

"Observer" Speaks Again.

Editor Democrat:

The wonderful growth and development of the United States in the arts and sciences, in population and wealth and power, causes her to-day to stand as a beacon to the benighted and oppressed of all nations in all climes...

It is amusing to see the army of hungry office-seekers. Their name is legion. But poor fellows, only about 180,000 will get to suck the government teats...

While our grand republic has grown as it were from infancy to full manhood in population, wealth and power, it has also grown or so fostered its wards by class legislation...

Sanford Express: Mr. Cleveland is still surprising the country. One of his latest announcements is that no one who held office during his former administration will be given office again...

These patriots will take their place. But as the democrats have the House, Senate and President, let us exercise living faith in the administration of the next four years...

From Garfield Washington.

J. D. Watkins, Blakely Ga. writes: "Old sores covered my entire person and itched intensely night and day. For several months I could not work at all. I commenced the use of Botanic Blood Balm and commenced to grow better the first week...

Editor Democrat:

Thinking perhaps a few lines from Washington would be interesting to some of the readers of the DEMOCRAT, I concluded to write.

We have had about four feet of snow this winter. There has not been more than eighteen inches at one time on the ground. We are having a late spring.

The legislature of Washington spent sixty days trying to elect a Senator but failed. The State was out seventy thousand dollars.

Mrs. Louisa Miller was visiting with us last week. L. C. Miller has finished a well on his ranch which is ninety feet deep.

I thought I would name all the business houses in Garfield but there are too many. I will give my ideas as to who should leave Watauga and come west.

I would like to see more items from Watauga in the DEMOCRAT. Send in the news and let us hear from you and help the DEMOCRAT that it may grow to be as big as its Editor.

Success to the DEMOCRAT. HIRAM GRAGG.

then refuses to recognize efficiency and experience or by his act acknowledges that his former appointments were failures. If we understand the Civil Service Law Mr. Cleveland's course is purely antagonistic to it.
