

A Wise Saying

Pleasant Grove Union News

BY SANDRA BURTON AND

BURLINGTON-On October 12 the regular PTA meeting was held the regular PTA meeting was held in the school auditorium. The president, Mr. Evana Russell, and secretary, Mrs. Vernell Woods, presided over the meeting.

After a short devotional service led by Rev. Delmas Brown, the president proceeded with the meet.

led by Rev. Delmas Brown, the president proceeded with the meeting. Under the heading of New Business the following committees had been formed. Membership — Mrs. R. F. Wade, chairman, and Mrs. Eva Mebane, co-chairman; School Beautification—Mr. Pless Corbett chairman, Mr. Wiley Corbett, chairman; Mr. Wiley chairmen; Health and Pre-School Services man, Mrs. F. K. Lanier, co man, Mrs. F. K. Lanier, co-chairman, Helpers—Miss D. D. Holt, Mrs. Nannie Jones and Mrs. Attrice Haith; Publicity—Mrs. Doris Kimber—chairman, Mrs. McIver Corbett, co-chairman, Helper — Mrs. Louise Jeffries; Budget and Finance—Mr. Lewis Haith, chairman, Mrs. Mrs. Britt. Corbett or chairman. Helpers—Mr. Willie Jones, Mr. Walter Jeffries, Mrs. Ida Parker and Mrs. Avery Corbett; Safety Education—Mr. H. R. Parker and Mrs. Olivia Fuller; Father's Night— Mr. Herman Burnett, chairman, Mr. Henry Hayes, co-chairman, Helpers—Mr. Phillip Woods, Mr. Merlin Jeffries and Mr. Henry Kimber. Miss D. D. Holt's first grade won the PTA plaque for having the largest number of parents present.
The principal, A. B. Williams, talked to the parents concerning lyn Mangum, a junior at North Curolina Chilege, home for the weekend, also Miss Floya Cotton, a freshman at St. Augustine's Col-lege, Raleigh.

Mr. Harvey Cross, Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill, and Mr. Glenn Goldston, also in the hospital in Chapel Hill; Mr. Jessie Bullock, Mrs. Leans McCoy, and Mrs. Girlens Guy, all at home.

Clinton News

CLINTON—As one of the activi-ties held each year for prospective Sampson County Debutantes, a Fashion Show was held last weck end at the Sampson High School here in Clinton. Fashions from the

with the proper accessories for same, were shown.

After the Fashion Show, a social was held in the school gym for Debutantes, their marshals and other invited guests.

The Weeks Street 4-H Club assembled for the month of October at the home of Mrs. Jannie Beamon on Weeks Street. The meeting was called to order by the president, Thomas Moore, Jr., and opened by prayer, followed by the 4-H hymn and Pledges to the American and 4-H Flags.

The president gave a report on a trip made by some club members to the USS North Carolina at Wilmington, during the month of September. Record books for the past year were turned in.

extension agent, talked on "Good Grooming". He gave the boys and girls excellent information on gen-eral grooming habits and how they month of November, a Craft Work-shop will be held. Games were played and refreshments were were: Shirley Moore, Jarvis Hall, Joyce Royal, Lois Tew, Delois Bryant, Barbara A. Vann, Evelyn Moore, Darlene Davis, Wanda F. Moore, Larry Bryant, Willie R.

Moore, Elwood Turlington, III;
Calvin King, Joseph Hall, Thomas
Moore, Jr., Jean Lane and Patricia Moore. Three of these were new members: Joyce Royal, Lois Tew and Jean Lane. Mr. and Mrs. Novelle L. Hayes and daughter. Annette motored to Washington, D. C. last week-end to visit their children, Mr. and Mrs. Ivory Stokes, Miss Trumilla Stokes grind his corn."

and Mr. Earl Stokes. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Clanda Banks. They were the house guests of Mr. They were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ivory Stokes. They report

Homecoming will be observed at Lisbon Street Baptist Church Sun-day, October 25. The Reverend James H. Everett, choir and coning will be ob gregation from Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, Fayetteville, N. C. will be their guest and render service at 3 p.m. They are inviting the public.

Mrs. Jackson Crowned Miss American Legion*

On last Sunday, the American Legion*

On last Sunday, the American Legion Auxiliary ended an Oxford Orphanage Fund Raising Drive with a program at Lisbon Street Baptist Church. The Rev. H. R Cogdeil brought a short message Music was turnished by the Male Chorus of First Baptist Church with Rev. J. L. White at the organ and Running Branch Choir.

The four ladies running for the "Miss American Legion" contest were: Madames Ina Holmes, Ruth Boone, Maggie Fryar and Frances

Boone, Maggie Fryar and France Mrs. Frances Jackson was crown ed "Miss American Legion". She turned in $110.00; the runner-up was Mrs. Maggie Fryar with $102.25 Total amount raised was $302.47.

On Sunday afternoon, Octobe observe the pastor's Anniversary The Reverend Robert Lowe and his choir and congregation from the Bearskin and Red Hill Baptis Churches will have charge of the Homecoming will be observed at First Baptist Church the second Sunday in November. The Rev. P H. Warren, Jr. and his choir and congregation at Sandy Grove Church, Lumberton, N. C. will be their guest.

They are sponsoring a "Miss Homecoming" contest. Each organ-ization of the church is running a THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK-"Opportunities are like millstones,

Hunters Are Urged To 'Draw Bead On Safety' in accident-free hunting trips.

The American Red Cross Tues day aimed these words of advice at the nation's 14 million hunters. "Don't take chances," warned Al-fred W. Cantwell, national director of Red Cross Safety Services, noting that guns and explosives cause 2,300 deaths and innumerable injuries annually. Treat every gun as if it were loaded; while traveling in cars, attendance, and pupils achievement in school. Cynthia Jeffries, an eighth grader, of our school was the beautiful girl who rode on a float for Cen-tral High School's homecoming parade. The attractive queen wore a gold and blue outfit, and rode atop

On October 15, the eighth grade section A presented its annual chapel program. The title of the program was "A Panorama of the Western Hemisphere." Steve Dixon was narrator. All members of the class participated. Mrs. Sally Covington, who is 100 years old, was a year to have a habit of looking the very special guest for this e- on the bright side of things.—Samvent. After the program was over, she visited the eighth grade room and talked to the children about life in the USA as she has seen it for the past ninety-six years. This was a thrilling and an educational experience for the children. Mrs.

V. C. Morris was the teacher in-charge of this program.

WASHINGTON, D. C .- Draw at boats, or planes, make sure you bead on safety and bag your limit guns are unloaded. Keep them cased, wrapped, or dismantled; hunt with a companion and insist h abide by safety rules, too. Be sure ammunition fits gun; keep your finger off the trie ger until you're ready to shoot don't handle a gun by its muzz! or use it as a prop, club, or prod make certain the moving object you fire at is legitimate game and not another human being or a domestic animal; don't climb fanca run, or jump while carrying a load ed gun. In rough terrain where your footing is precarious or in heavy underbrush, unload the gun or open its action. If someone is wounded while hunting, these are first aid measures you should take, Cantwell said: Control bleeding, protect wound from contamination, and give the victim care against shock. small, there still may be extensive internal injuries. Summon a physician as soon as possible, preferably without moving the victim.

IT IS WORTH a thousand pounds

DEWAR'S SCOTCH WHISKY

White Label

