

FROM RALEIGH'S POLICE FILES:

THE CRIME BEAT

BY CHARLES R. JONES

CONVERTIBLE TOP SLIT
Donald (Lollypop) Wilson, of 628 Fayetteville Street, told an officer at 11:12 a. m. Thursday, that while his 1962 convertible Cadillac was parked in the 800 block of Fayetteville Street on Wednesday night between 10 and 12 midnight, someone cut the top on it, causing $97 in damages.

REPORTS THREATENING LETTER

Mrs. Georgia Williams, 47, of 265 Freeman Street, informed Officer C. C. Heath at 3:04 p. m. Thursday, she received a letter, dated November 18, 1964, from an unknown person. The letter stated, "Hating someone is not good and you will die soon."
Mrs. Williams also reported receiving a number of telephone calls, telling her she would be killed. She said she does not know of anyone who has anything against her.
The complainant said she is separated from her husband.

NAB TEENAGERS FOR

SHOPLIFTING

Officer E. D. Whitley arrested a 14-year-old girl, of 3119 Wilder St., and a 15-year-old girl, who resides at 3115 Wilder Street, Method, and charged both with shoplifting at the A&P Store on Western Boulevard last Thursday.

The youngest girl had allegedly stolen two packages of cookies, costing 25 cents each; while her older companion was accused of stealing one bag of candy, valued at 25 cents.

Petitions were drawn against both and they were released in the custody of their parents.

COPS GIVEN ROUGH TIME BY WOMAN

Raleigh Industrial Loan Company, E. Martin Street, reported at 5:04 p. m. Thursday, it had a claim and delivery for furniture at 925 E. Lane Street, Apt. 2, occupied by Mrs. Betty Robertson, 20.
Deputy Sheriff G. W. Underwood of the Wake County office, was attempting to serve papers on the woman, whom he reported was "giving me trouble." He called for help and Officer G. E. Cox was sent to the house. Upon arrival, Cox found that she would not permit two officials of the loan company to re-enter the house to recover a record player which she had allegedly mortgaged.

The men said they had already taken it out and placed it in their truck when the woman ran outside, took the record player back, and was attempting to "nose" out the back door with it, when Officer Cox approached.

She reportedly began to bite, scratch and kick the cop, and "cursed violently," he reported. She then picked up an object from her television set and hurled it at the loan company representatives.

Finally, the writhing, cursing defendant was taken to Wake County Jail and charged with disorderly conduct and assault on an officer.

TWO JAILED IN WATER PITCHER FIGHT

Miss Shirley Hauser, 26, of 926 Oakwood Avenue, told Officer T. T. Street, Jr., at 7:55 p. m. Thursday, she and Howard Thomas, also 26, were fighting, and he picked up a water pitcher and cut her on the arm with it. Both refused to say what the argument was about. Street arrested both parties and charged them with engaging in an affray where a deadly weapon was used.

SAYS MAN THREW ROCK INTO WINDOW

Leroy Purcell, 30, reportedly threw a rock into a window of the home of George High, 59, of 908 E. Davie Street, breaking it, last Thursday.

Mr. High signed a warrant and Purcell was jailed for public drunkenness and damage to property.

STABS BOYFRIEND IN LEG

Miss Mary Bear Bladshod, of 820 S. East Street, informed Officers Larry M. Smith and F. C. Gregory at 2:32 p. m. Saturday, that she and her boyfriend, William Charles Frederick, same address, got into an argument and, as a result, he grabbed her, she stated, and she then stabbed him in the left leg with a pocket knife.

Frederick admitted they were arguing, but "didn't see any reason for her cutting me." Both were arrested and charged with engaging in an affray where a deadly weapon was used.

The victim was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital for his wound and released to the cops.

SAYS HUBBY BEAT HER WITH WOOD

Mrs. Maggie Wiggins, of 315 Beauty Avenue (Joe Louis Park), told Officer R. E. Lee at 9 p. m. Sunday, her husband, Ruel Wiggins, 46, "hit me on the arm with a piece of wood."

The complainant signed a warrant and her mate was hauled off to jail and charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

MAN SHOT IN HEAD, LIVES

Henry Davis, 40, of 265 1-2 Cuba Street, reported to Officer W. E. Kidd at 5:14 a. m. Saturday, he was sitting in Edna's All-Night Cafe, 213 W. South Street, when he heard a shot and felt a sting on his head. He said he then went home and called an ambulance.

At Wake Memorial, he stated that he did not know who shot him, adding, "I wasn't in an argument."

He did however, recall seeing Jack Morgan flashing a pistol before he was shot. Davis was treated at the hospital for a bullet wound on top of his head and released.

WAS TALKING TO THE "WRONG GIRL"

Graham Harris, 48, of 107 N. Fisher Street, told a cop at 12:55 a. m. Saturday, he was at 1320 Pender Street and "said something to a girl inside the house," but was quickly told by "Buddy" Hodge, of Zebulon, not to talk to this girl. Harris stated Hodge started "getting mad, so I got ready to leave."

"As I got to the back door," declared Harris, "Hodge hit me in the head with an axe."

Harris was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital, released, then he signed a warrant against Hodge, charging assault with a deadly weapon, but the cop was unable to locate him. Hodge reportedly stays at 1320 Pender Street almost every night.

BEATEN WITH PLANK, WOMAN SAYS

Mrs. Rosa Cora Boddie, 59, of 822 E. Hargett Street, told Officers Norman Artis and James E. (Bobby) Daye at 6:54 p. m. Saturday, that Otha [name obscured] of the same address, "beat me with a plank" because of a misunderstanding over some food.

Mrs. Boddie, who was beaten about the body, signed a warrant and Chavis was jailed and charged with assault with a deadly weapon. She did not require hospital treatment.

HUBBY THREATENS WIFE OVER MONEY

Mrs. Rosa Lee Bridges, 28, of 819 E. Hargett Street, informed an Officer at 6:12 p. m. Saturday, that she was with her husband, James Sylvester Bridges, 29, at the corner of S. Swain and E. Martin Streets and asked him for some money to buy groceries with.

Bridges allegedly "got mad" and pulled out a pistol, threatened to kill his wife, then fired a slug into the ground. She signed a warrant against him for assault with a deadly weapon.

HUBBY BEATS WIFE, SHE CUTS SELF

Mrs. Anna Laurie Goines, 27, of 1006 1-2 Manly Street, told Officer John Baker, Sr., at 4:03 p. m. Friday, her husband, Robert Goines, was beating her with his hands and fists, and she was trying to escape him through a window, knocked out a pane and cut her hand.

Mrs. Goines, who called "the law", was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital, then both she and her husband were arrested for engaging in an affray.

SEEN BOY STEALING SOCKS

C. G. Bullard, security officer at the K-Mart, 400 Six Forks Road, told Officer M. I. Stephenson at 4:10 p. m. Saturday, he saw Fletcher Howard Thorpe, 18, of 8 Smith Plaza (Chavis Heights) conceal a pair of black socks in his pants pocket.

Thorpe allegedly admitted the theft to the officer and a warrant was drawn, charging him with shoplifting, and Thorpe was placed in Wake County Jail.

The socks were valued at 69 cents.

CATCHES WOMAN STEALING COFFEE

Mark S. Johnson, an employee of Cottingham's Grocery, 421 S. Bloodworth Street, reported to Officer J. R. Munn, at 3:29 p. m. Saturday, he saw Miss Juanita Ellis, of 313 1-2 E. Worth Street, put a 2 ounce jar of instant Maxwell House coffee in her pocketbook, leave the store without paying for it and place the coffee in her car. The woman was jailed for larceny on a warrant signed by Mr. Johnson.

STRUCK IN FACE AT CLUB 54

Miss Linda Simms, of 412 E. Hargett Street, came to the police station at 1:45 a. m. Tuesday and informed Officer L. A. O'Neal that James Edward Williams, of D-21 Washington Terrace, struck her in the face after an argument at the Club 54, corner of S. Bloodworth and E. Davie Streets.

She signed a warrant against Williams, charging assault and battery.

If adults set youth the proper example, it might be possible for young people to follow their lead. Most of us approve laws that benefit us and disapprove those that restrict our activities or profits.

GREAT POWER OF FAMOUS FORTUNE TELLER

BY WALTER C. ROBINSON, Editor The Chatahooga Observer

Have you ever wondered about those who are gifted by God to see into the future and able to work miracles on earth through God? When I think of one man I do not think that prophecy ended with the bible. Through faith and power of God this man—according to their statements—has restored the sight of Mary E. King, Flint, Mich., and Cleve Gorman, Chattanooga, Tenn., when they were blind.

This man has helped thousands who came from near and far with every kind of problem. Word of mouth has spread untold praise of this remarkable man. People come with heavy hearts and leave filled with joy and hope and new faith in their future.

Husbands and wives have been brought back home, and a sweetheart was brought back even from Canada through the strange power of this gifted man. I know of a man who spent a great deal of time to help to bring his wife back. In despair he came to Doc Anderson, I am told you must see him in who got results in one day. I smile when I think of the man who came to Doc Anderson to help find his unfaithful wife. Doc told him where to find her and was he surprised! Older men and women tell and marvel at the way he has restored their nature.

This unusual man—through his mysterious gifts dating back to his boyhood—has pointed out stolen and hidden money—$1600—after everybody else failed. The success of his financial blessings is known all over the world.

His famous predictions mentioned in "Meet the Press" Program September 30, 1966. It is wonderful how he tells your past, present and future without you saying a word. This remarkable man has a drawer full of unsolicited letters from grateful people testifying to their peace of mind, happiness and financial success. Most of them ended with wishes of God's blessings for Doc Anderson.

I could write for hours about his wonderful works and gifted power, but maybe you would like to see him yourself, so you may write: DOC R. C. ANDERSON, 302 W. Gordon Ave., Rossville, Ga., for information about his work or a phone 891-1091 if you wish to make a date to see him in person. I am told you must see him in who got results in one day. I smile when I think of the man who came an area across town. When they reached the address she named, he pretended to back out, where upon the woman pulled a jackknife, held it to his throat and demanded his wallet. When she took $29 from it, he disclosed his identity and arrested her on suspicion of armed robbery and soliciting.

Pretending Prostitute Picks Cop; Is Nabbed

FLINT (UPI)—A female bandit who nailed her victim by pretending that she was a prostitute, picked the wrong man the other night. Her would-be victim turned out to be a city patrolman working in plain clothes.

The woman flagged him down as he stopped for a red light. She asked if he had $12 for a good time. When he said yes, she got into the car and directed him to
