Conversion Failures Doom Shaw

BY BRUNCE BALOWAN
COLLEGIATE FOOTBALL'S SHAW UNIVERSITY SOARS TO THE YELLOW-JACKETED ALLEN UNIVERSITY, BY A SCORE OF 14-12, SUNDAY NOVEMBER 21, IN COLLEGE CAROLINA.

The Yellowjackets scored in the 1st quarter on an 80-yd. run by Charles Bryant, who kicked the extra point to give Shaw a 7-0 lead. The Yellowjackets scored again in the 2nd quarter on a 30-yd. pass from quarterback Clarence Allen, who kicked the extra point to give Shaw a 14-0 lead.

In the 3rd quarter, with about seven minutes left in the game, Allen threw a 20-yd. pass to Shaw's receiver, James Smith, who caught the ball and ran 20 yds. for the touchdown. Shaw's 21-0 lead was short-lived, however, as Allen threw a 20-yd. pass to Smith in the 4th quarter, who caught the ball and ran 20 yds. for the touchdown. Shaw's 28-0 lead was short-lived, however, as Allen threw a 20-yd. pass to Smith in the 4th quarter, who caught the ball and ran 20 yds. for the touchdown.

A&T Continues Drive For CIAA Trophy; St. Aug.'s King Is Top Quarterback

The A & T College Aggies (5-4-1) took a firmer grip on first place in the CIAA standings by crushing the first division Virginia State College Trojans 34-6 in Greensboro last Saturday. The North Carolina Eagles remain the only stumbling block to a championship. Morgan State College (7-1-0) remained in the thick of the battle by beating Shaw University 40-7.

Monroe Beard, Virginia Union's star halfback, was virtually wrapped up the rushing title with 808 yds. in 154 carries and a 5.3 yds. avg. per carry. His closest rival, Emerson Boozer of Maryland State College, has completed his season with 784 yards in 101 carries. Beard went over the 1,000 yd. mark in total offense and continues to lead in that department. He has 808 yds. rushing and 318 yds. passing for a total of 1,126 yds. in 162 plays.

St. Augustine's College still leads in passing with 96 completions, 777 yards, 6 TD losses, and a percentage of 579. In the passing department, it is worth mentioning that James Millner of Winston Salem College has 1013 yards passing and 14 touchdowns.

Ronald Francis of A & T College has moved into a tie with Richard Souels of Winston Salem College in the pass catching department. Bach has 26 receptions; however, Souels has caught 10 touchdowns passes to Francis' 2.

Melvin Dickerson of St. Paul's College has increased his lead in punting with an average of 33.5 yards per kick. Morgan State College continues to dominate team statistics by leading in three departments. The Bears lead in rushing, total offense (302 yds. per game), and garnered the lead from Virginia State College in total defense by allowing its opponents 129.6 yds. per game. Elizabeth City College trails by a mere 3 of a point at 129.9 yards. The Elizabeth City Vikings maintained their lead in rushing defense with a 42.9 yds. avg. per game.

Voices and Events of the Year: An RCA recording and NBC News Production, featuring the nine major events of the year, including the Negro Revolution and the tragic assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Text written by William Alan Bates, with additional liner notes by William R. McAndrew, executive vice president of NBC News.

Beginning with an introductory reading of the Psalms containing the words, "A Time to Keep," by the Most Rev. Philip M. Hannan, auxiliary Roman Catholic bishop of Washington, during funeral services for President Kennedy in St. Matthew's Cathedral, Washington, D. C., November 25, the recording takes the listener back to such major events during the momentous year 1963, as the now historic civil rights march on Washington; developments in political and international affairs, and in sports such as the World Series in which the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the New York Yankees in four straight games — and ends with the assassination of the President.

NEGRO PRESS INTERNATIONAL GREAT TRAGIC EVENTS OF '63 RECALLED

Whenever an year draws to a close, people are generally prompted, particularly around Christmas and New Year, to recall the major events in their lives and in the nation during that period.

One medium which should help record fans in particular to recapture the great, moving and even tragic events of the past year is an outstanding LP, titled "A Time To Keep," narrated by the great news team of commentators—Chet Huntley and David Brinkley. A unique chronicle of the year's major events, "A Time To Keep" — the sole subject of this review — is highly recommended to record fans. The details follow: "A TIME TO KEEP: 1963 —

"Pete" Williams Head Mentor: Ligon's Coach, Three Players, On East All-Star Game Roster Dec. 5

BY RICHMOND E. STEWART
P. H. "Pete" Williams, head coach of the Little Blues football team was given the chore of guiding the Eastern All-Stars in their annual game against the West on Saturday, December 5. The game will be played in Durham on North Carolina College's O'Kelly Field. Kick off time is set for 1:00 p. m.

Also representing the Ligon Little Blues will be Xavier Artis, Freddie Hicks, and James Smith. Artis, a 154 pound half-back, who stands only 5' 8" was Ligon's heavy duty man during the regular season. His strong running and speed enabled him to get off the long run time and again was a major factor in Ligon's comeback to a strong start after getting off to a poor start. The Blues won their last four games to establish a 6-3 over all record.

The crowd was thrilled many times by the twisting, turning and determined running of Artis as he scored 32 points and led the Blues in rushing with 709 yards in 91 carries to sport a 7.7 average. The son of a former great high school football player, he played on defense as well as offense which is also an indication of his versatility.

XAVIER ARTIS
To play in East-West game

Co-Captain Alfredo Hicks comes from a long line of outstanding football players that have performed under Williams. He is 6' 3", 178 pounder that plays both ways. During the season he caught six touchdown passes and one PAT pass to score 38 points for the Blues. He was also a strong performer on defense, joining up with Co-Captain Smith at tackle to form one of the strongest combinations in the Eastern District. Smith is 6' 1" and 212 pounds of quiet determination. He says very little, but Williams rates him as perhaps the best college player on the team. He is very consistent, strong, quick and possesses "football sense" that causes him to be in the right place at the right time.

Coach Williams and his assistant, Wm. "Hutch" Peerman from Lincoln High in Chapel Hill will begin practice for the All-Star game Monday, November 30, at the O' Kelly field in Durham. This will be his second East-West game which was also the first game of the series in 1956, by the score of 15-0.

The coaches for the West will be Al Montgomery of Second Ward in Charlotte and Cleo Wallace of Anderson High School in Winston-Salem.

Redskins' Bobby Mitchell Predicts Jim Brown Will Become 1st Tan Coach

CLEVELAND (UPI)—Marvelous Jim Brown, who potentially engages in the process of rewriting league's history every time he takes the field with the Cleveland Browns, will be named coach of the Browns upon retirement and thus become the first Negro to coach in the National Football League, Bobby Mitchell, his ex-teammate and roommate predicted here last week.

In making the prediction, Mitchell, who now stars for the Washington Redskins, said: "I know (owner Art) Modell will give Jim a chance to coach if he wants it. He thinks an awful lot of Jim.

"Jim is the Negro most qualified to be a coach and I think he would be a good one."

Brown has been the NFL's leading ground gainer every year for more than eight years. Last season he set the league's all-time ground gaining record when he amassed more than 8,000 yards and recently made history anew when he passed the 10,000 mark. With fullback Brown playing great football again this season, the Browns Sunday were way out in front in the NFL's Eastern Division race.

Mitchell said his prediction is bolstered by the fact that Brown himself has great confidence in himself as a specially-endowed leader. He explained:

"Jim used to tell his wife that he is a prince descended from royalty and that he is going back to Africa some day to lead his people.

"He thinks he has some supernatural or mystic powers that keep him from getting hurt. And his record in pro football pretty much supports the idea."

Brown performs year after year in the NFL without serious injury. This helps enable him to set his ground-gaining record each season.

Cage Clinic Conducted By ECSC Team

ELIZABETH CITY—The last of a series of four basketball clinics, sponsored by the Physical Education Department of Elizabeth City State College was presented on Tuesday, November 24, at 7 p. m. at Central High School, Gatersville.

Scheduled during the month of November, the clinics were planned for high schools in the Elizabeth City area. Under the supervision of Robert L. Vaughan, chairman of the department of Physical Education, and head basketball coach, the team has been giving demonstrations and conducting discussions on the 1964-65 men's rules, the teams offensive patterns, out-of-bound plays and defensive formations.

The clinics were enthusiastically received at the following high schools: Perquimans County (Winnfall), E. L. Vann (A-hokkie), and C. S. Brown, (Winton). Plans to continue the program are being considered, and will either precede or follow the basketball season.

The Elizabeth City Vikings will open their season on December 1, at Winston-Salem, where they will meet the Rams of Winston-Salem State College.

"Lute Song" on December 4 at 8 p. m. in Virginia Hall Auditorium. "Lute Song" a drama in three acts by Kao-Tong-Kia was adapted for the American stage by Sidney Howard and Will Irvin from the famous Chinese play "Pi-Pa-Ki." A musical version of the play was given on Broadway in 1946, starring Mary Martin and Yul Brynner.

"Lute Song" is a tale of love, ambition, filial piety, deep devotion, courage, retribution, human failure, and human victory. It possesses magnetic power and high imagination.

The cast includes Willie Pettus, South Hill; Hubert Jackson, Cullpeper; Julianne Brown, Winter Haven, Fla.; Sandra Gresham, Richmond; and Warren Martin, Hackensack, New Jersey.
