BURL ALLEN'S
Ink TONGUE

Ladies and Gentlemen:
Now is the time for Americans to come to the aid of—in many cases—their state, in many cases, their race, and—in ALL cases—their country! Campaigning time is swiftly winding up, and certain fatigue political hounds, sensing the possible fate of this hectic race, are dangerously desperate! But don't be deceived or confused: While this choice is an important one to make, you can see at a glance that it is not a difficult one.
Last spring, even before the democratic favorite was chosen, we sampled a preview of the Lake-Moore kind of government: cheap hateful Raleigh policemen molested Negro voters at the polls! And, speaking of sweeping dirt under rugs, what happened about that? Moore has proved himself to be a little more than Lake's microphone, and it is readily seen that, Moore, as governor, would appoint Lake to take all his DISRESPECT into a RESPECTABLE position in state government—a position from which to MISGOVERN the state through Moore.
Don't be misled, Friends. Moore is not the main runner; he's the echo, the shadow — the puppet through which Lake, THE SNAKE, endeavors to impose his isms upon the state by which he has been repeatedly rejected! He was so rejected, because the thinking voters know that Lake would inspire, encourage, and very probably PROMOTE an inextricable interracial war!
He would do this by allowing and encouraging ruthless Caucasians to persecute Negroes, denying us suffrage and various other newly acquired basic civil rights.

TIPS UNLIMITED

BY BLANCHE A. RIVERS
The Mature Person: arrives at his state of maturity by sustained conscientious efforts. He can and does learn to become mature. For a beginning here are a few few suggestions:
1. Learn to live socially, tolerantly and understandingly with the people around you.
2. Have some definite goal in life. Having attained this goal give it the best that is in you.
3. Create for the sake of creating. By doing so you can give something of yourself. By creating you actually feel yourself grow. It matters little what the outlet may be, whether it be poetry, fiction, wood-carving, painting, model building or soap sculpture. The important thing is to create.
4. A sense of obligation is another important element of maturity. A person may become aware that he owes something to the world and wants to return in a measure what he has received.

"PHYSICAL FITNESS DAY" AT WASHINGTON SCHOOL — On Thursday, October 22, the student body, faculty and neighboring spectators were entertained by the Washington Junior High School boys and girls in a day of physical fitness. Over 300 students were uniformly assembled on the front lawn of the school where they performed many body building calisthenics and discipline marching drills. The program was coordinated by Mrs. Hattie Bridges, Edward B. Hicks and directed by Miss Mattie Ruth Davis, a student teacher from St. Augustine's College.
