COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The whole of last week was consumed by the court in the trial of the State docket, and the grand jury was not discharged until Thursday afternoon, which was the longest session, possibly, ever held by a grand jury in the history of Watauga county. The cases disposed of are as follows:

Enoch F. Potter, retailing, 12 months on the roads. Defendant appealed to Supreme court and was discharged from prison.

D. I. Stansberry, abandonment, 12 months on the roads.

Lloyd Wilcox, failure to work roads, judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Will Carroll and Wesley Reynolds, attempting to manufacture whiskey, judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Green Miller, assault with deadly weapon, judgment suspended on payment of cost.

R. S. Johnson, assault with deadly weapon, judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Filmore Ford, assault with deadly weapon. Fined $50.00 and cost.

Dewy Guy, failure to work road. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Jason Moretz, failure to work road. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Moses Main, failure to work road. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Stafford Cole and Stanley Cole, assaults with deadly weapons, Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Carl Davis, assault with deadly weapon. Fined $50.00 and cost.

Marsh Foster, drunk and disorderly, two cases. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

John Morrison, transporting liquor, fined $25.00 and cost.

Coy Rogers, transporting liquor. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

P. M. McGhinnis, retailing, three years on the roads.

David Guy, assault with deadly weapons. Four months on the roads.

Henry Triplett, abandonment, 12 months on the roads.

Thussel McGhinnis and Mrs. P. M. McGhinnis, retailing. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

R. D. Moore, of Caldwell county, transporting liquor. Fifteen months on the roads.

Webster Davis, trespass. Judgment suspended on payment of half the cost.

Coy Rogers, carrying concealed weapons. Fined $50.00 and cost.

Frank McGhee, R. C. Rivers, jr., and George Moretz, transporting liquor. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Steve Presnell, larceny. Assigned to the charge of I. A. Bumgarner on payment of $40. cost.

Bill Gillman, larceny. Eighteen months on the roads.

It is the general consensus of opinion that last week's work before his Honor, Judge McElroy, will mean more for the moral and social uplift of the county, in the years to come, than any half-dozen terms of court preceding it. Judge McElroy, as firm and immovable as the great mountains among which our town nestles, when the guilt of an offender is established, and has the convictions and the nerve to mete out justice in very considerable quantities when guilt is established. Exceptionally severe is the great justice when the guilt of a whiskey vendor is established. And another thing that appeals to us is that the great judge is no respecter of persons, his idea being that the one who has had the best advantages, with money, good homes, best of parentage and connection, when they violate a law, are really more to be censured than the poor devil who has virtually been pulled up by the hair of his head, with little or no training, and no associates but men of his kind. Yes, it has been a great court, and we can only hope that others, presided over by judges like McElroy, may be in store for us.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas God in His infinite wisdom has taken from our midst the sweet gentle spirit of one of our faithful Sunday School members, Miss Ruth Miller on Thursday September 7, 1922. She was always an earnest member; zealous in all things for the advancement of the Sunday School and community. We miss her pleasant face in our society and know that her place cannot be filled. Therefore we, the members of Fair View Sunday School feel that we want to express our sorrow in the loss of our beloved co-worker; therefore be it resolved:

First, that while we sorrow in her going and our hearts are heavy because we will not meet her again on earth, we are comforted with the hope that all is well with her.

Second, that we bow in humble submission with our heavenly Father, thanking Him for such a life as hers and comforting our selves with knowing that she doeth all things well. Third, that we extend our heartfelt sympathy and love to the family in this dark hour of their bereavement and cherish with them the hope of seeing her again. We commend them to him who is too wise to err and too good to be unkind.

Fourth, that a copy of these resolutions be spread on our records, a copy sent to the bereaved family and a copy to the Watauga Democrat for publication.

PLOWS!
Vulcan Plows

On account of getting my plows in too late for much of the spring trade, I am going to sacrifice profit and sell them to the farmers who need a real good level land and hillside turning plow. I also sell the Lynchburg and Chattanooga Plows—

I keep good stock of repairs on hand at all times and what I haven't got I will get at once.

Remember I sell the Majestic Range and all who know it, want it. I will sell on the installment plan

RADCLIFFE CHAUTAUQUA

FIRST DAY
The Clifford Collins Duo and the Mysterious Milburn. Mr. Collins introduces character sketches bubbling over with humor. He makes his impersonations look like, act like and sound like the characters he delineates. He makes them live!
Milburn, the mysterious, not only mystifies with his magic, but furnishes a rich flow of humor and merriment.
Edward Tomlinson, the brilliant young American orator:
Afternoon—"Making the Dream Come True."
Evening—"The Spirit of the Colonist."
The Junior Worker in stories for young and old, and demonstration of organized play.

SECOND DAY
J. Coates Lockhart and His Scotch Lassies in a program of classic and humorous vocal and instrumental trios and solos interspersed with quaint Scotch stories. The Company's repertoire is a medley of pleasant surprises, all pitched to a Scottish key, and this is further accentuated by their picturesque Scotch costumes.
THE CHAUTAUQUA DIRECTOR
Afternoon—"The Storm."
Evening—"The Spirit of the Patriot."

THIRD DAY
The Skibinsky-Reed Company, headed by A. M. Skibinsky, a Russian artist under whose skilled touch the violin gives forth tones ranging from fairy-like fancies to deep emotion.
Miss Myra Reed is a coloratura soprano of rare charm and power, and a distinguished pianist.
Henry Coe Culbertson, who has traveled extensively in the East and Near East, and until recently President of Ripon College, Ripon, Wis.:
Afternoon—"The Durable Satisfaction of Life."
Evening—"The Spirit of the Pioneer."
