

Aggies Rout Eagles, 26-0, In Annual Carolina Classic

10,000 See A&T Take 1st CIAA Grid Title Since '59

DURHAM—The North Carolina A&T Aggies turned two intercepted passes and two fumbles into touchdowns enroute to a 26-0 win over the North Carolina Eagles Thursday afternoon in the Annual Carolina Classic at the Durham County Memorial Stadium.

A capacity, cheering crowd of some 10,000 spectators saw Coach

Bert Piggett's Aggies assure themselves of their first CIAA football championship since 1959 with the win over the Eagles.

A&T capitalized on an Eagle miscue in the first quarter, two in the second period, and one in the last stanza or all of its scoring.

Alfred Maloney intercepted a William Reid pass at the A&T five yard line with about four minutes left in the initial quarter. NCC was penalized 15 yds. on the first play, but Melvin Phillips lost two yards on the next. Then All-CIAA quarterback Cornell Gordon threw a short pass to end Ronald Francis, who went down his left sideline 82 yards for the first score of the afternoon. Maloney added PAT from placement to give the Gate City charges a 7-0 lead.

In the third minute of the second stanza, Jerry McCullough recovered a fumble for A&T at the Eagles' 30. It took A&T five plays to score, with fullback Willie Beasley going over from the 11. Gordon's attempted run for the conversion was halted by the Eagles short of the goal, and the score stood 13-0.

Beasley picked off a Charles Nevels pass at the Durhamites' 24 yard line to set up the Aggies final tally before the intermission. In five plays, plus a 15-yard penalty against NCC for a personal foul, A&T hit paydirt again in the waning minutes of the half. Francis caught a six-yard scoring aerial from Gordon after the ball was deflected in the air. Maloney's kick for the conversion was wide to the right, and the Greensboro institution carried a 19-0 lead to the dressing room at halftime.

The third quarter was scoreless, with only one serious scoring threat. Ernest Buggs recovered a loose ball at the Eagles' 20 yard line late in the third quarter. The end of the period found the Aggies at NCC's two yard line. On the second play of the final quarter, Beasley cracked into the end zone from the one yard line. Maloney kicked the extra point from placement to climax the CIAA champions scoring for the afternoon.

North Carolina College's closest approach to the visitors' goal line came in the second quarter when the Bull City eleven marched down to the Aggies' 22 yard line but gave up the ball on downs at that point. This was the final game of the season for both clubs. A&T finished the year with a 6-2-1 conference record and 6-3-1 overall. The Eagles compiled a 4-3 overall record and a 2-5 league worksheet. This was only the second losing season for Coach Herman Riddick in the 19 years he has been head mentor at NCC.

Gordon, voted the "Most Outstanding Player" for A&T, completed eight of 17 passes for 119 yards, rushed for 47 yards in 10 carries, and intercepted one pass.

Tackle Staley Keith, playing his final game of his career for NCC along with six other members, was voted the Most Outstanding Player award for the Eagles.

Go To Church Sunday

KING GOING FOR FINAL TOUCHDOWN — Quarterback Sinclair King, left, of the Falcons goes over for the final Saint Augustine's score from 8 yards out after beautifully executing the "bootleg" play in last Thursday's game against the Shaw Bears. (See story).

Soprano, To Hampton

HAMPTON INSTITUTE, VA. — Miss Mattiwilda Dobbs, soprano, will be the third artist appearing on this year's Musical Arts Society's program at 8:15 p. m. Thursday, December 3, in Ogden Hall.

Miss Dobbs, the much loved American soprano, who has spun a trail of music glory literally throughout the world, was born in Atlanta, Georgia, the fifth of six greatly gifted daughters of a railway mail clerk. This modest but indomitable man somehow put all of his six girls through college, all with high degrees, and lived to see his favorite become a celebrated prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera.

Mattiwilda now divides her time between the United States and Europe, in somewhat of an international complex. She is married to a Swedish writer, has a home in Hamburg where she is the leading lyric coloratura soprano of the State Opera, and a villa on the romantic island of Majorca where she spends all of her summers.

IT'S A LONG WAY UP—New York: This little fellow obviously has no trouble looking up to his dad, but he does seem to have some difficulty wearing pop's basketball uniform. Pop is 6' 10" Willis Reed from Bernice, Louisiana, rookie center for the New York Knickerbockers basketball team, shown being reunited here Nov. 23rd with his 16-month-old son, Carl Vance, whom he hasn't seen for two months. (UPI PHOTO).

HAVING A BALL — Providence R. I. Hal Greer of the Philadelphia 76ers battles it out after a rebound battle with K. C. Jones of the Boston Celtics in their NBA basketball game Nov. 31st at the Rhode Island Auditorium. At right is Chet Walker of the 76ers. (UPI PHOTO).

John Thomas, U. S. High Jump Champ, Better After Operation

BOSTON (NPD) — U. S. High jump champion Jack Thomas of Boston last week was reported in "excellent condition" after undergoing a post-Olympic hernia operation at Massachusetts Memorial Hospital here.

He will be sidelined for from four to six months, according to his physician, Dr. Chester W. Howe, who performed the operation. Thomas won a silver medal by placing second in the high jump event, won by a Russian, in the Olympic Games in Tokyo last month. He had postponed the surgery so he could compete in the Olympics.

Thomas was the second big name athlete to be victimized by hernia recently. The other was heavyweight champion Cassius Clay, who was forced to postpone indefinitely his scheduled championship rematch with Sonny Liston, because of the surgery.

Get 13-6 Win:

VSC Trojans Stage Upset Over Morgan

PETERSBURG, Va.—Lin Hart and Eddie Golder, imports from Baltimore, played poor hosts to visitors from their hometown, as Virginia State handed Morgan State its second loss, 13-6, in a surprising upset on Thanksgiving Day.

Golder threw his 13th and 14th touchdown passes to lead the Trojans to a 6-2 record their best since 1952 when they were CIAA champs.

Morgan completed its season with seven wins and two losses.

Split end Hart took Golder's 7-yard pass in the end zone to eliminate a ferocious field-length drive which began when Mel Swann intercepted an errant Morgan pass on the VSC 10 and returned to the 38.

Swann's timely pluck of Gil Moore's fourth down aerial was the prelude to a drive which took only seven plays. Key plays included Golder's 12 and 14 yard passes to Harry Sharper and Swann, and Golder's 15-yard run. Hart added the extra-point from placement.

The tally came with only 23 seconds showing on the clock before halftime. Al Mitchell, champion Boston Celtics, paced by ace pivotman Bill Russell, were losing their third straight game. They bowed to the Baltimore Bullets, 102-99.

The Celtics had previously won 11 straight games.

SHOOTING WILT — New York: Seven-foot-one-inch Wilt Chamberlain of San Francisco flies to the basket to score two points in Nov. 24th game against New York at Madison Square Garden. Knicks' Willie Reed scored 25 points to lead New York, 101-93, over the Warriors. (UPI PHOTO).

Bears flankerback received Gil Moore's pass inside Virginia territory near midfield and out-manuevered several defenders on a scoring play that covered 46 yards.

Wilbur Robinson's kick for the extra point was short.

Virginia State retaliated midway the third stanza when quarterback Ed Golder heaved a 54-yard touchdown aerial of fresh end Harry Sharper.

Morgan's solid defensive unit blocked Hart's conversion attempt which would have given the Trojans a one-point advantage.

Early in the game, V-State stooped Morgan's drive after the Bears had penetrated to the Trojans' 10. A 15-yard penalty forced Morgan's unsuccessful field goal attempt from the 24.

Morgan went to the VSC 10 on the next series after Clarence Scott recovered Mel Swann's fumble on State's 15.

On the visitors' third play, Ron Deskins fumbled on Virginia's 10 to end the threat.

LINCOLN THEATRE
RALEIGH, N. C.
STARTS SUNDAY, DECEMBER 6TH
"YESTERDAY, TODAY and TOMORROW"
Starring SOPHIA LOREN
—Plus—
"BLACK GOLD"
Starring PHILIP CAREY
STARTS THURSDAY, DECEMBER 10TH
"THE WESTERNERS"
Starring JAMES PHILBROOK
—Plus—
"NIGHT TIDE"

Wilt Snares His 10,000th Rebound

SAN FRANCISCO (NPD) — Wilt Chamberlain, the National Basketball Assn. perennial scoring champion, set another league record here last week, as he snared his 10,000th rebound while scoring 45 points for the San Francisco Warriors in a game against the Cincinnati Royals and Oscar Robertson.

Chamberlain has been setting scoring records since entering the league.

Despite Chamberlain's feats, however, the Warriors went down to a 114-108 defeat at the hands of the Robertson-led Royals. Oscar scored 33 points. Meanwhile, on the East Coast, the

REAL GUSTO
IN A GREAT LIGHT BEER

Distributed in Raleigh by
FISHER WHOLESALE CO., INC.

FUEL OIL
KEROSENE
Dispatched By 2-Way Radio
For Quicker Delivery
On Ticket Printed Meter Trucks

DIAL
TE 2-4474
24-HOUR SERVICE
Nights, Sundays & Holidays

WHITES OIL CO., INC.
1115 W. Lenoir

JIM BEAM
JIM BEAM

Kentucky
Straight
Bourbon
Whiskey
86 proof

$2.65
Pint
$4.20
4/5 Quart

JAMES B. BEAM DISTILLING CO.,
CLERMONT, BEAM, KENTUCKY

BOY'S SHOE
SALE
We Are Closing Out
Our Boy's Shoe Dept.

ENTIRE STOCK
GOING AT A SACRIFICE
PRICE!

All Sizes and Widths Up to Size 3
Loafers and Arch Type Included
ORIGINALLY PRICED TO 8.95
Now All One Price
$4.85

Edwards'
131 Fayetteville St. TE 2-3621

A&T's GORDON ON THE MOVE — Cornell Gordon (11), North Carolina A&T quarterback, tries to evade North Carolina College's Leroy Thorne (80) in Thursday's Carolina Classic, won by the A&T Aggies 26-0 before a crowd of 10,000 at Durham's County Stadium. Triple-threat Gordon, the game's star individual performer, engineered four TD's, two by passes, in the CIAA championship win for the Aggies.