

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Don't fail to hear Dr. Harper at the Normal School at Commencement on May 8.

Friend Tom Coffey of Blowing Rock was in town Monday on business. He says the prospects for a great season at the Rock this year are fine. He was accompanied by Mrs. Coffey and Miss Fentress, a teacher in that town.

It is very gratifying to note that Mrs. W. H. Hardin who has been extremely ill with pneumonia for some time, is gradually improving and her permanent recovery is expected.

Born to Attorney and Mrs. W. R. Lovill on Monday, a boy.

Miss Nannie Rivers, after two weeks treatment at Grace Hospital Banner Elk, returned to her home in Boone Sunday, very much improved.

Deputy Collector F. M. Thomas, accompanied by his chief Mr. George D. Martin of Winston-Salem, spent the week end with his family on Cove Creek. They gave the Democrat a much appreciated call Saturday afternoon. Mr. Martin is a very genial companionable gentleman and is delighted with his trip to this section of the state.

Little Miss Mary Helen Hagaman whose illness we have mentioned from time to time, continues to improve, and it now seems that her chances of recovery are good.

The Democrat is sorry indeed to hear of the death of Mrs. Tilman Adams, of the Brushy Fork section, which occurred at her home yesterday morning. She was stricken with something like paralysis while at the supper table Tuesday evening and never regained consciousness after the stroke. Mrs. Adams was formerly Miss Molly Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bradley deceased. She was a good woman and will be sadly missed in her community.

Mrs. George W. Hardin of Johnson City is here for a few days at the home of Mr. John F. Hardin who has been a very sick man for the past week.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Hooper Hendrix was taken to the hospital at Banner Elk the last of the week for treatment. Mrs. Hendrix is there with the little sufferer.

The Board of County Commissioners will be in session next Monday.

James C. Rivers, editor of the Wilkes Patriot was in town a few hours last Sunday.

Mrs. J. F. McGhee has returned to Fayetteville after a few days spent with her relatives here.

Mr. E. J. Norris who has been right much indisposed for some time, the result of a hurt sustained while trying to help push out a stalled truck was able to be in town Monday. He is not yet well but much improved.

Mr. R. E. Hodges has returned from what he is pleased to call a "courting expedition" at some point beyond the Blue Ridge, but he failed to commit himself when asked who the fortunate lady was who attracted him thence.

Kraut is now being canned in immense quantities at the factory here and a better grade of this palatable food could not be found on the markets anywhere. There is well above one hundred tons to be canned.

W. J. Horton of Farrel, Pa. who has been with home folks at Vilas since Easter, left on his return yesterday, accompanied by Miss Mary Lizzie Horton, daughter of Mr. J. B. Horton, who will spend the summer there.

As we are ready to close our forms the news came from the sick room of Mr. John F. Hardin that he is holding his own fairly well in his struggle with pneumonia. His rest last night was badly broken but it is thought by his physician but that if he lost anything since yesterday it is very slight. His condition of course is critical but still there is some hope that the good man may recover. Mrs. Hardin who has been ill for more than two weeks is slowly improving.

April 30 came with a slight freeze and snow early in the day. The tops of the mountains are white as this is written. It is very cool and the prospects are good for a fall in temperature by night. The fruit so far has escaped injury.

SUNDAY DEFENDS REVIVALS

Noted Evangelist Offers to Fight Any Man Saying He preaches for Money Offered Million Dollars a Year by Movie Syndicate.

Winston-Salem. — Reaching back into the pages of history Billy Sunday in by far the greatest sermon he has preached here, compared great rulers in the world's history and generals in the decisive battles of the world, to leaders in great revival movements of all time and declared that what has been done by mankind by such men as John Huske, Martin Luther, John Wesley and others like them, far exceeded any accomplishment of ruler or general.

His text tonight was, "Oh, Lo d, revive thy works," and it was handled in a masterful manner. If there is any person in the city of Winston Salem who is inclined to criticize the revival now being conducted the chances are they will keep mighty quiet after the sermon that was preached tonight. The sermon was replete with historical incidents and had a powerful effect on the great congregation.

Mr. Sunday said that some criticized revivals and said they brought about undue excitement. He wanted to know if it was excitement when a drunkard was caused to go home sober; if it was excitement when it caused a man to be true to his own wife "instead of some other Jane." Some said it was only temporary. "Rain is temporary," he said "but look what it does for vegetation. A bath is temporary but it does you good."

With vehement language Mr. Sunday resented the imputation that he merely preaches for money. Recently he said he was offered by a moving picture syndicate $1,000,000 to make a picture and $50,000 in addition was thrown on the table in front of him to cover his expenses during the contract for one year. But he told those back of the movement that they could not get his mug on a screen for fifty times that; that at the very time he received the offer to come to the city, he was offered $100,000 and all of his and Mrs. Sunday's expenses paid if he would deliver a series of twenty lectures, but that he declined that recently he was offered a contract for a period of one year at $10,000 per week by a lyceum course to make two lectures a day of six minutes each and that he declined; that during the war the city of New York for the work he did at a meeting there paid him $125,000 and every single cent of it immediately went across the seas to help the soldiers and then he said, "they say I am just after money."

He jerked off his coat, threw it upon a chair and with his fist drawn back, said he just wanted any man to confront him and say that he was merely preaching for money and that he was a grafter; that when he got through with him, his family would not know him.
