JOHN THE APOSTLE

LESSON TEXT—Luke $:42-56; John 13:25-27, I John 4:7. 8.

GOLDEN TEXT—"God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God and God in him"—I John 4:15.

REFERENCE MATERIAL — Mack 1:18-20; John 18:21-28, Acta 4:13-20; Rév 1:9

FRIMARY TOPIC—The Disciple Whom Jesus Loved.

JUNIOR TOPIC—John, the Beloved Disciple

JUNION Disciple
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC-John, the Bosom Friend of Jesus, YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC
—A Character Study of John.

1. His Intolerance of Irregular Serv. toe (Luke 9:49, 50).

John was conscientious in his intolerance of this disciple. There seems to have been no question but what the to have been no question but what the man was really casting out devils, even though he did not possess the same credentials as the twelve spostiles. There seems to have been no —Elia Wicceler Wilcox. same credentials as the twelve apos-ties. There seems to have been no question as to the reality of the truth which this disciple taught or the work he did. The same spirit has been manifested all through the Christian centuries. Whoever witnesses truly of Christ and does His work has God's recognition. Christ rebuked John's in-telerance and declared that "be that is not against us is for us." May we everywhere show the same consideration to those who are doing the Lord's work even though they are not members of our particular church,

II. John's Righteous Indignation

1. Jesus' Face Set Toward Jorusalem (vv. 55-53). He knew what was before liftin. He knew the awful fate awaiting Him at Jeensalem. Even Juice and serve hot, though the dark shadow of the cross bung across his path He resolutely nerved Blusself for the orderl. The gross was no socident. The supremeurpose of His estaing was to save three quarts of the world through His sacrificial taken at means death. This was in the plan of God from all eternity. The cross is the grand center of the Christian religion, Everyone who follows Jesus must take

2. The Inhespitable Samaritans (v. 50). The Lord was to pass through that city on His way to Jerusalem, When the people discerned that His face was set for Jerusalem they refused hospitality to Him. This insult to the Lord so aroused the anger of John and James that they desired to call down fire from beaven to destroy the Semaritans, It was John's love for his Lord that prompted this sugges-Christ rebuked him and corrected his spirit, but He knew that it preceded from a heart of love. Love will brook no insult to its object. Mistaken love has done much harm in the church. The pages of history are red with the blood of heretics, to the everlasting shame of the persecutors. Persecution is not the way to deal with those who differ with us. The spirit is not only wrong, but it is furtile, for the blood of the martyrs has always become the seed of the church. May Christ's rebuke to John take from our hearts the spirit of intelerance and revenge. Jesus came not to destroy men, but to save them.

III. John's Care of Christ's Mother (John 19:25-27).

Jesus Saw His Mother (v. 26). Perhaps His physical suffering had so dimmed His vision that He had not seen her before. But even His death agonies did not cause Him to forget her. While engaged in the redemption of the world, He displayed His tender human interest in this beautiful act. The cross is the center from which

2. John Took Mary to His Own Home (v. 27). The same John who wished to call down fire upon the inhospitable Samaritans now was engaged in the tenderest act of human He was caring for the mother of his Lord. The reason Jesus entrusted her to John was that He knew his real heart of love. He knew that John's experience was such that he could enter into full sympathy with her in her great sorrow

Test of Divine Birth (I John 4:7. 8).

John's experiences in life were such that now near the close of his life he declared that the supreme test of fellowship in the divine life is love. Love is the bond of perfection—the cord that binds all virtues into one harmonious bundle. All the fruits of the Christian life spring out of this root. God is love. All that is good and beautiful in our lives is but the very life of God flowing through us.
