

Shaw Bears Bow To NCC Eagles In Capitol Classic, 27-7

St. Aug. Falcons Ruin Vikings' Homecoming Game, 8-6

Two-Point Conversion Big Break

The Saint Augustine's College Falcons edged the Elizabeth City State Vikings 8-6 in the Vikings Homecoming game at Elizabeth City Saturday.

The Vikings' single score was set up when they recovered a Falcons' fumble on their 40-yard line. Quarterback Irving Francis of the Vikings completed a 28 and 11 yard pass to end Henry Hood which took the Vikings to the 1-yard line of the Falcons. Fullback Earl Jackson scored from that point for the Vikings. The pass for the extra points failed.

The Falcons threatened to score several times in the first half. A sustained march of 60 yards took them to the 3 yard line of the Vikings where they tried the Vikings lines three times and tossed a pass into the end zone but failed to score. Halfback Thomas Newbold of the Falcons intercepted a Vikings' pass in the closing minutes of the first half and rushed 95 yards into the Vikings' end zone. The score and yardage were nullified by a personal penalty assessed against the Falcons.

Sinclair King, quarterback of the Falcons, was able to get a rally started on the 25-yard line of the Falcons when he completed a 20-yard toss and a 22-yard toss to end Edward Chester respectively which placed them in scoring position. Halfback Wayne Ellis made a run to the six-yard line from that point and fullback William Jameson went in for the score. Outstanding backs for St. Augustine's included: Lloyd Chism, Enoch Duke, Thomas Newbold, and William Jameson. Outstanding among linemen were: Theodore Brown, Edward Chester, Norah Thorpe, Herman Reid.

The Falcons have won 3 conference games and lost 2. Overall average 4-2. They will play the Winston-Salem Rams at Winston-Salem on November 7.

Falcons	Elizabeth City
10 first downs	9
49 yards gained rushing	138
122 yards gained passing	69
21 passes attempted	18
9 passes completed	7
1 interception	1
5 fumbles recovered	2
146 yards lost in penalties	70

Where They Play

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are schedules of major college football games and where they will be played on Saturday, Nov. 7:

Alcorn at Miss. Vocational Benedict at Allen U.
Ark. AM&N at Grambling
Prairie View at Bishop (Nov. 9)
Kittrell at Bluefield
Cheyney State at West Chester (Nov. 6)

Albany State at Claffin
Del. State at Md. State
Dillard at Alabama St.
Elizabeth City at Fayetteville
Lane at Fisk U.
N. C. A&T at Fla. A&M (Homecoming)
Hampton at Shaw (Homecoming)
Gallaudet at Howard U.
Tex. Sou. at Jackson State
J. C. Smith U. at Livingstone
Morehouse at Knoxville (Homecoming)

Va. Union at Morgan
S. C. Trade at Morris
Morris Brown at N. C. College
Va. State at Norfolk State
Philander Smith at Rust
St. Aug. at Winston-Salem
S. C. State at Central (O.)
Wiley at Southern U.
Salem at W. Va. State

BRONZE MEDALS FROM TOKYO — North Carolina College track star Edwin Roberts, second from right, proudly shows off two bronze medals he won in the recent Tokyo Olympics to members of the staff of the college's Bureau's Office. Roberts, who represented his native Trinidad, earned a medal for placing third in the 200-meter dash. He earned another one as a member of Trinidad's mile relay team, which placed third in the finals of this event. Admiring the medals are, from left: Miss Mary Louise Jones, Mrs. Pauline Johnson, Mrs. Dorcas Hayes, and George Thorne, assistant business manager.

A&T Blasts Undefeated Morgan, 29-8 In Big Homecoming Game

SHAW'S FLASHY END—Art Bridges, 200 lb. sophomore end from Mt. Vernon, New York is expected to add a spark to the Shaw Bears' offense in this week's Homecoming tilt.

GREENSBORO — A&T College's Aggies celebrated homecoming in appropriate fashion by knocking previously unbeaten Morgan State from the undefeated rank on a 29 to 8 triumph before 15,000 fans at Memorial Stadium last Saturday afternoon.

Led by quarterback Cornell Gordon, who scored two touchdowns and drove his team within range for another, plus a field goal, the Aggies avenged a humiliating defeat at the hands of the Baltimore team last season, a defeat which removed them from championship contention.

With the victory, the Aggies took over undisputed leadership in the CIAA with a 4-0-1 conference record. Morgan State now is 5-1 in the loop.

Gordon, waging a personal duel with a former teammate, Carl Whitaker — they both played at Norfolk's Booker T. Washington High — emerged victor in that contest as well as claiming starring honors for the game. Gordon played both offense and defense.

Gordon's touchdowns came off short runs of one and two yards. Willie Beasley plunged one yard for another, Clifton Matthews went two yards for a score, and Alfred Maloney kicked a 23-yard field goal.

Burnie Blanks got Morgan State's lone touchdown on a 14-yard sprint early in the fourth quarter after the fired-up Aggies hit quickly for two scores in the first quarter, with Beasley and Gordon each counting from the one.

Beasley's TD was set up when Conrad Lettimore, A&T end, intercepted a pass by Whitaker at the Aggie 30 and raced to the Morgan State 18. It took just three plays for A&T to score.

The second score of the quarter came off a 56-yd. drive. The Aggies recovered a fumble at the Morgan State 44 and Melvin Phillips promptly ripped off an 18-yard sprint. Gordon rolled out around

NCC Eagles' Billy Allsbrook Sparkles In D. C. Stadium

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The Shaw University Bears were defeated by the Eagles of North Carolina College at Durham, 27-7, Saturday, October 31 in the annual Capitol Classic football thriller held in Washington, D. C.

The Eagles grabbed the lead early in the 2nd quarter at the end of a 27 yd. drive lead by halfback Billy Allsbrook who snagged a pass intended for Art Bridges and moved to Shaw's 41-yard-line at D. C. Stadium. Jones and McGill from N C C advanced the ball to the 15 yard line of Shaw and McGill, big full-back, carried the ball over for the touchdown. The point after touchdown was no good. NCC scored again in the latter half of the second quarter after Nathan Walton, quarterback for Shaw, fumbled on his 24 yard line and McGill recovered. Jones then carried the ball in from the 18 yd. line after McGill had picked up six yards on a previous play.

In the 3rd quarter, NCC returned on the gridiron with another touchdown following a fumble by Willie French on Shaw's 38-yard-line. Billy Allsbrook picked up 27

Artis, Pope Dazzle Fans As Ligon Beats BTW, 17-8

The up-and-coming Little Blues of the J. W. Ligon Junior-Senior High School here, defeated favored Booker T. Washington High School, 17-8 in a game played at Raleigh's Chavis Park Friday night.

The first quarter was a defensive battle, which saw neither team hit paydirt. However, the Peter H. (Pete) Williams-coached Blues went into action in the second period with Ralph Pope running 85 yards for a touchdown.

Later in the second quarter, Jimmy Robinson kicked a 27-yard field goal to increase Ligon's lead to a 9-0 at half-time.

In the third quarter, Rocky Mount scored as Nelson Braswell picked off a Ligon pass and dashed 53 yards for a touchdown. Wayne Harper ran across the two-point conversion and the lead of the Little Blues was reduced to 9-8.

Then with the partisan fans shouting and screaming, Kevler Artis made a dazzling run. He took the ball one yard short of the goal line and raced 90 yards, all the way down the field for a touchdown. The extra point was good.

Coach Williams had high praise for Artis, Pope and Bruce Lightner on the defensive side.

This victory gave the Little Blues a 5-3 mark for the year. The Booker T. Washington Lions had only lost one other game before last Friday night. They came into the park ranked as one of the best defensive teams in the Association. They now have a 5-3 record.

Ligon plays his last game here Friday night as the Little Blues play host to Fayetteville's E. E. Smith High School, which they tied, 12-12 last season.

Morgan Still Leading In CIAA's Statistics

At the half-way point in the CIAA race, Morgan State College leads in the standings and in the team statistics.

Morgan has a 246.6 yards average per game in rushing while holding its opponents to 52.0 rushing per game. Morgan also leads in total defense by allowing its opponents a meager 104.3 yards per game. A&T College leads in total offense with an average of 307.8 yards per game.

Monroe Beard, Va. Union's sensational halfback, leads in rushing and total offense. Beard has carried 89 times accumulating 617 yards in the process for a fantastic 6.9 yards per carry. He also has 656 yards on total offense and is tied for fifth in scoring with 24 points.

Sinclair King, St. Augustine's 175 lb. Jr. QB, leads in passing with 61 percent completions and 4 TD tosses.

KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY

$4.80 4 1/2 QUART $3.05 PINT

OLD TAYLOR

86 PROOF

THE OLD TAYLOR DISTILLERY CO., FRANKFORT & LOUISVILLE, KY.
DISTRIBUTED BY NATIONAL DISTILLERS PRODUCTS COMPANY

REAL GUSTO

IN A GREAT LIGHT BEER

Distributed in Raleigh By
FISHER WHOLESALE CO., INC.

SHAW UNIVERSITY

VS

Hampton INSTITUTE

SATURDAY NOV. 7

Kickoff 1:30 P. M.

Chavis Park

Raleigh, N. C.

GEN'L ADMISSION $2.50
Advance - - - - $2.00
Students - - - - $1.75

Add Extra Points to Your Full Social and Sports Calendar by Making Shaw's Homecoming a Must on Your List!

HALFTIME FESTIVITIES • SEE OLD FRIENDS • PARADE • SOCIAL AFFAIRS • COME BACK "HOME"

HOMECOMING FOOTBALL