For Associate Justice Supreme Court: [Under Amendment to the Constitution.]

JAMES E. SHEPHERD, of Beaufort.

ALPHONSO C. AVERY, of Burke.

8th District,
WILLIAM H. H. COWLES, of Wilkes.

Gen. Terry, of Wytheville, Va., one of the leading lawyers of that State, was draw-ed last week while going home from Grayson court.

Mr. Adams comes before the people of Watauga as the choice of the Democratic party. Mr. Crisp comes before them as the choice of a small part of the Republican party.

Col. Dockery, who voted for a negro lawyer rather than a white farmer, for the Legislature, in 1884, was got tired of the joint discussion.
He don't like the way Fowle handles him. He prefers to go alone. We don't much blame him, we rather think we would be like him. If we had such a record as Dockery, we would not favor a joint canvass with any body, and certainly not with Judge Fowle.

disregarded. Mr. Adams will indeed have easy sailing.

Dr. Robey Against the Third Party.

Some days ago Rev. Dr.
Robey, a prominent and able Methodist preacher in Goldsboro, spoke in Durham in favor of Prohibition. His speech, incorrectly reported was published without his consent. As published, his speech made him take ground that the Methodist Church in N. C. was committed to the Third Party. Such a position did so great violence to the position of the Church upon this question that Methodists all over the State hastened to take the issue with Dr. Robey. The Spirit of the Age, clearly and strongly answered Dr. Robey's supposed position.

The CHRONICLE is glad to know Dr. Robey was misrepresented and that he is really AGAINST the third party although strongly in favor of a prohibition party if the conditions were favorable.
The reasons why he cannot vote for Walker and the other Third party men he gives are every honest Prohibitionist in the South ought to be influenced by the same reasons. Dr. Robey says:

"The condition of our State and, indeed, of the entire South, is such, politically, that I cannot vote the Third Party ticket. Nor have I ever advised any one else to do so. I sympathize profoundly with the object which the Third Party people have in view, and I wish that I could help them, but I cannot without POSSIBLY HELPING ANOTHER RESULT
WHICH WOULD BE A GREATER CALAMITY THAN THE BAR-ROOM. [This means Radical success.—EDITOR.] Like many another true prohibitionist I have tried, over and over, to find a way around the impassable barrier that hinders the Southern people from rising in their might and sweeping the rum-curse from their fair land, but I cannot find it yet. I can only wait and do my duty as best I may along with the great mass of Southern prohibitionists till the time comes, as I pray it may, when, with safety to the best interest of our sunny land, we may throw ourselves into the thickest of the fight and march to victory with those who now constitute the advance-guard of the column."
—State Chronicle.

Moretz Mills, N. C.
Sept. 15 88,

Mr. Editor: I take the pleasure of writing to your valuable paper. We Democrats of Meat Camp township have organized a Cleveland and Fowle club at Soda Hill, and will meet again Sep. 22, we hope that all patriotic Democrats will be out and show they are for the white man's party. The good people of Meat Camp don't propose being ruled by the kinkey head or Republican party. It is hard to distinguish a white Republican from a negro as they all have the same smell.
I don't think they will smell so loud after the election, for the Democrats will bury them so deep that they will never be heard of again. I saw in "Bingham's Bastard" a piece from Stony Fork, about the Democratic party being the "negro party." I think if he will look around at the party to which he belongs he will not throw up negro to the white men's party. He said there was a negro woman who had five sons and she said that they were all republicans and that white republicans were their fathers. I would like to know who this namb skull is. I want him to crawl off in some desolate place and stay until he learns who the white man's party is, and then come out and join the Camp of Israel or the democratic party, and be saved with the rest of us democrats, before it is finally too late.

Married at the brides father-Sept. 6 inst. Mr. A. L. Mc-Galliard of Caldwell Co. to Miss Dora E. Moretz, of Gap Creek. Mr. L. H. Michael, J. P. officiating. They left for Caldwell Sept. 12th, where they will make their future home. We extend to them our best wishes. Success to the DEMOCRAT.

M. M. C. Walls.
The Teacher's Institute.

This body was not so largely attended as I hoped it would be, but the weather was extremely wet, and some of the teachers were sick, while some were teaching, and some did not care to come. Everything considered, the institute was a fair success. Of actual teachers and those preparing to teach twenty were enrolled. So far as I have heard expressions those present were benefited.
Prof. Spainhour did good work. Some time was devoted to all the common school branches as well as methods and school government.
Friday was examination day. Thirteen stood a written examination, having only one hour or less, in which to answer the questions on any one branch. Out of this number only two failed to obtain certificates. Seven first and five second grade certificates were issued. In this connection I wish to call the attention of those teachers who are doubting the power of the Board of Education to regulate teacher's salaries. On page 33 of school law, and in comments by state Supt. you may find this language, "The board can give general directions relative to the employment of teachers—prices to be paid &c." The law makes it the duty of the board to accept the construction placed upon the law by state Supt.
Now if any one wishes to quarrel, he will please pitch into the state Supt.
