Training School Items.

Mrs. B. R. Brewton, teacher of Expression at the Training School, received news Saturday morning of the death of her only brother in Atlanta, and left that afternoon to be present at the funeral.

The Superintendent, Prof. B. B. Dougherty, of the Training School, attended the meeting of the county superintendents and State officials of education at Marion the latter part of the past week. He reports that some substantial plans were laid for the furtherance of education in this section of the State. The Principal, Prof. D. D. Dougherty was in charge during his absence.

The "Dramatic Club" of the Training School gave a play at the school auditorium on Monday evening the proceeds of which are to go to the Near East Relief Fund for the Armenians. The characters were selected and trained by Mrs. Brewton, but owing to her being called away the Misses Campbell had charge for the evening. The title of the play was "Standing By" and the parts were well performed.

The relations between the denominations in Boone, especially the Methodists and Baptists, have long been noted as most pleasant indeed, they working together in beautiful harmony in all good works. This relation was heightened the past week by the two pastors of these churches coming to the chapel of the school and talking on alternate days on the vital points of a religious life to the student body. These talks were listened to by the students most attentively and will doubtless do much good.

Prayer Service Friday, 7:30, p. m.

Now that the epidemic of influenza and small pox has passed, and we have been spared by a merciful providence, let us not fail to come together for worship Sunday.

The attendance at Sunday School should be doubled. Let us not fail to greet our teachers with a happy smile next Sunday morning.

Our attention is called to the prayer service Friday evening at the church. It is to be hoped that we may have a good attendance at this service. This is a time when we need to pray.

Our attention is also called to the every-member canvass of the church for the current expenses which is to be made Sunday afternoon, April 25. The committee will interview every member for the purpose of securing his pledge which should be bi-monthly. The committee will also deliver the duplex envelopes, a package of which is provided for every member, and everyone else who may care to use them.

Miss Anders Entertains Livingstone Club.

The Livingstone Club spent an enjoyable afternoon with Miss Annie Blair Anders, Monday April 19th, from 2:30 until 4:30. The home was decorated with jonquils and other bright flowers. Ten members were present, each responding to the roll call with a Bible verse. Interesting readings were given by Misses Velma Rivers and Beatrice Hardin. Miss Allye Henry Penn sang impressively "Sweet Story of Old." This was followed by a golden contest. The prize, which was a box of stationery, was won by Miss Velma Rivers. A delicious salad course, sandwiches and coffee was served by the hostess. The guests of the club were Misses Allye Henry Penn and Esther Stanbury.

Miss Virginia Council invited the club to have its next meeting at her home May 10th.

THE NASH AUTOMOBILE HAS THE good looks and the endurance of many cars costing $2500. You can save at least $700 by buying it if you want a big, fine car. The Nash Quad and Trucks are known the world over. They are cheaper than many that are not as good. The Oakland has more horsepower to its weight than any car made, therefore it is more economical. It goes further on a gallon of gasoline, and on one set of tires than the most popular small cars. There is a reason—ask us. Highway Motor Co. Boone, N. C.
