TRAINING SCHOOL ITEMS

Mei Wanda Frankom, of Hickory, has been giving some gems of her knowledge in the past week. Her songs, her lofty heights, her seemingly holding the treasure...

Tuesday in chapel Mr. Hillman gave a most interesting and informative lecture on Geography. The Dean said Geography was a dry subject, although three...

On Friday Rev. Mr. Brinkman conducted devotionals, presenting some new and logical classifications of Biblical origin and arranging the books of the Bible in an interesting sequence.

Then on Saturday, in addition to the community singing led by Miss McCutley, Messrs. Boynton, Smith, Wright and Martin, entertained the chapel goes with a number of quartettes that provoked prolonged applause.

Monday, morning, the second term trip to Grandfather mountain, gotten up by Mr. Hillman, boarded the train in the early hours of the morning for Linville.

With the day was a memorable one, the weather perfect, the cultivated valleys lay like a carpet of green, and the dark pine-covered hills, with the mighty rocks, remnants of titanic struggles of ancient days...

WILLIAM B. LOVILL

The Democratic County Convention on last Monday acted, in the opinion of The Democrat, with very fine judgment when they gave W. R. (Will) Lovill a unanimous vote as its candidate for Representative in the next General Assembly of North Carolina. Mr. Lovill, so far as we know, has never sought public office, however, to the will of the Democratic hosts has submitted...

MISS CREIGHTON TO SPEAK TO THE WOMEN

I am pleased to announce that beginning with the seventh of Aug., Miss Martha Creighton, District Agent for the piedmont section of the State, will be in Watauga for one month. It is her purpose to hold meetings with the women wherever she is wanted in the county. She will give lectures and demonstrations on the various household problems that the women are interested in.
