GRANDFATHER ORPHANAGE'S
THANKSGIVING APPEAL

The voice of the helpless orphan child strikes a tender place in every heart. In response to the pleadings that these little lives make, the kind hearted individuals, churches, fraternal clubs, etc., have established homes to harbor those who have so unfortunately been bereft of family and loved ones.

The question of proper maintenance for such homes never ceases to be a haunting problem. A beautiful custom of asking every individual to give a special thank offering for the support of these little ones on Thanksgiving Day has become not only a fruitful plan, but one that the orphanages have grown to depend on for their annual support, thus there have been many more poor helpless children cared for who otherwise likely would have been cast out as destitutes upon the cold world.

Grandfather Orphan Home belongs to us locally. It tries to provide a home for fatherless and motherless boys and girls of our mountain communities. In turn it asks for the cooperation and support of every community in the surrounding counties. As Thanksgiving Day draws near may its appeal rest heavily on the heart of every individual. Let the merchant, the doctor and all professional trades estimate his average daily income, for the year and lay aside an amount equivalent to this. In like manner may the farmer take from his stores a good liberal supply of potatoes, apples or other produce, and the house wife from her pantry a goodly portion of canned goods, and mark them "For Grandfather Orphanage." Several friends in a community combining their contributions in this way would make a nice load of supplies to send Grandfather Orphanage.

Grandfather Orphanage earnestly asks for the cooperation and support of every individual, man, woman and child, rich or poor, in every community of the mountains.

"If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, depart in peace be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body what doth it profit?"
