Resolutions of Respect.

At 5 o'clock, p. m., March 24, 1913, our beloved brother, Rev. J. W. Trivett, departed this life, he having been afflicted for some years, and the last three weeks of his life was helpless, and he suffered intensely, seeming to realize that the Great Physician was very near. And when the Master saw that he had suffered enough, He beckoned him to come up higher, he fell peacefully asleep to rest until the morn, when we shall all come forth to see him as he is.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep; From which none ever wake to weep, A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the last of foes."

Brother Trivett was about 56 years old; had for a long time been a consistent member of Beech Mountain Baptist church, and for several years was an ordained minister. He was also a member of the Masonic Fraternity, and was buried with Masonic honors on Wednesday, March 26, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends.

He is survived by five children, three sons and two daughters, his wife and two children having preceded him across the river. He is also survived by an aged father and mother. To them all we would say; "Weep not, he is not dead but sleepeth." Only passed beyond the surging tide out of reach of sickness, pain and death, and if we will only live faithful to Him who doeth all things well, we shall meet him again in the sweet by and by. Therefore, be it

Resolved, first, That whereas it has pleased God in His infinite love and wisdom, to take from us our beloved brother; that we bow in humble submission to His divine will, realizing that our loss is his eternal gain, and that when the great Grand Master of the universe shall call us all forth we shall see them again; not as we last saw him, but he shall have conquered death and stand rejoicing in the bliss of that eternal home.

Second, That we extend our deepest sympathy to the family in these their darkest hours.

Third, That these resolutions be sent to both the Watauga Democrat and the Watauga News with a request to publish; a copy be sent to the family of deceased, and a copy be spread upon the minutes of the lodge, and that the usual badge of mourning be worn for thirty days.

Done by order of Snow Lodge, this 5th day of April, 1913.

Pains in the Stomach.

If you continually complain of pains in the stomach, your liver or your kidneys are out of order. Neglect may lead to dropsy, kidney trouble, diabetes or Bright's disease. Thousands recommend Electric Bitters as the very best stomach and kidney medicine made. H. T. Alston, of Raleigh, N. C., who has suffered with pain in the stomach and back, writes: "My kidneys were deranged and my liver did not work right. I suffered very much, but Electric Bitters was recommended and I improved from the first dose. I now feel like a new man." It will improve you, too. Only 50c. and $1. Recommended by all dealers.

Some people only believe half they hear and others believe twice as much.

There is no case on record of a cough, cold, or lagrippe developing into bronchitis, pneumonia, or consumption after Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has been taken. The genuine is in a yellow pack age. Refuse substitutes. For sale by all dealers.

STATE AND GENERAL NEWS.

The new cotton Mill at Rhodessa is now ready for operation.

Jacob H. Schiff, of New York, has offered to donate $50,000, to aid in the work of completing and publishing a revised translation of the Bible by the Jewish Publication Society of America

At a meeting of the executive committee of the North Carolina Press Association, held in Salisbury on the 10th inst., it was decided to hold the State Convention in Asheville July 23 24.

The Roman Pontiff, Pope Pius X, has suffered another relapse. His physicians say that he must suspend all audiences. He seemed very much depressed and said "I am no more use to my friends or to others."

Bishop Candler has pronounced Dr. Friedman a fakir, before large audiences, because he refused to give his secret to the world. That if he knew how to cure consumption, he would be glad to give his secret to the world.

An act passed by the last Legislature, applying to Wilkes county, prohibits the selling or shipping beef calves for veal under one year old, dead or alive. Violating this act is a misdemeanor, punishable by fine of $25 to $50.

According to a Richmond report, petitions asking members of the legislature to convene in extra session for the impeachment of Governor Mann, are being circulated in Hanover county, Va. They charge him with permitting the judicial murder of the Allens.

The Apache Indians who have been maintained on the Fort Sill Military reservation, for 19 years as prisoners of war, have left Fort Sill for the Apache reservation in New Mexico where they will be turned over to the interior Dept, as free men.

Charles Honeycutt, a confederate veteran of Yancey county is serving a term in the State prison is on the State pension roll at thirty dollars per year. The decision by the Attorney General is, that when a veteran becomes a convict he is not entitled to a pension.

The Surgeon-General of the Navy announces that he will send a board of experts to Asheville, to test Dr. Karl Von Rusk's vaccine for tuberculosis. The Dr. has been using a serum for some time and has called the attention of the people to its merits since Dr. Friedman came to America advocating the merits of his serum.

We understand that H. C. Tucker, Right of way agent for the Va.-Carolina Railway, was in town today for the purpose of instituting condemnation proceedings against several parties with whom no agreement could be made amicably on a reasonable basis. It looks as if the good people of the county should be willing to take a reasonable and fair price for their land for the purpose of getting a railroad into the county.—The Jefferson Recorder.

On the 8th inst, President Wilson stood before the Senate and House in Joint session and stated what he thought should be done for the welfare of the country and asked his colleagues to aid in keeping the pledges of the party. He is the first president in 112 years to stand face to face before the Senate and House, Adams being the last one. The President impresses one as a very strong conscientious man, and one who will do great things for the country.

Miss Ethel Roosevelt, daughter of Col. Theodore Roosevelt was married the 4 inst to Dr. Richard Derby of N. Y. They sailed the next day for Europe.

Conductor E. Z. Boyd who was killed in the wreck, near Newton was to have been married to day to Miss Maud Smith of Catawba Station.

On the 3rd, at St Joseph, Mo., a handsome granite monument to the pony express riders of the 60's, erected by the the Daughters of the American Revolution, was unveiled, Chas Cliff, one of the few surviving pony express riders unveiled the shaft. Buffalo Bill (William F. Cody) delivered an address.

From the Patriot we learn that R. Don Laws, editor of the Yellow Jacket, is thinking of doing his press work hereafter in Wilkesboro, to save hauling both ways, the hauling having become a big job. He will keep his business office at Moravian Falls. He told the Patriot man that the combined weight of the paper during March alone, was over ten tons, and it had to be hauled through mud axle deep.

A special to the Charlotte Observer says that an effort is being made to unite Southern Congressmen to oppose the nomination of Walter H. Page as Ambassador to Great Britain on the ground that he is a negro lover. He has entertained Booker T. Washington, and blamed the South for disfranchising the negro. The matter is being agitated by people living in New York.

We learn from H. C. Tucker Right of way agent for the Va.-Carolina Railway that there are at least five hundred men at work on the Virginia end of the road, and that as many more could be used to advantage could they be obtained. It would seem that there is little necessity for the number of men to be loafing on our streets when they could be making good money.—The Jefferson Recorder.

The National Forest Reservation Commission has authorized the purchase of 11,500 acres of forest land owned by S. Montgomery Smith in McDowell county at an average price of $11.50 per acre. The land lies on the eastern slope of Mount Mitchell and adjoins the lands which the Government is acquiring. The tract does not include the summit of this historic mountain. There is much hard wood and hemlock on the land.

Evil Speaking.

Keep clear of personalities in conversation. Talk of things, objects, thoughts. The smallest minds occupy themselves with persons. Do not needlessly report ill of others. As far as possible, dwell on the good side of human beings. There are family boards where a constant process of deprecating, assigning motives, and cutting up character goes forward. They are not pleasant places. One who is healthy does not wish to dine at a dissecting table. There is evil enough in man, God knows. But it is not the mission of every young man and woman to detail and report it all. Keep the atmosphere as pure as possible, and fragrant with gentleness and charity.—John Hall.

In The Open.

Charlotte News,
There is to be nothing dark and mysterious and hidden about the doings of the administration heads at Washington. Star chamber proceedings are to be done away with, Reporters are to be no longer snubbed and left to make up their own fancied reports of doings at the White House.

On Yesterday President Wilson announced that regardless of the press of official business he proposed to set aside an hour every Tuesday and an hour every Thursday to be given over to "heart to heart" talks with the newspaper men. His idea is to take the members of the press into his confidence, give them all the stories that are ready for publication, and outline to them the policies and plans of the administration so that in writing their stories nothing will be left to conjecture. He wants them to write intelligently and with all the facts before them, and correctly believes that an open policy will check the danger of false and misleading stories.

Many of the stories will be given in confidence, and President Wilson can rely upon the newspaper men keeping the same until "released."

This is the proper course and one that will result in giving the reading public correct accounts of doings at the White House.

Everything is to be done in the open and the public is to know exactly what is being done by public officials.

Which is right.

A Sad Story And Its Lesson.

The Spartanburg Journal.
That is a sad story which comes from Greenville. It is difficult to conceive how two young men not pressed by hunger, would put on masks and enter a store for the purpose of robbery. These boys had been trusted clerks in the store. The beginning of their downfall and death was no doubt a trifling affair, which could not be placed in the category of dishonesty. But by degrees they became bolder. One lesson for all clerks, employees and bookkeepers is that in handling money for others, they should be honest to the last cent. They should never entertain the idea for a moment that just a little deviation from the straight line of absolute honesty in money matters will do no harm. It does do harm and does it eternally. Just a little slip will leave a stain which will not wash out. Repentance may get one up all right for the future, but that "damned spot" will always remain a memory. Remember the following sentence and engrave it on your mind. Keep it always before you when serving others: "He that walketh uprightly walketh surely."

Coughs and Consumption.

Coughs and colds, when neglected, always lead to serious trouble of the lungs. The wisest thing to do when you have a cold that troubles you is to get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. You will get relief from the first dose, and finally the cough will disappear. O. H. Brown of Muscadine, Ala., writes: "My wife was down in bed with an obstinate cough, and I honestly believe had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, she would not be living today." Known for forty-three years as the remedy for coughs and colds. Price 50c. and $1. Recommended by all dealers.

The fact is people don't die of troubles in this world; they die of fretting at 'em, only they don't seem to know it.—Elizabeth Stuart Phelps.

IN THE GROWLING LAND.

Here's a feller growlin' 'cause Spring-time comes too soon
When the winds that wave the lilies
their airy fiddles tune;
An' when the snows of winter are on the ghostly hills
They're grievin' for the music of the mockin' birds an' rills!

All the time black banners
Of storm clouds unfurled;
Never know they're livin'
In such a fine old world!

They never feel the sunshine the good
Lord sends their way,
Or know the woodland altars where
the winds kneel down to pray!
Forever an' forever like mourners sad
they go,
Nor bless the Lord for Springtime, nor thank Him for the snow—

No joy comes singin' to 'em
No crosses they ever kiss;
They never know they're livin'
In a fine old world like this!
—Atlanta Constitution.

A WARNING.

Breathes there a man with soul so
dead,

Who never to himself hath said:
"My trade of late is getting bad,
I'll try another ten inch ad."
If such there be go mark him well,
For him no bank account shall swell;
No angel watch the golden stair,
To welcome home a millionaire,
The man who never asks for trade
By local line or ad displayed,
Cares more for rest than worldly gain
And patronage but gives him pain,
Tread lightly, friends, let no rude
sound

Disturb his solitude profound;
Here let him live in calm repose
Unsoiled except by men he owes,
And when he dies go plant him deep
That naught may break his dreamless
sleep;

Wherein no clamor may dispel
The quiet that he loved so well;
And that the world may know his loss
Place on his grave a wreath of moss;
And on a stone above, "Here lies
A chump who wouldn't advertise."

East Tennessee Buys Linville River Road.

A Linville Falls special to the Charlotte Observer says that the Linville River Railway, which connects Cranberry on the Tennessee line, with Pineola, a distance of 14 miles, has been taken over by the East Tennessee & Western North Carolina Railway running from Johnson City, Tennessee, to Cranberry. 31 miles, and the two roads will be operated as one, greatly to the improvement of the service.

The Linville River line was built about 15 years ago by the Ritter Lumber Company when it was taking the timber out of this region. Tramways were run out from Pineola, one coming the 10 miles to this place, and the logs were hauled to the band saw mill at Pineola.

It is understood that the East Tennessee Company will complete widening the gauge to standard, not only on its own line, but on the Linville River Railway as rapidly as practicable.

Heed the Cough that Hangs On.

The seeds of consumption may be the cause, and a cough that hangs on weakens the system. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound checks the cough, heals the inflamed membranes and strengthens the lungs. E. D. Rountree, Stillmore Ga., says: "Lagrippe left me a deep seated, hacking, painful cough which Foley's Honey and Tar completely cured." For sale by all dealers.

If we can only come back to Nature together every year, and consider the flowers and the birds, and confess our mistakes under the silent stars; and hear the ocean murmuring, we shall die young even though we have lived long, and we shall have a treasure of memories and carry with us into the unseen world something that will make it worth while to be immortal.—Henry Van Dyke.

Cough Medicine for Children.

Too much care cannot be used in selecting a cough medicine for children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful substance and be most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets these requirements and is a favorite with the mothers of young children everywhere. For sale by all dealers.
