LOCAL AFFAIRS

Clerk of the Court A. W. Smith has moved his family to Boone. They are occupying the Hartzog cottage on Hardin Street.

See notice of auction sale of personal property at the residence of W. E. Shipley on next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Nannie Rivers left for Ire-dell county last Friday, where she opened school last Monday morning five miles out from Statesville.

Mrs. Luttrell is again at her home in Boone, her mother, Mrs. Carpenter, of Montezuma, who has been seriously ill, being very much better.

Here's congratulations to our old friend, Wiley Norris, who was recently married to a Miss Harrison, of Kingsport, Tenn. May his pleasures be abundant, his sorrows few.

Mrs. J. A. Sproles, was called to her girlhood home at Butler, Tenn., the last of the week, to visit her mother, Mrs. Dr. Butler, who was right ill. She has not yet returned.

Just as the weather man at Washington announced that the peak of the cold wave had passed, Watauga is wrestling in the throes of a typical mountain blizzard.

Donald son of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Greene, who recently had an operation on his throat in the Davis-Carpenter Hospital in Statesville, is rapidly convalescing at his home in Boone.

Mrs. Edna Hodges, defeated candidate for Register of Deeds, opened school in Cabarras county Monday morning, where she has taught in the best schools for several consecutive years.

Mr. Poley Wyke has sold his pretty home west of the village to Mr. Clingman Hodges, and has moved temporarily into a building owned by Dougherty Bros. near the Perkins residence.

Mr. W. P. Jennings, of Banner Elk, was in to see us Tuesday, and said he hoped to leave with his family for Winter Garden, Fla. next Monday, where they will spend the winter. There are several others we know who have a yearning for a visit to the land of flowers, just now.

The entertainment, "Better Than Gold," given at the court house Monday night by the graded school children, was very enjoyable indeed, and reflected much credit upon the children and their teachers. Unfortunately, owing to a steady downpour of rain, the attendance was not very large.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist church of Boone, held its November meeting with Mrs. F. A. Linney. The attendance was good, and the session a very busy and pleasant one, followed by a delightful social hour, during which the hostess served a delicious salad course with coffee. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Brinckman at the parsonage.

Prohibition Agent David Wooten, captured an illicit distillery in the spring house of one James Mast, in Laurel Creek township, one day last week. The outfit was small, but the equipment was good, the plant being lighted by electricity, and all other conveniences corresponding. It was for the manufacture of both whiskey and brandy, as two stands of beer and two of pomace were destroyed by the officer. No arrest was made.

EDGAR YOUNG, Shff.

If any subscriber who is dissatisfied with the amount of advertising carried in these columns, can suggest a way that we can make a living without it, we are more than willing to hear him. Our subscription list is fine but, alone, it does not pay the expenses of publication. Blank paper, delivered, is now costing us 15c. per lb., against 3c. only a few years ago, and still we are sending it out at the same price, $1 per year. Please bear with us, as with better equipment and more space, we hope to relieve the congested condition of our columns in the not very distant future.

WATAUGA SUPPLY CO.

PRICE REVISION

Beginning today we are revising our prices on every suit and overcoat in the house.

This is not a "special sale" but a sincere effort to co-operate in lowering living costs in these unusual times.

At the beginning of this season we marked our clothes at a closer margin than ever attempted before, but commodity prices have declined and people expect lower prices and rightly so.

To meet the conditions we are revising the price on every suit and overcoat in the house and arranging them in price groups as follows:

$25.00, $34.60 $39.50, $49.50, $57.50, $64.50

These suits were originally priced $35.00 to $80.00 and at the new figures represent a substantial loss to us.

Fine all wool clothes such as Hart Schaffner & Marx at these prices offer an exceptional opportunity for saving money.

All Boys Suits are arranged in price groups as follows:

$9.75, $12.75, 14.75, $17.50 and $23.50

We honestly believe these prices are lower than these clothes will sell for six months from now.

Come early and choose yours while choosing is at its best. Mail Orders filled promptly. Free delivery.
