Why Abuse Your Watch

You do not run your buggy, sewing machine or other machinery till it squeaks and grinds and cuts itself to pieces. You clean and oil it often. You should be as careful with your watch. It is small and cannot squeak loud when it is dry and needs oiling. You may not know it till the watch is completely ruined and stops. Bring your watch to me I will show you and explain the exact condition. Take proper care of your watch and it will last you a life time. Consult me on watch Diseases.

Yours Very Truly,

S. M. GREENE, Jeweler.

"MOUNTAIN MOUNTAINS"

Editor Wash. H. Thorne of the Charlotte Evening Herald in one of the most sensible articles which I have ever read in any paper has written up for his readers under the above title, from which we take the following extracts:

"Tourist fishing around Linville is not a myth. Anybody who can cast a line into lake or stream can catch a trout. The fish are there and the secret of it is in the Linville Imp. runs vent. Can any keep a lake and stream well stocked. On its territory, the trout may be caught in a fly hatchery from which thousands of rainbow trout are continuously shipped to the waters of the Linville system. It has a few fish in its lake, such as bass, trout, etc. and such as carp, goldfish, etc. etc.

"An institution of such interest at Linville is the Highland Nursery, owned by Mr. H. P. Kelley. He cultivates all the mountain plants and trees, and sells them mainly to city parks and private estates. He has just filed one order for $1,000 worth of various trees, shrubs and plants. Some of the orders of New York are accompanied with masses of checks, included by his nursery.

"Roone is the highest county southeast of the Rocky M. mountains. In my opinion to R. we will have to use the word 'phantom' to designate it. It reminds one of a great auditorium with a bank of mountains and with the center house as the stage. The 'phantom' is the town that has no one there. The town is a beautiful one. It is in every way a beautiful one. It is in every way a beautiful one.
