THURSDAY, June 15, 1899.

Mrs. M. V. Moore, who will be remembered as "Betsy Hamilton," entertained an appreciative audience at the Y. M. C. A Hall in Gastonia on last Friday night. The Gazette says she is a sweet, modest, southern gentlewoman and in genuine sympathy with the people whom she portrays so vividly and truly. She is now the only perfect delineator of the old time Southern darkey. She rendered five original recitations, much to the delight of the audience.
