OBITUARY.

DIED .-- About 8 o'clock on the 14th of February, 1874-our beloved brother, Thomas Oakes, in the seventy-ninth year of his age. The subject of this memoir was a faithful member and deacon of Upper Banister Church. He was confined to his house nearly twelve months with dropsy, in which time he was visited and attended to by many of his friends | County. and brethren who will bear testimony that he hore his affliction with uncommon fortitude to the last, and was perfectly sensible in one minuse of his death-often desiring to finish his troubles here that he might be at rest. He has left three daughters and one son to mourn sheir loss. The writer of this attended his suncral and burial, and tried to preach from Job 7: 1, 2, 3-"Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth ?" &c. The congregation was serious and attentive, and if we may judge from his exemplary life-may we County. bot say, truly our loss is his eternal gain ?-His favorite hymn was:

Zion's Landmarks.

I did, but he was not able to talk much. I will here state about what he said : "Brother D. I am glad to see you, would be glad if it was God's will to hear you preach again, but $2 00 the will of the Lora must be done. I want ugh County. 2 00 you to write my obituary for ZION'S LAND-MARKS. I want you to defend the Old Bap-2 60 tists, for theirs is about all the doctrine that is 2 00 worth defending. Death is so different from County. 2 00 what I always thought it would be. I have all the while thought that I would have fears, but I have none at all." These were some of
