Tinnin Gets Only Score For Locals

The Shaw University Bears were overpowered by a strong Elizabeth City State Team Saturday night, October 17, by a score of 13-6. The Bears got off to a slow first half and before they knew it, Forry Watson, a speedster from Elizabeth City had made the score 6-0. Odel Harris scored the extra point for the Vikings.

The Bears scored only one time on an 18-yd run by Robert Tinnin. In the closing minutes of the game, Willie French tried to get on the scoreboard again, when he intercepted a pass and mowed 30 yards into Viking territory. The ball went over to Elizabeth City on downs and they kept it for the remaining minutes of the game.

The Shaw Bears will travel to Charlotte Saturday to play Johnson C. Smith University at their homecoming.

King Is Caught In End Zone

YAWRENCEVILLE, Va. — The Falcons of St. Augustine's College were defeated here Saturday by the Tigers of St. Paul's College, sister school to St. Augustine's, by a score of 8-6.

A cheering partisan crowd of hundreds stood in the rain and mud to cheer St. Paul's team on to victory. However, the Raleigh eleven were accompanied by their cheerleaders and a radio announcer from station WJLE in the Tar Heel Capital City, who was forced to broadcast from the bus of the St. Augustine's gridder.

At halftime, the score was 6-0, with the Falcons trailing. However, St. Augustine's managed to score in the third period. Both teams attempted to run extra points and were unsuccessful.

The two-point safety was the Tigers came when quarterback Sinclair King of the Falcons was strapped, in his own end zone, attempting to kick off and the ball hit the goal post, giving St. Paul's an automatic two-point advantage.

Although both teams attempted to do more scoring in the third and fourth period, they were hampered by many penalties and a muddy and slippery football field.

Many fumbles also accounted for the low score, according to officials of both schools.

St. Augustine's will meet the Broncos of Fayetteville State College here Saturday afternoon as they play their homecoming game. Scene of this encounter will be Chavis Park.

Winston-Salem Meets Aggies Of A&T Sat.

WINSTON-SALEM — The Winston-Salem State College Rams, ambitious for higher echelons in CIAA football, will take on the A&T Aggies at 2 p.m. Saturday, October 24, in Bowman-Gray stadium.

Cochair Thomas E. (Tank) Conrad believes that this may be the Ram's year to "take" A&T. The two teams have met 11 times, and Winston-Salem has yet to win.

The Rams feature the point passing team of James (Red) Miller to Ricard Souleis. "If our running game is right," Conrad said, "we can take them."

Although he has to rely on freshmen runners for most of his power, Conrad said, "Our team will be up for this game. The line is strong although it lacks the depth of A&T."

A&T also has a strong passing game featuring quarterback Cornell Gordon and end Ronald Francis. Francis makes the impossible catches look easy. A&T has a new running sensation, freshman Michael Johnson.

Delaware State Loses To J. C. Smith U., 8-6

DOVER, Del.—In a game played in a hard driving rain, the Delaware State Hornets lost to the Johnson C. Smith Bulls, 8-6.

The first quarter was scoreless. Early in the second quarter, Smith drove to the 9-yard-line of DSC where fullback Richard De Brest of Philadelphia fumbled and tackle Martin Lee of Abington, Pa., recovered for Delaware State. Late in the same period Delaware State drove to the 15-yard line of Smith, but lost the ball on downs with less than a minute remaining in the half. The half later ended without a score.

In the third period Smith scored after taking the opening kickoff of the half on its own 26 and moving straight down the field on a sustained drive to the 10-yard line of Delaware State. From that point halfback Allen Cole of Fayetteville, N. C., ran 19 yards through the line for a TD. Quarterback Geo. Foster of Spartanburg, S. C., passed to end Ira Newble of Asheville, N. C., for conversion to put Smith out front, 8-6.

Later in the same period John Barber of Philadelphia covered a fumble by Foster on his own 34 yard line for Delaware State. Two plays later halfback Ernest Anderson of Wilmington, Delaware, ran 35 yards for a TD. The run for the conversion failed, and the score then was 8-6.

In the last quarter Delaware State on a drive went to the 20-yard line of Smith, but lost the ball on downs with less than a minute remaining in the game. The game ended a few plays later with Smith winning, 8-6.
