TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELL R. STAM, PRES. URBAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO 34, ILLINOIS

THE CAPTAIN OF OUR SALVATION

Years ago, a man of God was asked to preach at the funeral of a young soldier whose parents were unsaved.

During the course of his message the preacher sought to impress upon his hearers the basic fact that "the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Rom. 6:23). This greatly upset the parents. After the service they complained: "This is embarrassing. Our boy was not a sinner."

The truth was that shortly before his death this young man had done what every true, born-again Christian has done. He acknowledged himself to be a lost sinner and, trusting Christ as his Savior, had been so gloriously saved that his parents were mystified that he could be so happy in the face of death.

The simplest believer in Christ understands all this. He knows that for the "old man" the death of the body is indeed a "dishonorable discharge" for laws broken, orders disobeyed, responsibilities unmet and trusts betrayed. But for the "new man" the death of the body is the vestibule through which he is ushered into the blessed presence of "the Captain of our Salvation," the One who "by the grace of God tasted death for every man" that He might "bring many sons to glory" (See Heb. 2:9, 10).

This is why we read in Heb. 2:14, 15: "Forasmuch, then, as the children (of Adam) were partakers of flesh and blood, He (Christ) also Himself likewise took part of the same; that through death He might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; "And deliver those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage."

No wonder St. Paul's simple message of salvation was "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31).

For Professor: Picketing, Sit-In Win Apartment

ISLIP, N. Y.—Picketing of Lakecrest Garden Apartments bolstered with a sit-in at the rental office by Suffolk CORE Chairman Henry Smith and two CORE members, won for Mrs. Sylvia Martin and her family the 4 1-2 room apartment of her choice. Mrs. Martin is a professor of nursing at the New York State Agricultural and Technical Institute at Farmingdale. She has a 22-month-old son. Her husband is a New York municipal employee.

Mrs. Martin had made a $30 deposit on the apartment in September but after a month elapsed without word from the realtor, she appealed to CORE and filed a complaint with the State Human Rights Commission.

A CORE deputation met with Jack Hudson, the manager, who said the matter had been turned over to the building's owner, Brown-Turner, Inc. in New York City. Thereupon, CORE picketed that office. At one point, the realtor offered Mrs. Martin a smaller apartment on the pretext that the family's financial status was insufficient for a larger one.

But CORE spokesmen were able to show that white families with incomes no bigger than the Martin's were occupying 4 1-2-room apartments. Finally, the management relented and, at a conference at the Mineola office of the State Human Rights Commission, agreed to rent the Martins the 4 1-2-room apartment.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

BY COLIN DOUGLAS

"Whoever trusteth in Jehovah, happy is he." Prov. 16:20.

Perhaps you've heard an unmarried woman say, "If I had a more companionable, I should be happy." You may have heard a wife say, "If my husband were more companionable, I should be happy." You undoubtedly have heard a man say, "If I had more money, I'd be happy." And you've heard a child say, "If I had a bicycle, I'd be happy."

It is true that the things we have, the companions that walk beside us, the emotional and financial status of our life all have a part in creating our happiness. But happiness is not really the product of any of these things. Happiness is ever the product of the heart. Happiness flowers in the heart of the person who knows himself to be a beloved child of the one Father, with a special mission in life—who knows that wherever he is, with whomsoever he is, he has something to give, something to gain. The person who has a happy, giving heart gathers to himself persons and circumstances that fill his life with joy and satisfaction.

We do not have to look abroad for happiness, because happiness is right here at hand... within each one of us. The happiest people are those who give of themselves and their time freely, gladly, without reservation. If your life seems lonely or unhappy or purposeless, perhaps it is an indication that you need to express more of your God-given talents and abilities, that you need to give more of yourself to life, to the work you are doing, to the people about you.

Each day turn to God in prayer and think of His love as flowing through you and from you to bless all with whom you come into contact. Think of His love as an attracting power for good and for happiness in your life.

"Make a joyful noise." — Psalms 98:8.

With Faith... You Are Never Alone Attend Church Regularly

CLOTHED FOR COMFORT

The north wind strikes, and the blizzard howls. We clothe ourselves for maximum warmth and comfort from the cold... for an all encompassing comfort, put on the Lord's mantle.

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
