

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Carrie Waters, of Foscoe, is spending the week with Mrs. Mattie Toppings.

Dr. English, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist of Johnson City, will be at the Watauga Hospital on Monday of next week for the practice of his profession.

Mr. J. Turner Hendrix of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company with headquarters at Bluefield, W. Va. is spending his vacation here.

Mr. Pogue, one of the lessees of the Daniel Boone is spending his vacation here. Yesterday he made a business trip of Statesville, accompanied by Assistant Manager A. M. Street.

Mr. G. C. Winkler, was on the streets of Boone Monday for the first time in nine weeks, he being very ill most of that time. He was barely able to travel, but business called him. He has been suffering for quite a long while with diabetes.

The residence of Mr. W. S. Christian, occupying the greatest elevation on Howard Knob, is nearing completion, and the family will move in soon. It is indeed a beauty, and the scenery therefrom is indeed inspiring.

Mr. J. R. Hagaman who has been in Boone for several months engaged in carpenter work, left early in the week for Idaho. He goes to look after the harvesting of his crops, after which he will return to Watauga where he has some business propositions in view.

Hon. and Mrs. F. A. Linney and children attended a birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Linney's mother, Mrs. Matheson, at Taylorsville, on Monday. All the children and grandchildren were invited and the day was a most pleasant one for all present.

Mr. R. P. (Bob) Jackson, a traveling salesman out of West Jefferson, has been in town this week. He has many good holdings in his home town but seems to be carried away with Boone. He seems to have a hankering for some Boone property and we hope he will decide to make the investment.

Mr. Logan, of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, who, with his little family has resided in Boone for a few months, recently sold his attractive home to Mr. Floyd Eggers and returned to his native city. Mr. Logan was an electrician by trade and found this territory well in the hands of other men of his trade.

Mr. J. L. Church, for some time traveling salesman for R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., with headquarters at Altoona, Pa., has been spending his vacation with his family at Deep Gap. He was accompanied by Mr. J. Mosholde of Johnstown, Pa. The trip was made by motor.

At the last regular meeting of circle no. 1 of the Baptist Woman's Missionary society, by unanimous vote of the members the name of the circle was changed to "the Margaret Hagaman Circle." Mrs. Hagaman was organizer and first leader of this band of women, and this action was taken to commemorate her self-sacrificing devotion to the Missionary cause.

Miss Jane Bryan, an aged sister of our townsman, Mr. W. L. Bryan, died at the home of her nephew, Mr. W. R. Greene, last Monday, and was buried in the cemetery at Hopewell on Wednesday. She lived with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Bryan until their death many years ago, and has since spent her time with near relatives and friends in Watauga. Miss Jane was a good woman, and her death is deplored.

Mr. T. C. Norris, wife and two youngest daughters, all of Medford, Oreg., are in Watauga, their native county, for a visit to relatives and old acquaintances. The young couple left Watauga 41 years ago, and this is their second trip back, the last being 17 years ago. The long trip was made almost without incident, in a Star car, about 23 days being consumed on the trip. Their friends are delighted to see them again after their long absence.

A CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express to the many who expressed themselves as our friends, our sincere and heartfelt thanks for the many acts of kindness and sympathy shown us during the death and burial of our dear son and brother Leonard Triplett. May God bless each one of you.
T. W. TRIPLETT & FAMILY.

ADVENT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The regular services of the Advent Christian church will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. E. Gragg Sunday at eleven o'clock. Rev. W. L. Trivett will have charge of the evening service at eight o'clock.

Sunday School at 10:00 a. m. Everybody cordially invited.

The ladies of the Missionary Society served ice cream and cake to the inmates of the county home on June 25th. Rev. W. R. Cottrell accompanied the ladies and conducted a little service, speaking feelingly of the glories of the future home where there will be no lame, poor or unfortunate. Miss Annie Lee Trivett sang a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross." Everyone felt well repaid for having a part in the program. The gratitude of the unfortunate ones made glad the hearts of those who had tried to bring them a little pleasure.

Rev. M. A. Triplett, of Charlotte, N. C., conducted a service last night at the court house. The prayer meeting hour was given over for this service.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 the Rev. S. E. Gragg will hold a service at the county home.

METHODIST NOTES

I use to hear the preachers say of another "that Brother 'so and so' took his text and walked away with it," meaning that the preacher had soared high with his theme. We are not sure about the text, but we are positive that part of the Sunday School walked away last Sunday because only 275 were present. A large number was absent when one of the best missionary programs of the year was given. So it is evident that somebody missed a treat by not being present.

Why should church people be interested in Sunday School. Because it is the greatest organization of the church. It not only feeds the church but it is the greatest police force in this country. We talk lots about the crime wave in this generation, but suppose we had no church schools for fathers, mothers, boys and girls, our country would be in a far worse plight than now exists. One of the best ways for insuring the future of our nation is for us to use our influence through personal contact and study in the great moral agency of the church, the Sunday School. Examine the spirit and tendencies of our time and see for yourself if these statements are not true. A Sunday School is not a piece of denominational propaganda, but an agency for the teaching of religion.

Some of the ministers of the county are talking about forming a ministerial association. Think this is a good movement.

The church year for the Methodists ends October 14th at which time the annual conference begins. Just a little over three months until another year will have passed by. Let's pull together and make time count.
