STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF WAKE
IN THE SUPERIOR COURT
NOTICE OF SERVICE BY PUBLICATION
DOROTHY L. NEWMAN, Plaintiff vs.
ELTRO B. NEWMAN, Defendant

TO ELTRO B. NEWMAN, Defendant: Take notice that a pleading of Complaint seeking relief against you has been filed in the above entitled action and was filed in the Superior Court of Wake County on the 19th day of October, 1964.

The nature of the relief being sought is as follows:
You are sought as a divorcee absolute from Eltro B. Newman, defendant, upon the grounds that plaintiff and defendant have lived separate and apart more than two continuous years next preceding the institution of this action and that plaintiff and defendant are still living in the said state of separation.

You are required to answer or demur to the said Complaint of plaintiff not later than the 28 day of December, 1964, and upon your failure to do so the plaintiff seeking service against you will apply to the Court for the relief sought.

This 30 day of October, 1964.

Lord, accept our gratefulness.
As we pardon, Lord, forgive us;
Aid us under every load;
In Thy grace, O Lord, let live us
Guide us up Thy glory road.

"For sweet gains and bitter losses,
For great joy and deep distress;
For bright crowns beneath hard crosses,
That no sower shall be reaper
Of the fatal fruits of sin,
Thou, Our Maker, be our keep-
Through eternity. A men."

BY BLANCHE A. RIVERS
GIVE THANKS EVERY DAY

Many successful men and women claim that they are "self-made." But the fact is that no one reaches the pinnacle without help. Once a definite major goal for success has been set — and your first steps have been taken to reach that goal — you find yourself receiving help from many unexpected sources.

You must be prepared to give thanks for both the human and Divine help you receive.

Gratitude and graciousness are closely akin. Consciously developed gratitude enhances the personality. Never let a day pass without a few minutes spent in giving thanks for your blessings.

These phrases should be the most common in your daily usage. They are: "Thank You," "I'm Grateful," and "I appreciate..."

Be thoughtful. Try to find new and unique ways to express your gratitude. Not necessarily in material gifts, however. Time and effort are more precious, and the amount of these your dispense in showing gratefulness will be well worthwhile.

By all means be thankful to those who are closest to you—your wife or husband, other relatives, whom you are inclined to neglect because you are with them each day. You are probably more indebted to them than you realize.

Gratitude tends to take on new meaning—new life and power—when spoken aloud. Your family knows you are grateful for their faith and hope in you. But tell them so often. It will pay off, in spiritual assets.

Remember, there is always something to be thankful for. Even the prospect who turns down a salesman should be thanked for the time he spent listening. He will be more likely to buy next time.

Gratitude costs nothing. But it is a big investment in the future.

At Crosby School:

The Spirit Of Thanksgiving Experienced

The spirit of thanksgiving at the Crosby-Gerfield School is a real life experience. The hearts of more than two-dozen children have been made glad and their school performance has improved through the kindly acts of many local friends who have caught the real spirit of America's traditional Thanksgiving in their hearts.

The Rosebud Garden Club, the Parent Education Committee of the YWCA, the Links, Incorporated, and an anonymous donor have contributed funds for the school milk and lunch fund. One dedicated friend of children provided lunch for twenty pupils when the special turkey day meal was served in the school cafeteria.

Following in the noble footsteps of Governor Terry Sanford, "The Forgotten Children" are being remembered.

Mixed Chorus Of E. E. Smith Sings At FSC

FAYETTEVILLE—The mixed chorus of the E. E. Smith High School here presented a concert during the weekly assembly recently at Fayetteville State College.

Directed by Hubert E. Walters, the group rendered excerpts from the West Side Story.

Particularly pleasing to the audience was the presentation of Rogers and Hammerstein's "There is Nothing Like a Dame" by the Boys Glee Club.

Choral numbers and vocal solos by Kay Frances King and Edward Reid rounded out the program.

Accompanist for the chorus was Juan Hall and string bass for the West Side Story rendition was provided by Sgt. Art Alston of the 82nd Army Band at Fort Bragg.

WHILE WAITING for her mother in the beauty salon someone handed the little girl, of all things, a "True Confessions" magazine to help her while away the time.

DON'T SELL YOURSELF SHORT. DON'T BE A DROP OUT!

YOU ARE THE DETECTIVE
Wilford Stanton, one of the city's wealthiest men, lies dead on his living room floor, his skull horribly crushed. Next to his body lies the death weapon, a fire-place poker which you have checked and found clean of any fingerprints. You gaze across the luxuriously-furnished room at the two young men seated in two leather-upholstered chairs. "You two young men, of course, are prime suspects," you state.

"And why?" asks Dick Stanton, staring at you owlishly through his thick-lensed glasses.
"Because you both had a big motive—both of you nephews of Mr. Stanton, both of you heirs to a considerable fortune and with much to gain by his death. Could be one of you became much too impatient!"

The Veteran's Corner

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to some of the many current questions from former servicemen and their families. Further information on veterans benefits may be obtained at any VA office.

Q—My husband died as a result of injuries received in World War II. He obtained a GI loan during his life-time, which is now paid off. Am I, as his widow, also eligible for a loan?

A—Yes. Any widow of a World War II or Korean Conflict veteran may be eligible for a GI loan if the husband's death was service-connected. The fact that the veteran may have obtained a loan does not affect the widow's eligibility.

Q—I am a member of the police force, and I find that there are some restrictions in commercial life insurance policies because of this. Is this true also of my GI insurance?

A—The restrictions you mention are those imposed because law enforcement is considered a hazardous occupation. There are no such restrictions on GI insurance. The veteran may engage in any occupation, no matter how hazardous, without affect on the terms of the policy.

Q—I pay premiums on my GI insurance quarterly, and I am concerned because I have not received my premium due notice. I feel uneasy about waiting any longer to make this payment. Should I wait until I receive this notice?

A—By all means pay your premiums when they become due, even if you do not receive the premium due notice. Remember you have a 31-day grace period from the due date. Be certain to include your policy number
