METHODIST NOTES

For the past two Sundays, the attendance at Sunday School has been 214, however if all the communities of the different classes worked a little harder, the attendance would run higher and remain there, rather than at the present number.

The Sunday School program was most interesting Sunday. Everyone seemed to be interested in it. A brass violin string kept the orchestra from playing, but all who knew about that soon forgot it after Mr. Hopkins sang that wonderful song. We were glad to have visitors enter into the worship portion of our church school as the folks did.

A large audience was present at our services last Sunday—the large one, considering both services, of the summer.

The fourth quarterly conference of the Boone church will convene Saturday night, it is hoped that all the officials will be present. Other attendance is invited but this conference cannot be carried on without its members.

The Ministerial Association will meet Monday 2nd 10:30 in the auditorium of the Methodist church. A number of the county are invited. Sunday School 9:45 Sunday.

Preaching at 11 a. m. by the Presiding Elder, Rev. Seymour Taylor and Sunday evening at 8 by the pastor.

Wednesday prayer service and choir practice at 8 p. m.

ADVENT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Don't forget Sunday School at the court house Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Have you joined the Bible Class yet?

Sermons Sunday morning at 11. Music by the Cuban band. The Sunday evening sermon is to be "Divine Mathematics." The sermons will interest you. Hear them.

The ladies missionary society met on the afternoon of the 23rd at the home of Mr. J. C. Trivett, with a nice number of ladies present. Dr. Brown was also present and made helpful talks on some of the things a ladies organization in the church can do. After some special music and singing ice cream and cake were served.

Work on the new stone church has been going rapidly in the last two weeks. The floor is now being framed in. We begin to feel that it will be a beautiful church when completed.

10 A. M.

the E. M. Presnell Farm

ON BEECH CREEK

now Owned by

S. C. EGGERS AND CO.

This farm is being subdivided into small farms, of suitable size and frontage to meet the demands of the purchaser. Three tracts will include houses and good orchards, and public roads pass through the property.

The entire boundary contains about 300 acres, of which 200 is fine grazing land, and the remainder is covered with unbroken virgin forests of fine marketable timber.

This property should especially appeal to sportsmen and lovers of the great outdoors, for located as it is on the waters of Beech Creek, mountain and rainbow trout abound while the forests are well stocked with the native varieties of small game.

Free Prizes and Balloon Ascension

50 Cash prizes will be given away at this sale and a feature that will draw immense crowds from over this entire section of the country will be a grand free balloon ascension from the property, which will positively take place, including a parachute jump from an altitude of 6000 feet.

Brass Band Concert.

Anyone interested in buying a small home site or baby farm will do well to investigate this proposition.

It's Easier to Sell in NORTH CAROLINA

The Piedmont—

Famed for bright tobacco, corn and cotton, and more recently for hydro electric power, spinners, looms and a vast industrial and commercial expansion in which Jefferson Standard money has been of constant assistance.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars annually are being paid to North Carolina widows and orphans by the Jefferson Standard—more than any other single Company!

With Jefferson Standard's fourteen millions of dollars of investments working in practically every hamlet and village in North Carolina, it is only natural that right-thinking Tar Heels should insist, more and more, that their insurance needs be covered with a Jefferson Standard policy.

Doesn't it follow that the policies of this BIG HOME COMPANY are
