Soror Edythe Tweedy

Regional Director Guest Of Local Delta Sorority

"Fun With Deltas" was the theme of the October meeting of the Raleigh Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, held at the home of Mabel Gray, with Sorors Lillian Abron, Roberts Lightner, Dorcas Turner, and Delores Walker serving as hostesses.

Soror Edythe Tweedy, director of South Atlantic Region, was special guest. Each soror had an opportunity to personally meet and talk with Soror Tweedy and also to participate in the wonderful evening of fun planned by the hostesses. The evening of fellowship ended with sorors playing cards and prizes being awarded. Such an enjoyable evening made each soror more dedicated and determined to carry out the Raleigh Alumnae Chapter's theme for the year "Delta's Challenge—A Call to Service."

RADICALISM is often just an empty stomach shouting for a place at the food trough.
