

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

If you are coming to court next week call in and see how you stand on our books.

Mr. Leonard Wilson of Meat Camp passed through town Wednesday en route to Bristol on business.

Will C. Walker has begun his advertising drive for Christmas patronage. See page six.

Miss Snow Gwaltney of Balm, Avery county, visited relatives at Boone and Sands this week.

Mr. W. H. Gragg has returned from a short business trip to North Wilkesboro, Salisbury and other places.

It is indeed gratifying to know that Prof. D. D. Dougherty, principal of the A. T. S. who has been right much indisposed is improving.

Mr. W. E. Koark of Beaver Dam came over Tuesday, bringing with him his daughter who was operated on for tonsillitis at Watauga Hospital in the afternoon. Four others underwent the same sort of operation and are getting on nicely.

Dr. Dula will be in the county next week fitting glasses and will give some lectures on eye care at the schools while here. These lectures have met with a great deal of favorable comment at other places.

Miss Maisie Vannoy, of North Wilkesboro visited at the Greene Inn last week. On her return she was accompanied by Mrs. B. C. Johnson who spent the week end with her.

Mr. R. J. Shim, representative of the Greensboro News is in the county for a few days soliciting subscriptions. The News reaches here on the early mail from Wilkesboro, and it is even more popular in this section than ever before.

Quite a number of local people attended the Armistice Day celebration in North Wilkesboro Tuesday. The day was fine, the crowd large, and the two towns did themselves proud in entertaining the vast concourse of people.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church entertained delegates from the North Wilkesboro District Saturday and Sunday. Very profitable social and business sessions were held during the conference.

Mrs. James Todd of Marion, Va. is here for a few days visit to home folks and friends. She says they are making good in their new location. Jim, an expert plumber, getting all the work he can do; and sticking to it closely.

The District Stewards Meeting of the North Wilkesboro district will be held Friday November 14 at the Methodist church. All the districts stewards and pastors are expected to be here. The morning session will begin at 10 a. m.

A slight error occurred in our report of the county election last week. The types made us say that Mr. S. C. Eggers' majority over his Democratic opponent Mr. Bob Taylor, was only 7 when we should have said that he was elected by 7 votes. The correction is gladly made.

We would call your particular attention to the "One Cent" Sale advertised by the Boone Drug Company on page three of this issue. This event is looked forward to every year by a host of patrons of the local drug store, and it is wisdom on the part of everyone to buy those things they need during that period.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Greene and Miss Nettie Winkler visited their father and brother last week, who now lives below Lenoir. They say it was like spring—the weather was very hot there, and the table was supplied with green beans, tomatoes and corn gathered on Mr. Winkler's farm the 8th of November.

Married on last Sunday at Key Station, Tenn., Mr. Floyd Eggers, youngest son of Ex-Sheriff and Mrs. E. R. Eggers, to Miss Bertha, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Pink Hodges, of Adams. The groom has been working in the feed store of his brother Mr. S. C. Eggers in Boone for some time, and has made many friends in and about the town. The bride is one of Watauga's most charming daughters.

Mr. Milton Greer who for a number of years has been located at Bloomfield Neb. has, with his family moved back to his native county. He has taken work with the Boone Planing Mills and will move here a little later on. His friends in Watauga are glad to see him back, and the people of Boone just as glad to know he will soon be a citizen of our town.

Married on Wednesday of last week at some point in Tennessee Mr. Joseph Wayman to Miss Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Gastonia and Boone. The groom is an efficient member of the State Highway Commission construction crew in the county, and his bride is one of our most attractive and accomplished young ladies. We are told that they will occupy the Dr. Letcher Bingham property in the near future.

Zeb Danner of Skulls Mills, sometime since tried and found over to the Federal court under a $1,000.00 bond for violating the dry laws, was again caught red-handed Tuesday by Prohibition agent Ralph Bingham. This time the offender was caught in the act of actually manufacturing corn whiskey. The still was destroyed, the hooch poured out, and Danner is in jail awaiting the next term of Federal court which will convene in Wilkesboro the 24th. The way of the transgressor grows harder.

Yesterday forenoon Mr. Farthing Edmisten, coming to town on the Boone trail, driving a pair of mules was run into by a Ford driven by Mr. T. Len Cook, coming up the Blowing Rock road at a lively clip. The lead mule got most of the impact and was thrown entirely over the tongue of the wagon, but fortunately was not seriously hurt. The Ford came out unhurt except for a slightly bent bumper. This intersection is one of the danger points on the Boone Trail and this is not the first accident that has occurred there.

A Hudson touring car owned by Teague Brothers was stolen Tuesday night from the Boone Service Station. Wednesday telegrams were sent in every direction but nothing could be heard of the car. However late yesterday afternoon two of the boys in the employ of Teague Bros. noticed tracks leaving the Boone Trail toward the old power plant, left by the same kind of tires worn on the missing car. Following the deserted road to the power plant however, they seemed as far from a clue as ever. On returning they noticed where the car had left the road. Upon close investigation the machine was found hidden among second growth pines in a veritable wilderness far below the road. Two fences had been taken down to get the car to its destination and replaced perfectly. The boys say the car was so completely hidden that it was simply good luck finding it. It is supposed the thieves had thus hid the machine, waiting for the officers to relent, hoping then to take the car away for sale.

MEAT CAMP NEWS

Rev. T. G. Williams brought his family over from Todd Sunday evening to his appointment at the M. E. Church.

Mr. W. H. Winebarger and family of Lenoir have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Winebarger this week end.

Misses Anna Mae Sherwood and Hazel Proffit, with Miss Ruth Bingham, are visiting at Brushy Fork at Mr. James H. Bingham's.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Wilson are visited relatives and friends on Beaver Dam Saturday and Sunday.

We are glad to note that our teacher Miss Beach is not so badly hurt as we had heard at last week's writing, and we sincerely hope that she can come back soon to her school. Mrs. Grady Wilson is teaching while she is away.

A party of seven from Proffit's Baptist orphanage last Thursday and back Friday.

back Friday, Mr. L. E. Wilson and brother Grady taking a truck load of vegetables etc to the orphanage. They were accompanied by W. A. Proffit, wife and daughter, and Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Wilson.

We should be glad indeed to know we have such an institution in our good old North State for the benefit of the unfortunate and every Baptist who can should visit them and see what we are helping to do for them.

AN APPRECIATION

Now that the election is over and the Eighth District is Democratic by an unprecedented majority, I am writing this letter to extend my wholehearted appreciation to all the good women and men in my district who supported me in the recent campaign. No man ever had a more faithful loyal support, and no one can ever feel under greater obligations than myself. A majority of more than eight thousand in my district will cause me to try harder than ever, if possible, to show my appreciation and gratitude by the very best service I am able to render.

As it will be impossible for me to write each one of my supporters a personal letter, I take this method of returning my thanks.

With my best wishes I am,
Faithfully and sincerely yours,
(adv.) R. L. DOUGHTON

Your Conscience Says

Conscience talks to all—but few have the courage to obey. The man who has strength of will to regulate his affairs to conditions as they exist and saves regularly soon finds that conditions change—and always for the better.

Conscience says SAVE!—So why don't you start this week? This institution pays 4 per cent on savings accounts and stands ready to assist its depositors in many ways.
