

THE CRIME BEAT

BY CHARLES R. JONES

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

SAYS MATE ASSAULTED HER WITH AXE

Mrs. Catherine Harris, 36, of 1708 E. Edenton Street, reported to Officer O. C. Pratt at 10 p. m. Wednesday, that her husband, Joseph Harris, of the same address, assaulted her with an axe.

The complaint came to police headquarters and signed a warrant, charging Harris with assault with a deadly weapon. He was jailed under $100 bond.

THINKS KIDS BROKE OUT PANE

Miss Arzatha Brown, 22, of 120 N. Fisher Street, informed Officer Norman Artis at 8 p. m. Wednesday, she was in the middle room of her house when someone threw a rock at her front door, breaking out the large pane.

Mrs. Brown added, when she went to the door, she saw two young boys, about 12 years old, running across Fisher Street. She said she had never had any trouble with small children.

Damage to the door was set at $5.

CATCHES THIEF AT WORK

James Hayes, an employee of Cunningham's Grocery, 431 S. Bloodworth Street, told a cop at 4:30 p. m. Thursday, he caught Floyd Scott, 33, of 220 N. Davis Street, as Scott was leaving the store with a can of corn beef hash and one pound of cheese concealed in his coat.

Hayes said he was checking out at the counter at the time, but went outside and asked Scott to return to the establishment. Scott returned, took the merchandise from his coat and placed them on the counter.

Scott was arrested for shoplifting. The stolen items cost $6 cents.

"SLICE" CROOK STEALS SHIRTS

William Holden, owner of Holden's Cleaners, 702 E. Martin Street, informed Officers F. C. Gregory and E. L. Randolph at 7 a. m. Thursday, someone broke out the rear window in his establishment and used a long stick to reach in and "slice" 2 or 4 white men's shirts from the laundry. He valued the missing items at $10.

WOMAN STABS MATE; ALLEGEDLY SEPARATED

Mrs. Marie Bullock, 30, of 1212 Holman Street, told Officer J. L. Deaton at 1:05 a. m. Friday, that she went to the Club 54, corner of S. Bloodworth and E. Davis Sts., where she found her husband, John Thomas Bullock, 24, from whom she was allegedly separated, sitting in a booth with another woman.

Mrs. Bullock claimed she called her spouse outside, where she said, an argument broke out, and he reportedly cut her on the left hand, "and I stabbed him in the chest with a knife."

They were taken to Wake Memorial Hospital for treatment. She was later released, but Bullock was still in the hospital as late as Monday of this week.

Warrants have been signed, charging both with assault with a deadly weapon.

SAYS DOGS ASSAULTED HER

Miss Rose Whitley, 25, of 301 1-2 E. Hayward Street, informed Officer Victor B. Spencer at 10 a. m. Thursday, that William Black, 27, a native of Charlotte, who rooms with her when he is in Raleigh, "beat me up" Thursday morning following a disagreement. A warrant is now on file for

Black's arrest

UNWANTED "GUEST" BREAKS UP HOME

Miss Ella Fowler, of 248 E. Hargett Street, Apt. 7, told Officer B. C. Nipper at 8:30 p. m. Thursday, that Paul Atkins, was at her apartment and she asked him to leave. The complainant stated Atkins "got mad and started to damage my furniture." He broke down a screen door, a lamp and other items of furniture, then departed, she declared.

The woman said Atkins lives at 1204 E. Hargett Street. She signed a warrant, charging him with damage to property.

HELD FOR BEATING WIFE

Mrs. Nina Kearney, 22, of 1111 Walnut Street, told Officer R. E. Lee at 3:15 a. m. Sunday, that her husband, Calvin Kearney, 25, hit her with his hands and fists.

Mrs. Kearney signed a warrant and Kearney was picked up by Officers John Baker, Sr. and Otto Hinton, Jr., and charged with assault and battery.

SPENT "TOO MUCH TIME AT CLEANERS"

George Bryant, 41, of 1207 E. Edenton Street, reported to a cop at 1:55 p. m. Sunday, Miss Patricia Banks, 38, of 362 Rock Quarry Road, "cut me with a knife for no reason."

However, Miss Banks had a different story to tell: She claimed Bryant slapped her because "I took too long to put some clothes in the cleaners."

Both were arrested for engaging in an affray where a deadly weapon was used. Bryant received treatment at Wake Memorial Hospital, where his wound required 8 stitches. The incident took place at 303 Rock Quarry Road.

GOES TO "UNKNOWN" HOUSE TO MEET STRANGE WOMAN

George Ramsey, 46, of 554 E. Hargett Street, told two cops at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, he went to "a house unknown to me to spend the night with a lady companion, whose name I didn't know."

Ramsey added, "While I was inside the house, another man came in and asked me what I was doing there. Then he started slicing at me with a knife or razor blade."

The complainant stated he left the house and walked for about 5 minutes before he saw someone and told them he had been out. He was treated at the hospital for lacerations of her ear and back of his head.

This occurred at the intersection of Oakwood and Seawall Avenues.

HIT ON HEAD, BEATEN AT HOME

Miss Mozell McDougald, 36, of 219 Fowls Street, reported to the law at 2:42 p. m. Saturday, that Inel Judd, 1104 Mark Street, came to her house, got into an argument with her, began beating her on the head with a bottle, and concluded the whipping by hitting her with his hands and fists, and finally kicking her in the face.

The woman said she would sign a warrant against Judd for assault with a deadly weapon.

SHOTGUN BUTT FELS WOMAN

Miss Marie Person, 37, of 708 E. McDowell Street, informed Officer Joseph Winters at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, that Billy Hill hit her in the lower right chest with a shotgun in the 300 block of Fowls street.

Miss Person was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital for her bruise and said she would come to the station to sign a warrant later.

BREAKS UP KITCHEN TABLE

Miss Annie Williams, 26, of 430 Patterson Lane, informed Officer J. G. Barbour at 11:01 p. m. Friday, that Richard Cooper, 47, of 331 E. Martin Street, came to her house, took an axe and started swinging it at her boyfriend, Daniel Boone Sampson, 23, of the Patterson Lane address.

She declared that while swinging the axe, at Sampson, Cooper "busted the kitchen table, two chairs, three windows and knocked a hole in the floor."

Two warrants, damage to property and assault with a deadly weapon were drawn against Cooper. They are now on file.

STABBED IN LEG AT CLUB 54

Edward Short, 26, of 702 East Edenton Street, told Officer E. B. Callahan at 1:30 a. m. Saturday, he was in the Club 54, corner of S. Bloodworth and East Davis Streets, when he was cut on the leg.

Short stated he did not know who cut him or at what time it took place. He was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital for a puncture wound in his left knee.

AUTO GLASS SHATTERED

Mrs. Mary Young, 36, of 574 E. Cabarrus Street, informed Officer W. E. Kidd at 7:45 a. m. Saturday, that she discovered the left front glass in her 1939 Ford broken. She stated the glass was intact as late as 11 p. m. Friday.

The cop surmised that the glass appeared to have been broken by someone kicking it out with the heel of a shoe, rather than by throwing a brick.

Mrs. Young said she did not hear anyone around her car Friday night.

REAR WINDOW OF FALCON BROKEN

Miss Jo Anna Williams, 24, of 1613 Alston Street, reported to Officers W. L. Carter at 8:35 p. m. Friday, that sometime during the night, the rear window of a 1934 Ford Falcon was broken out.

The complainant, who placed the damage at about $30, admitted the auto belongs to her boyfriend, Jas. E. Austin, Jr., who is stationed at Fort Bragg.

BREAKS IN; STEALS ONE PACK OF CIGARETTES

Mrs. Alecia Mitchell, 40, of 24 Lincoln Terrace, told Officer Joseph Winters at 10:11 p. m. Sunday, someone entered her apartment while she was away, by reaching through the window opening and unlocking the kitchen door.

Mitchell was a 20 cent pack of cigarettes.

ANOTHER WINDOW BROKEN

Sam Evans, 65, of 294 1-2 Fayetteville Street, informed Officer James E. (Bobby) Daye at 7:17 a. m. Monday, that someone broke out his kitchen window pane sometime late Sunday, after 3 p. m.

Mr. Evans said he did not see or hear anyone in his yard when the offense occurred.

The officer found a small lead ball on the floor of Evans' kitchen and theorized the missile was thrown, rather than shot from a gun, into the kitchen. Damage was set at $5.

Richard B. Harrison Library Releases Christmas Booklist

CHRISTMAS BOOK LIST

EDITOR'S NOTE: Following is a list of several books now available to the general public at the Richard B. Harrison Library.

The Abbott Christmas Book, edited by Herbert W. Luthin. Here in this volume is the spirit of an American Christmas expressed in entertaining prose, memorable poetry, and stunning pictures. A delightful book.

Anahel and the Night Visitors, by Gian Carlo Menotti. The story of a crippled shepherd boy who entertained the Wise Men on their way to Bethlehem. Ages 9-12.

Christmas Gift, compiled by Charlene Rollins. An anthology of Christmas poems, songs, stories and even recipes written by and about Negroes. This book is for people of all ages, for families to read together and enjoy.

Christmas Gift, by Frances Farinon Keys. The author says this is a book that was written to be shared: it is a greeting, a remembrance, a gift of warmth and tenderness and of human faith and generosity.

Christmas Magic, by Margaret Perry. Over two hundred photos and drawings illustrate these easy-to-follow directions for making scores of Christmas decorations and ornaments out of materials that you can find around the house.

Eleanor Roosevelt's Christmas Book: Mrs. Roosevelt has collected her favorites and added her own contributions. There are stories, essays and verses, old and new and they come from many lands where Christmas is celebrated. A good book for enriching the season.

The Joy of Christmas, edited by Llewellyn Miller. Ever since St. Luke told the story of that first Christmas so long ago, the most joyous and holy season of the year has not passed without a tribute of song and story, poem and play, reflecting the various attitudes of people throughout the world.

Lauren Ford's Christmas Book: This is a precious collection of twenty-four Nativity scenes, painted with reverence and affection by this outstanding American artist and reproduced superbly in full color. The author, a Swiss psychiatrist, takes the concept of giving and looks at it from many perspectives. He explores the interpersonal relationships that exist between those who give and those who receive.

Memory of a Large Christmas, by Lillian Smith: Lillian Smith, author of Strange Fruit, has recorded of a colorful story of her memories of Christmas as she knew it in childhood.

The Untold Adventures of Santa Claus, by Ogden Nash; and The Year Santa Went Modern, by Richard Armour: In the Untold Adventures of Santa Claus, one of Santa's workmen tells 3 tales on his boss. Ages 6 up.

The Year Santa Went Modern: Santa becomes disconcerted with his old fashioned self and elicits. He tries to become modern with hilarious results. Ages 4 to 6.

The Youngest Shepherd, by Hal Borland: This beautiful story of a boy, an old man and a bird on the first Christmas Eve is a new expression of the triumphant joy and wonder of the Nativity.

NEW! EASIER TO OPEN

Carnation with the exclusive new SURE-GRIP RIM

This new rim holds any ordinary beverage opener snugly to prevent slipping...pours easier, too—it's "the milk from Contented Cows"

B.F. Goodrich

Still Has A Complete Line Of

AND WHEEL GOODS

At CLOSE-OUT PRICES

OPEN THURS.—FRI. NIGHT
TILL 9 O'CLOCK

PLENTY OF FREE OFF-STREET PARKING

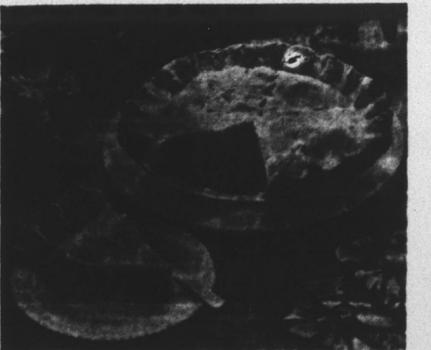

417 S. McDowell Street

Phone TE 3-3331

GARNATION COOKING HINTS
By Mary Blake
HOME SERVICE DIRECTOR AND HER STAFF

Apple Mincement Pie—the perfect ending for your Thanksgiving dinner! The rich filling is moist and flavorful because it's made with double-rich Carnation Evaporated Milk. Remember, Carnation can be used for all your cooking needs. Keep the familiar red and white cans with the "SURE-GRIP" rim handy. Use them often—it's so easy now!

APPLE MINCEMENT PIE
(Makes 8-inch pie)

Pastry for two crust 8-inch pie	2 tablespoons sugar
1 cup mincement	1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1 1/2 cups dried peeled baking apples	1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup seedless raisins	1/4 teaspoon ground cardamom
1 tablespoon lemon juice	1/2 cup (small can)
2 tablespoons evaporated milk	undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK

Line 8-inch pie plate with bottom pastry crust; roll out top crust. Combine mincement, apples, raisins and lemon juice. Coat with mixture of cardamom, sugar, cinnamon, salt and cardamom. Add Carnation. Stir until well blended. Spoon into lined 8-inch pie plate. Top with crust. With tip of knife, make steam vents in top crust. Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) for 40 minutes. Serve warm.